The Archdiocesan Retired Priests Collection

Our parish raised $2,112.00 to help Archdiocesan priests live modestly and peacefully in retirement. These funds help retired senior clergy continue their ministry in a variety of pastoral settings as well as provide financial assistance for the challenges they face with advanced age and failing health.

Thank you for your continued generosity and kindness.

HOSPITALITY

parish ministry 2019-2020 event planning

All heads of Parish Ministries and Organizations should submit their tentative 2019-2020 schedules and/or event dates to the Parish Office for approval by this Monday - July 22, 2019.

The year after Therese died, Anno Brandsma joined the Carmelites in his home province of Friesland, Holland. Taking the name Titus, he delved into Carmelite history and brought his deep prayer practice to his studies at the Gregorian University in Rome and later, teaching assignments. In 1923, he helped Dutch bishops found a Catholic University in Nijmegen, Holland, where he later became rector. Titus was also a journalist and leader in the Catholic press. In 1940, German troops invaded Holland. By 1941, they had made it illegal for any priest or religious to direct a school or university; they were also placing severe limits on publishers. Titus remained an outspoken advocate for the Catholic press and religious freedom, and as a result was arrested in January 1942. He died in July that same year in Dachau. He was made Blessed by Pope John Paul II in 1985.

God's Word for Children

Abraham and Sarah treated three strangers as guests, serving them food and waiting on them.
One of the strangers said that even though Sarah was old,
she was going to have a son.
Connect the letters in alphabetical order to see where Abraham was when he saw the three men.

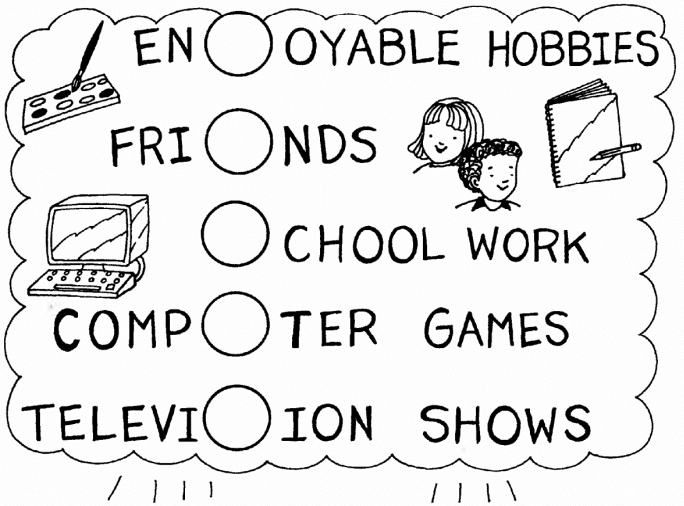
Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time


Martha and Mary were sisters.
One day Mary sat listening to Jesus while Martha did all the serving.
When Martha complained to Jesus, he told her,
"You are anxious and worried about many things" (Luke 10:41).
Fill in the missing letters that will finish this list of things that can occupy too much of our time.
Then read the circles from top to bottom to see whom we need to stay focused on.
