 JULY 27, 2025

My Dear People of God!

As we continue to look at the Creed of the Church that we profess each week, we move to the next consideration when we profess that the one God that we believe is the “Father almighty.” The fact that we know that God is our “Father” is not based on logic or thought process. We know that God is our “Father” because He has revealed it first and primarily through His Son, Jesus Christ, and secondly, the experience that we have and perceive through our participation in the sacraments of the Church. In the end, we could not know the fatherhood of God without revelation, meaning that God had to tell us this fact.

Sometimes people will object that we could know through human reason that God is our “Father” because we know that God is the Creator of all things (we will look at that truth soon). But there is an essential difference between a creator and a father. A creator is external to the thing created; a father leaves himself in the created thing. Looking at biology, our biological father had to leave his genetic stuff in us so that we could live. Our true father (taking in fact that some of us may have had a father who was not a mere biological father) leaves his spirit and truth in us through his teaching and guiding of us. The Father, God, in creating us leaves behind His stuff in us as well.

The basis of this is found in the opening chapters of Genesis when we are told that God created the human person (male and female) in His image and called to be in His likeness. Saint Augustine in his work on the Blessed Trinity says that the human person longs then for that return to know God because we are looking for meaning. This longing then is trace of the original truth of our identity that survives despite our sinfulness.

In the end, we must begin to move beyond thinking of God as our mere Creator. Yes, He did make us, but more than that He as our Father has left part of Himself in us. Through this realization, we then begin to know our true self relating back to our origin in God, our Father almighty.

God Bless!
 Father Ruben Buller

Seminarian Michael Desormeaux extends his heartfelt gratitude to Father Buller and the Cathedral Parish for their generous gift and prayers in celebration of his graduation from St. Joseph Seminary College this past May. He offers his sincere thanks and assures the parishioners of his continued prayers.

Youth News

The Cathedral Youth have had a meaningful and active summer. Our middle schoolers kicked things off with Leadership Camp at Camp Karol, while our high school youth attended the Diocese of Lake Charles' Christian Leadership Institute in Dry Creek this July. Together, we also assembled Blessing Bags for the homeless, which our Cathedral Parish distributes to those in need. It's been a summer full of growth, service, and faith!

The Rosary is prayed before every weekday 12:05 Mass.
There is also the Novena to Our Lady of Perpetual Help before the 12:05 Mass on Tuesdays.
