Pastor's Corner

June 29, 2025
Solemnity of the Apostles
Peter and Paul

My Dear People of God!

Today, the Church celebrates the two chief apostles often called the princes of the apostles, Saints Peter and Paul. We are very familiar with their story, but their dedication to the spread of the Gospel makes them paramount to the history of the Church and the transmission of the Faith. We should be grateful to the Almighty for these two men who ensured that the world would know who Jesus Christ is.

Following their example, we should look at our own lives and ask if we have been faithful to the transmission of the Gospel. Unlike Peter, we may not be called to preach publicly before the peoples as he did on the first Pentecost, but do we boldly speak of Jesus in our own family giving witness to our joy and hope? Unlike Paul, we will not (hopefully) be arrested for our Faith, but are we quick to proclaim Jesus in good times and in bad times, when the crowds accept us or when we are thrown out of the city?

Until the 12th Century, most of the western Church called the period beginning with the Feast of Saints Peter and Paul until Advent began "The Season of the Apostles." Today, we call it Ordinary Time speaking of the numbering of weeks and days between the great Seasons of Easter and Advent. It is a good meditation for us this week to consider why the Church called this time the Season of the Apostles. The simple reason why is because we (you and I) as baptized Christians are called to be Apostolic and to announce Jesus in our families, among our friends, and in our occupation. Are we being Apostolic?

Today, Sunday, June 29, we also have a special celebration in our local Diocese. Bishop Provost celebrates his 50th Anniversary as a priest. Let us give thanks to God for his ministry for these 50 years and especially his time here as Bishop of Lake Charles. May God grant him many more years of service to the Church and the people of God!

God Bless!
Father Ruben Buller

*Bishop Provost,
On this joyous occasion, may God's blessings be yours for your 50 years of dedicated and faithful service to the Lord.*

PRAYER FOR SAFETY IN HURRICANE SEASON

O God, Master of this passing world, Hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed Your order and returned to its former quietude. You are still the Master of the land and sea. We live in the shadow of a danger over which we have no control: the Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awake from its seeming lethargy and overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land and spread chaos and disaster.

During this hurricane season, we turn to You, O loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with the passing of time. O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our Beloved Mother, we ask you to plead with your Son in our behalf, so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son to reach the heavenly Jerusalem where stormless eternity awaits us. Amen

+The Most Reverend Maurice Schexnayder
2nd Bishop of Lafayette

The Prayer for Safety in Hurricane Season is also in the back of the Pew Missal in church

Lord, I come to your tender heart today, to you who have words that set my heart ablaze,

To you who pour out compassion on the little ones and the poor, on those who suffer, and on all human miseries.

I desire to know you more, to contemplate you in the Gospel, to be with you and learn from you and from the charity with which you allowed yourself to be touched by all forms of poverty.

You showed us the Father's love by loving us without measure with your divine and human heart.

Grant all your children the grace of encountering you.

Change, shape, and transform our plans, so that we seek only you in every circumstance:

In prayer, in work, in encounters, and in our daily routine.

From this encounter, send us out on mission,
A mission of compassion for the world in which you are the source from which all consolation flows.

Amen.
Pope Leo XIV

JUBILEE PRAYER 2025

Father in heaven, may the faith you have given us in your son, Jesus Christ, our brother, and the flame of charity enkindled in our hearts by the Holy Spirit, reawaken in us the blessed hope for the coming of your Kingdom.

May your grace transform us into tireless cultivators of the seeds of the Gospel. May those seeds transform from within both humanity and the whole cosmos in the sure expectation of a new heaven and a new earth, when, with the powers of Evil vanquished, your glory will shine eternally.

May the grace of the Jubilee reawaken in us, Pilgrims of Hope, a yearning for the treasures of heaven. May that same grace spread the joy and peace of our Redeemer throughout the earth.

To you our God, eternally blessed, be glory and praise for ever.
Amen
