

A close-up photograph of a baby with fair skin and rosy cheeks, wearing a white short-sleeved shirt. The baby is looking down with a gentle expression, reaching out with their right hand to touch the nose of a sleeping tabby cat. The cat has grey, brown, and white fur and is lying down with its eyes closed. The background is a soft, out-of-focus grey.

Wanted Altar Servers for Saint Aedan's

This job is so big, only a kid can do it!
Calling all fourth through eighth graders.

Have you ever wondered what it is like up on the altar during Mass? Ever wanted a closer look at what it is all about? Well, we are asking boys and girls from St. Aedan's who would like to become more involved in serving at Mass. We will provide the training. All you need to do is show up with enthusiasm and a heart that is ready to participate in Mass in a special way.

If you are interested in learning more about a wonderful way to serve our parish that is made up of kids just like you, please email Deacon Jim Maher at StAedanservers@aol.com. Based on your response and your availability our first meeting & training will then be scheduled. We hope to have many new servers by the end of October!

I BELIEVE IN...

Join us for Pillar I: The Creed at St. Aedan in Parish Meeting Room beginning October 13th at 10:00 A.M. and continuing every Saturday at 10:00 A.M. for the next 11 weeks. For more information or to register for the study please call the rectory at 735-7405.

PARISH'S YOUTH ACTIVITY NIGHT

The Parish's next youth activity night will be on October 19th from 7 to 9 pm at St Aedan's gym for ninth and tenth graders of our parish. It will again be an open gym night with basketball, volleyball, board games and cards.

We will be serving pizza, snacks, dessert and water with no charge and it will be a Halloween theme with prizes for costumes. Costumes optional. Our September event was lots of fun. Please encourage your child to attend.

CANCER SUPPORT GROUP HERE AT ST. AEDAN'S

Unlike other groups, our parish group will be open to anyone affected by this disease, including family members and friends. Thank you for your interest and God Bless You!

We at St. Aedan's have formed a cancer support group which is known as "Our Lady Queen of Peace Cancer Support Group."

At present, the group will meet once a month. More frequent meetings may be scheduled in the future if the members determine it would be desirable.

The group will meet on the second Tuesday of each month. The next meeting will be on Tuesday, October 9th at 7:00P.M. in the meeting room.

Anyone who is interested in joining this group, here at St. Aedan's, is asked to contact

Margie at 845-323-9665.

You Belong!

ST. AEDAN'S MINISTRIES FAIR

All parishioners are cordially invited to participate in our Ministries Fair following the 5:30 Saturday evening and all four Sunday masses the weekend of October 20 – 21 in the Parish Meeting Room. Our fair will provide information on the many spiritual, service, and community ministries that are currently part of St. Aedan's parish life. Also, we are considering starting some new ministries we hope will make St. Aedan's a more vibrant, meaningful and inclusive parish. Whether you have been at St. Aedan's 50 years or 50 minutes, there is something new and exciting to learn! Members will be there to explain their ministries and answer your questions. Refreshments will be available.

We welcome any suggestions you may have regarding ministries or activities that can help make our parish the best it can be.

Remember, YOU BELONG!
