FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

JULY 5, 2020

ANNOUNCEMENTS!

DEL ESCRITORIO DEL PÁRROCO

Parece que hemos cubierto el mismo territorio de información muchas veces, pero es importante tener claro lo que sucederá con la reapertura.

Solo 125 personas pueden venir a la Iglesia para cualquier misa. Eso significa que la entra da será controlada entrando SOLO por la puerta principal en la Calle 207th. Una vez que se alcanza el máximo, no se permitirá el ingreso de más personas a la Iglesia para ninguna misa.

También tendremos que ver si es necesario mover la misa dominical de las 8:30 a.m. a las 8:00 a.m. para tener tiempo suficiente para limpiar los bancos entre las misas. También necesitaremos la cooperación de todos en la parroquia. La reunión social con los demás y el saludo físico de los demás después de la misa no será posible. El agua bendita no estará disponible. La obligación de asistir a la misa del domingo permanecerá suspendido hasta nuevo aviso.

¡Debes venir a la Iglesia con una máscara! Si está enfermo o es vulnerable debido a su edad o enfermedad, debe seguir viendo la misa en la televisión en lugar de causar riesgos para usted u otros. Aquellos que son mayores de 65 años o que tienen otras condiciones de salud le aconsejamos a que no vengan a la Misa. Tienen la opción de ver la transmisión en vivo o la misa televisada.

Debes sentarte donde el Ujier te pide que te sientes. No podemos tener gente trepándose sobre otros para llegar a su asiento preferido. Debes abandonar la Iglesia inmediatamente después de la Misa. El equipo de limpieza puede hacer su trabajo sin ser obstruido. Las familias que viven juntas pueden sentarse juntos, pero todas las demás personas deben sentarse a una distancia de 6 pies de todos los demás. Adultos o niños no puede pasear por la Iglesia durante la misa.

Debes usar el baño en su casa antes de venir a la Iglesia porque no podemos limpiar después de cada persona en una larga fila. Nuestro baño no estará abierto. Habrá otras normas que DEBEMOS observar.

No disfruto ser un "ejecutor" pero tengo la obligación moral de mantenerlos tan seguro como posible. Confío en su cooperación durante este tiempo de transición, a medida que trabajemos el proceso de reapertura.

¡DIOS LOS BENDIGA Y LOS CUIDE A TODOS!

SCRIPTURE INSIGHTS

Paul continues to develop his thoughts about the contrast between an Adamic humanity and a messianic humanity in Romans 8. Here, Paul expresses the contrast in terms of flesh and spirit. While flesh has incapacitated us with violence and death, spirit empowers us for life and justice.

Interestingly, Paul begins this Chapter referring to a law of the spirit of life in Christ and a law of sin and of death (Romans 8:1-8). He connects the law of sin with the flesh. Going back to Adam and the first death in the Bible, the law of flesh may be one of measure and competition. It is seen in Cain's jealousy of Abel that leads to the first murder. That same law brings about condemnations and more deaths through punishment or revenge.

The law of the spirit gives up this jealous competition and hostile calculation. It enables a ruler to arrive unassumingly on a donkey (Zechariah 9:9-10) instead of showing up haughtily with a mighty military. With this law of the spirit, God not only is gracious, merciful, slow to anger, holding up the falling, and raising those who are bowed down (Psalm 145:8-9, 14) but also takes on vulnerable and sinful flesh (Romans 8:3). The law of the spirit leads to divine revelations to dependent infants instead of to self-assured elites, and to Jesus offering peace and rest to the weary and the humble (Matthew 11:25-30). The law of the spirit is a different value system and way of life.

- Paul links human inability under the law of flesh to follow God with our hostility to God— as opposed to God being hostile to or mad at us (Romans 8:7). How may this different emphasis change our theology?

- Spirit is the breath that animates and makes alive. As such, it is also creative. How can people of the spirit be creative to bring about life?

- What qualities do infants possess that allow them to see and receive revelations in ways that adults cannot?
