SCRIPTURE CORNER

THE LAMB OF GOD

“Behold the Lamb of God!” We hear this phrase every Sunday at Mass, but there’s a good chance that many Roman Catholics do not know who in the Bible originally spoke it. The phrase appears only in the Gospel of John, on the lips of John the Baptist, who utters it twice. In today’s Gospel reading, John proclaims Jesus as the Lamb of God, and two of John’s own disciples then follow Christ. A little bit later Andrew, who heard John and then followed Jesus, brings his brother Simon to be re-named Cephas, or Peter. A careful look at these Bible verses shows us the mission of everyone baptized into the Body of Christ: we must always proclaim our faith in Christ, so that others will follow him. We may not know how the will of God might work through those we bring to Christ; that is not the point. The point is that our on-going mission as a church is to bring others to Christ, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world.

CHAINS OF GRACE

The chains of grace are so powerful, and yet so sweet, that though they attract our heart, they do not shackle our freedoms.

St. Thomas the Apostle Conference

2017

Annual Report

The Society exists to help each of its members grow in spirituality and follow God's commandment to personally help the poor, under-employed and needy around us. Our members are dedicated to performing good works by helping others both financially and spiritually.

This Annual Report to the Parish is published in an effort to inform and be accountable to you who assist us financially in our work. It is only through your generosity and the support of our pastor that we are able to provide food and financial help to those in need. Funds donated to us are used to help those in need in our local community. This year we reached out to our neighbors that suffered from natural disasters. We felt we must pay it forward as we remember all who came to our aid after Katrina. We do the best we can to verify that the people who request aid are legitimate so that your donations go only to those who truly need our help. We also reach out to those in our parish when we see a need. We ask that if you know of someone truly in need that you contact us so that we may reach out to them. The following are this year statistics to report on how your donations were spent and hopefully give you confidence that the resources you provide to us are well used. We appreciate your continued support. Please keep us in your prayers as we strive to do God's will.

God Bless,
Darlene Barry, President
