Who are you called to be?

A Meditation on service to the "least of these"

Saint Thomas the Apostle, Long Beach, Lenten Mission Speakers: Charles and Linda Walden

Is your heart in your faith? Or sometimes do you feel like you are just going through the motions? Is something missing?

St. Paul writes in his letter to the Ephesians that: "we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand, that we should walk in them." Our speakers, Charles and Linda Walden, have been following Christ, walking in good works. Their answer to Christ's call to care for "the least of these" has taken them from the mountains of Haiti to lonely hospice rooms, from time spent with women in need to time spent with men behind bars. Come listen to their inspirational stories and challenges.

March 14, 15 and 16th

To All the Faithful of the Diocese of Biloxi:
As we "climb the holy mountain of Easter" during this Lenten season, certain of our steps along the way are meant to be celebrated. The feast of St. Patrick this year falls on a Friday of Lent. In view of this, and in response to several requests, I hereby grant on that day for all in the Diocese of Biloxi a dispensation from the Church's law of abstinence, provided that some other act of penance is substituted. Here are a few examples:

- encouraging others to pursue the path of intentional discipleship,
- visiting someone who is ill or hospitalized,
- spending some additional time in prayer,
- providing a meal or service for someone who is in need, or
- depriving oneself of some other legitimate pleasure, such as a television show, etc.

Wishing each of you a Spirit-led journey that draws you closer to the Lord and prepares you to celebrate joyfully the Easter mystery.

Given at the Pastoral Center, March 1, 2023.

THE PRECEPTS OF THE CHURCH

The precepts of the Church are set in the context of a moral life bound to and nourished by liturgical life. The obligatory character of these positive laws decreed by the pastoral authorities is meant to guarantee to the faithful the very necessary minimum in the spirit of prayer and moral effort, in the growth in love of God and neighbor:

1. "You shall attend Mass on Sundays and holy days of obligation and rest from servile labor" requires the faithful to sanctify the day commemorating the Resurrection of the Lord as well as the principal liturgical feasts honoring the mysteries of the Lord, the Blessed Virgin Mary, and the saints; in the first place, by participating in the Eucharistic celebration, in which the Christian community is gathered, and by resting from those works and activities which could impede such a sanctification of these days.
 2. "You shall confess your sins at least once a year" ensures preparation for the Eucharist by the reception of the sacrament of reconciliation, which continues Baptism's work of conversion and forgiveness.
 3. "You shall receive the sacrament of the Eucharist at least during the Easter season" guarantees as a minimum the reception of the Lord's Body and Blood in connection with the Paschal feasts, the origin and center of the Christian liturgy
 4. "You shall observe the days of fasting and abstinence established by the Church" ensures the times of asceticism and penance which prepare us for the liturgical feasts and help us acquire mastery over our instincts and freedom of heart.
 5. "You shall help to provide for the needs of the Church" means that the faithful are obliged to assist with the material needs of the Church, each according to his own ability. The faithful also have the duty of providing for the material needs of the Church, each according to his own abilities.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

When I became the pastor of a large parish, I soon found myself, for the first time in my life, riddled with anxiety, headaches, difficulty making decisions, and fatigue. I called a therapist friend and told her my symptoms and asked if she thought I needed a serious medical exam. She said, "How much water do you drink?" I told her, "I haven't had time to drink water lately." She responded, "You're chronically dehydrated. Drink eighty-five ounces a day and call me in a week." I started guzzling water and in a week all my symptoms went away. I felt great. Like me, the people in the Exodus wanderings were dehydrated. But unlike me, they knew it. Their symptoms were bad. They fight with each other. They accuse God of being a monster who wants them and their children to die of thirst. Their thirst drives them to plot the bloody assassination of the man who rescued them. God responds by using Moses to strike a rock from which rivers of living waters flow to quench their thirst for years to come. The Holy Spirit is the living water of love which flows from the pierced side of Jesus, the new Moses. What symptoms in your life suggest you're spiritually dehydrated? Anger at God? Cynicism at your leaders? Bitter rivalry and bickering with others? Don't panic. Of course we have those symptoms. Ask God to provide his water to quench your spiritual thirst, and he will. And all those symptoms will soon disappear.

LIVE THE LITURGY

Sometimes, like the Samaritan woman, we can scarcely believe that God would meet us here in this fallen world. The truth of what he speaks and the beauty of what he proclaims is like a well of spring water in a dry desert. Do we dare accept the gift?

Adoration

Oh Mary! Teach us the life of adoration. Teach us to see, as you did all the mysteries and all the graces in the Eucharist; to live over again the Gospel story and to read it in the light of the Eucharistic life of Jesus. Remember, Oh our Lady of the Most Blessed Sacrament, you are the Mother of all adorers of the Holy Eucharist. ~ St Peter Julien Eymard

Meditate on the first time Mary received the Eucharist.
What was that like for her?

To make an appointment to spend time with Jesus each Wednesday, call or text Sue Hoffman at (228) 313-0157. You are also welcome to drop in anytime on Wednesday to spend whatever time you can in adoration.

Prayer

Dear God, thank you for caring about me, no matter where I live, and no matter what I have done wrong.

Mission for the Week

Ask God to open your heart so that you will be friends with other kids, no matter what they look like.

Sharing the Gospel

Jews didn't usually like the people from Samaria, let alone visit one of their towns or talk to any of them. Men didn't usually talk to women back then, either. When Jesus talked to the woman at the well, Jesus broke those silly rules. Jesus saw into the woman's heart and knew that she needed God in her life. Jesus came to rescue her from her sin. She was so happy that she invited everyone in her town to meet Jesus, too.
