EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
 AUGUST 3, 2025

My Dear People of God!

This weekend, we say good-bye to two of our Cathedral family. First, we say good-bye to Cameron Fontenot the seminarian who has been with us since the beginning of June. Cameron has been very active in our parish. Let us continue to pray for him as he begins his next phase of formation in preparation for priestly ministry.

Second, we say good-bye from the parish office to Cookie Dennison. Cookie has been the secretary for the Cathedral Parish for many years and has also assisted with many marriages as well. We will miss her certainly! However, she will remain a member of the Cathedral Parish.

As we continue to look at the Creed, we next consider that God the Father is creator of all things. When we look at the fact that God is the Creator, we see this in the fact that God is our Father. The fatherhood of God then becomes the source of all things. As we looked at last week, God the Creator is not merely an outside source. Like a biological father, God the Father leaves His mark behind. We then become the children of God as such because our Father has left His mark on us and in us.

As the maker and creator of all, we then find the origin of humanity in God. Our relationship with God as the family of God comes through the Incarnation, Ministry, Redemption, and Resurrection of Christ. However, our movement toward God is based on the mark that God has placed on our hearts. This longing for God then moves toward God. Saint Augustine will say: "Our hearts are restless, until they rest in You, O Lord." (Confessions, 1, 1.5)

It is for this reason that we should look at creation as a movement toward God. Seeing the marks and traces of God that are present should help us to grow closer to God. The Medieval Theologians of the Church would call this the book of nature that reveals the truth of God.

This week, it would be good for each of us to look at the natural beauty of all things of nature (the waterways, the flowers, the animals, etc.). Seeing them brings us closer to the truth of God, the Father, Creator of all that is.

God Bless!
 Father Ruben Buller

PRAYER FOR SAFETY IN HURRICANE SEASON

O God, Master of this passing world, Hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed Your order and returned to its former quietude. You are still the Master of the land and sea. We live in the shadow of a danger over which we have no control: the Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awake from its seeming lethargy and overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land and spread chaos and disaster.

During this hurricane season, we turn to You, O loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with the passing of time. O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our Beloved Mother, we ask you to plead with your Son in our behalf, so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son to reach the heavenly Jerusalem where stormless eternity awaits us. Amen
