OUR MISSION STATEMENT

The people of St. Thomas the Apostle Parish in Long Beach form a community of faith dedicated to Catholic Teaching and Tradition. We welcome God's children of all ages to worship with us. Through prayer, education and formation, we are called by Jesus to bring hope and healing for life eternal to all people. Empowered by the Holy Spirit, we strive to use our personal and communal gifts to live the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

O most Holy Heart of Jesus, Fountain of every blessing, I adore You, I love You, and with lively sorrow for my sins, I offer You this poor heart of mine. Make me humble, patient, pure and wholly obedient to Your will. Grant, Good Jesus, that I may live in You and for You. Protect me in the midst of danger. Comfort me in my afflictions. Give me health of body, assistance in my temporal needs, Your blessing on all that I do, and the grace of a holy death. Amen.

As a parish family, we thank Deacon Buddy and Deacon Jerry for their unwavering dedication to Christ and His Church. Through their ministry of service, proclamation of the Gospel, and witness of faith, they continually lead us closer to our Lord. Thank you both for all you do—both seen and unseen—to serve our parish family with humility, compassion, and love. Your countless acts of kindness, prayers, guidance, and sacrifice are a blessing to us all. May God continue to strengthen and bless you both as you faithfully answer His call and serve His people.

CONGRATULATIONS AND THANK YOU FOR YOUR FAITHFUL SERVICE!

Order of Christian Initiation for Adults

REGISTER NOW TO BE READY TO START IN AUGUST.

WHAT ARE YOU SEARCHING FOR?

The Order of Christian Initiation for Adults, OCIA, is here to help you or someone you love to connect with Christ and His Church. It is the way for adults to receive the Sacraments of Initiation: Baptism, Eucharist, and Confirmation.

The OCIA is open to non-Catholics who are interested in joining the Church, to Baptized Catholics who want to complete the reception of the Sacraments, and to anyone, Catholic or Non-Catholic, who wants to learn more about the Church. It includes programs for children (over age 7) and teens that lead to Baptism, Eucharist, and, at an appropriate time, Confirmation.

OCIA Weekly meetings start Monday evening, August 10th.

For more information, contact Dave Gauthier at (228) 596-8835 or rcia@saintthomaslb.org.

BACKGROUND ON THE GOSPEL READING

We read today's Gospel in the context of last week's Gospel in which Jesus sent the twelve disciples to proclaim the kingdom of heaven. In between last week's reading and today's reading, Jesus has predicted that the disciples will face difficulties in their mission. Many people will not receive them well, even within the land of Israel. Even family members will turn away from the disciples because of the disciples' commitment to Jesus and the kingdom. Today's Gospel offers the disciples consolation against this difficult truth.

This section of Matthew's Gospel should be read in the context of Matthew's intended audience, a Jewish-Christian community. The Gospel alludes to the dangers and persecutions that this community has most likely already faced and will continue to face. To reassure this community, Matthew recalls for them the encouraging words of Jesus that we read today.

In this Gospel passage, Jesus might be understood as putting suffering in perspective. The disciples of Jesus are called upon to keep their focus on God. Those who can harm the body do not have ultimate power; God does. Still persecution and suffering can not be avoided or prevented. But Jesus reassures his disciples that God knows and cares about what happens to his children.

We might not face the same type of persecution, but we do experience difficulties as we endeavor to live a Christian life. Sometimes we let the opinions of others prevent us from doing what we know to be right. We need the reminder that what God thinks about us is more important. We are reassured by the promise that God cares for us and protects us.

FAMILY CONNECTION

It is not only individuals who need reassurance about God's love and protection. Communities need this reassurance as well, including the community of the family. Children rely on the confidence of their parents for this assurance. Parents can help the entire family's growth in trust and confidence in God by witnessing ways in which daily family needs are entrusted to God's care.

As the family gathers, distribute pieces of paper to each person. Tell them to write or draw ways in which they believe that God's help is needed for each person and for the family as a whole. Each slip of paper can then be collected in a basket.

Invite one member of the family to read aloud today's Gospel, Matthew 10:26-33. Recall together how well God knows your family and thank God for this wonderful grace. Conclude by praying together for each of the needs identified on the slips of paper. After each need is read, pray together, "God, we trust you because you know us so well." Conclude by praying the Glory Be to the Father.

This practice might become a regular part of your family's prayer. Set the basket in a place of prayer and encourage family members to add other needs throughout the week. Perhaps your family can pray for these things together during a family meal.
