HOW GOD INTENDS US TO LIVE

Today's readings are again directed to believers, communities of faith. As in last week's reading, Amos confronts us with a condemnation of those whose lives are focused on pleasure and self-absorption. The psalm contrasts that focus with the Lord's—justice for the oppressed; food for the hungry; freedom for captives; sight to the blind; raising of those who are bowed down; loving the just; protecting strangers, orphans, and the widow; and by doing so, thwarting the way of the wicked. Timothy urges the pursuit of righteousness, devotion, faith, love, patience, and gentleness. Luke tells the familiar tale of the wealthy man and the poor beggar at his doorstep, who experience life very differently in this world and in the next. We are once again being given clear indications about how God intends for us to live our lives.

MESSAGE OF THANKS FROM SR. CONSILIO

"I wish to express my sincere thanks to all in this wonderful parish of St. Thomas for your outpouring of love and support in making my farewell Mass and Reception such a memorable occasion. I wish to thank our Bishop Louis F. Kihneman III, our pastor Father Cuddy, associate pastor Father James, our retired priest Fr. Pat and all our priests who concelebrated, Deacon Buddy, Lauren Hymel and her outstanding choir, Paula Spears and her team for preparing the liturgy, Lisa Starita and her team for planning and preparing the wonderful reception and all who worked with her in setting up, arranging and cleaning up the Community Center.

I wish to thank all who attended the celebration, all who sent cards, gifts and good wishes-for all I am deeply grateful.

As a token of my deep gratitude I will have a special Mass offered for you all in Ireland. I thank my God each time I think of you and when I pray for you I pray with joy. I love you all." Sr. Consilio

PRAYER FOR OUR NATION

God our Father, Giver of life, we entrust the United States of America to your loving care. You are the rock on which this nation was founded. You alone are the true source of our cherished rights to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.

Reclaim this land for your glory and dwell among your people. Send your spirit to touch the hearts of our nation's leaders. Open their minds to the great worth of human life and the responsibilities that accompany human freedom. Remind your people that true happiness is rooted in seeking and doing your will. Through the intercession of Mary Immaculate, Patroness of our land, grant us the courage to reject the "culture of death." Lead us into a new millennium of life.

We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

THIS WEEKEND'S SECOND COLLECTION FOR ST. VINCENT DE PAUL SOCIETY

In this week's Gospel, we see that prudent decisiveness means that we recognize that all our choices in daily living are really choices for eternal life. Admission into heaven is something money cannot buy. The only currency that has any value to secure our entrance is that of love. The faith that saves is the recognition that God acts in many ways on our behalf to bring us salvation. We experience healing each time we come to Eucharist to give praise and thanks to God and in this act of worship, we become more perfect members of the body of Christ. As you place your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul in the collection basket, know that you are a sign of God's love to those who are suffering.

PARISH CELEBRATION FOR THE FEAST OF ALL HALLOWS

Thursday, October 31st, is Halloween or All Hallows. It is also the eve of the Feast of All Saints, a Holy Day of Obligation in the United States. The two are inextricably connected. As Christians, we can mock and make fun of Satan and his gang of witches and demons because, in Christ, we triumph over them. So on the Eve of All Hallows we not only laugh at the devil, but we celebrate the lives of the Saints.

Everyone is invited to celebrate the Eve of All Hallows with a party after the 5pm vigil mass. The children can wear their costumes to Mass and then we will all proceed to the community center.

Look for costume and food ideas in next week's bulletin.
