SCRIPTURE CORNER

GOD'S WORK

We are so busy! Most of us have more than one job to do, and we never seem to have enough time. We are workers, volunteers, parents, friends, and most of us are more than one thing at a time. But which of these is the work of God?

We seldom view our ordinary work as being the work of God. We may think that we have to be ministers or priests, missionaries or charity workers, engaged full-time in works formally identified as being “God’s work.” But everything we do with a faithful heart and with love for others is God’s work. We each have our own role to fill in the world, and many gifts are necessary. We cannot always see the direct connection of our daily work to the plan of God. But we trust and we believe that God leads us to do what is needed, where it is needed. What is “God’s work?” “This is the work of God, that you believe in the one he sent” (John 6:29).

R.C.I.A.—WHAT IS IT?

Why do Catholics do that? What's all this about Mary? How does the Bible fit into what the Catholic Church teaches? What traditions do Catholics observe? What's the Mass all about? Do you know someone who would like to know more about the Catholic faith? The first session of the “Inquiry” sessions is upcoming. The sessions are for people who want to know about the Catholic faith. Maybe their spouse is Catholic; maybe they are searching for “meaning in life”; maybe they are just curious; or maybe they have already decided that they want to join the Catholic church. RCIA meets each Monday at 7pm (except Labor Day) for 14 weeks. The purpose of these sessions is to listen, ask questions, and decide if you want to take the next step. Just “Come and See.” If you know someone who might be interested in learning more about the Catholic faith, please tell them about RCIA. For more information contact Sue Hoffman at 228-864-5868 or psuehoffman@gmail.com.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

In 1794, a young Irishwoman befriended two widows aboard ship while emigrating to America. They bought a house in Philadelphia and began to live a community life under the direction of a priest. Soon they relocated to Washington. There, the “pious ladies,” as the neighbors called them, were asked by their priest friend, by then the president of Georgetown University, to begin a religious community. In 1799 they established a branch of the Visitation Order founded by Saint Jane de Chantal and Saint Francis de Sales in the 1620s.

The unique vision of this order followed a sensible routine, less arduous and more flexible than most traditions, and also accepted widows and older women. Amazingly, this American outpost of the Visitation began without reference to the “rule” of the Order. Most of the European convents had been lost under the “reign of terror,” and the rules and customs of the community could not be obtained. A copy of the rule was discovered in 1812, and in 1816 the pope officially established the monastery. By then, some French nuns had regrouped, and they sent a habit and cross to be copied. (No religious wore the habit in public in the United States until after the Civil War.) From the beginning, the Georgetown nuns had an educational mission, even though they discovered in the “rule” that such work was officially off-limits for the contemplative life. In America, the nuns depended on a school for their livelihood, so the rule was adapted. Today, the Academy of the Visitation is a thriving example of excellence in Catholic education, and the adjacent monastery is the oldest monastic foundation in the original thirteen United States.

MEETING JESUS IN THE GOSPEL OF JOHN

EXPERIENCE THE JOY OF FOLLOWING CHRIST

Following Christ takes more than simply believing in him or doing what he asks of us. Jesus wants you to be more than just a believer — He wants you to be his disciple and friend.

Follow Me: Meeting Jesus in the Gospel of John is your guide to a personal encounter with Christ. As the Good Shepherd, Jesus seeks after us. He comes to meet us and beckons us to follow him. He calls us to be his disciples, to trust him, to open ourselves to his merciful love, and to love others as He has loved us. Follow Me invites you to experience the joy of a renewed friendship with Christ.

Sessions are Wed mornings at 9am, beginning Aug 8, and continuing for 8 weeks. Classes will be held in the Cry Room immediately after Morning Mass.

Register online at <http://saintthomaslb.org/adult-education>. There is a $10 fee to help cover the cost of materials.

For more information, call or text Dave Gauthier at 228-596-8835, or view the trailers online at ascensionpress.com.

FEAST DAY OF ST. PHILOMENA

August 11 is the feast day for St. Philomena, the patron saint of babies, infants, and youth. Her remains were discovered in May, 1802 in the Catacomb of Priscilla. Three tiles enclosing the tomb bore an inscription, Pax Tecum Filumena (i.e. “Peace be unto you, Philomena”), that was taken to indicate that her name (in the Latin of the inscription) was Filumena, the English form of which is Philomena. Within the loculus was found the skeleton of a female between thirteen & fifteen years old. Embedded in the cement was a small glass phial with vestiges of what was taken to be blood. The remains were taken to be those of a virgin martyr and her name means “daughter of light”.
