My Dear People of God!

This week, both of our schools open again for another year of learning! As the Rector of Saint Louis and the Pastor of ICCS, I am happy with both of our schools and proud of our teachers and administration. Let us pray for our teachers, staff, and administration as they begin the new school year. Let us also pray for our students that they are open to learning at our Catholic Schools.

Having consider the fact that God is the Creator of all things, the Creed tells us this week that all things are “visible and invisible” things. We can easily believe in the things that we see, but as believers in something we also believe in unseen realities. These realities are the spiritual world that surrounds us. The spiritual world is the world that is unseen by the senses. It is perceived and realized through the intelligence of the creator. Unique among all creatures, the human person has two aspects: a mortal visible aspect and an immortal invisible aspect. We call these two realities the body and the soul. Together, the body and soul comprise the human person.

With this, we should realize something: we are in this world, but we are made with a foot in the next world. Our journey begins here in the world, but we do not stay here. We are part of that which is invisible. This means that we should be aware of what is taking place around. We interact with angels and other spirits and what we do bears importance for eternity.

As we gather this weekend for Mass, it is good for us to realize all the spiritual presences that are with us. The Angels come to us in the Mass to worship the Living God with us. Another important reality is that our loved ones who have died in the favor and grace of God also join us in the worship. The Catechism speaks of how in the Mass we are closer to our loved ones because of Christ’s Presence than we could possibly be in our earthly life (cf. CCC 1681, 1684, 1689). This invisible reality should be our inspiration to look beyond what we sense to the heavenly realities that are present among us even when our senses do fail us.

God Bless!
 Father Ruben Buller

PRAYER FOR SAFETY IN HURRICANE SEASON

O God, Master of this passing world, Hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed Your order and returned to its former quietude. You are still the Master of the land and sea. We live in the shadow of a danger over which we have no control: the Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awake from its seeming lethargy and overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land and spread chaos and disaster.

During this hurricane season, we turn to You, O loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with the passing of time. O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our Beloved Mother, we ask you to plead with your Son in our behalf, so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son to reach the heavenly Jerusalem where stormless eternity awaits us. Amen

2nd Bishop of Lafayette
