DOERS OF THE WORD

Today's second reading begins a five-week series of selections from James, a letter that is classified among the so-called "catholic" (or universal) epistles because they are addressed to a general audience rather than a particular community. The text offers essential advice for Christians of every generation. God is first cited as the author of all gifts, and in particular, reference is made to the gift of baptism by which we are made the "first fruits" of the new creation.

What follows is advice based on a very Jewish understanding of the "word" as an active force, operative in the world. We are reminded that unless we become "doers" of the word, our claim to faith is empty. Today and in subsequent weeks, the author reminds us that it is equally important to do the "works" of love, for example, by caring for the "orphans and widows in their affliction."

Gracious and loving God, we thank you for the gift of our clergy, religious and seminarians.

Through them, we experience your presence in all aspects of our lives and worship.

Help them to be strong in their vocation and set their souls on fire with love for your people.

Grant them wisdom, understanding, and the strength they need to follow in the footsteps of Jesus.

Inspire them with the vision of your Kingdom. Give them the words they need to spread the Gospel.

Allow them to experience joy in their ministry. Help them to be instruments of your Divine Grace.

We ask this through Jesus Christ, in unity with the Holy Spirit, God forever and ever.

Amen

Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults (RCIA)

Do you know someone who has never been baptized but feels the pull of the Holy Spirit in his or her life?

Do you know someone who is a baptized Christian but is looking for participation in the Christian life?

Do you know a baptized Catholic who has not received the sacraments?

The RCIA Team stands ready to welcome them. We need you to show them the way. We offer an opportunity for seekers to hear our stories and to learn more about the Catholic Faith. Our "No Strings Attached" Inquiry sessions begin Monday, September 20th at 7:00 pm, in the SRE bldg.

For more information, please contact:
Dave Gauthier by phone (228) 596-8835 or by email: religiouseducation@saintthomaslb.org

FEAST OF FAITH What Jesus Did. What Jesus Said.

The oldest account of what happened at the Last Supper comes to us not from the Gospels but from the First Letter of Saint Paul to the Corinthians: "I received from the Lord what I also handed on to you, that the Lord Jesus, on the night he was handed over, took bread, and, after he had given thanks, broke it and said, 'This is my body that is for you. Do this in remembrance of me' " (11:23-24). In our celebrations of the Eucharist, we are obedient to Christ's command to "do this." The priest, acting in the person of Christ, does what Jesus did and says what Jesus said. He takes bread, gives thanks, breaks it, and gives it to the Lord's disciples. He takes wine, gives thanks, shares it with us. We believe that the entire Eucharistic Prayer is consecratory, but we continue to hold these words of Jesus in special reverence. They are called the words of consecration, and the elevations of the host and chalice, the genuflections of the priest, and the optional ringing of a bell and use of incense remind us that we are in the presence of the Lord.
