UNA FRESCA PERSPECTIVA DE LAS LECTURAS DOMINICALES

SU PALABRA HOY por el Reverendo William J. Reilly

Tercer Domingo en Tiempo Ordinario

26 de enero de 2020

“Mientras caminaba a orillas del mar de Galilea, Jesús vio a dos hermanos: a Simón, llamado Pedro, y a su hermano Andrés, que echaban las redes al mar porque eran pescadores. Entonces les dijo: ‘Sígueme, y yo los haré pescadores de hombres.’ Inmediatamente, ellos dejaron las redes y lo siguieron. Continuando su camino, vio a otros dos hermanos: a Santiago, hijo de Zebedeo, y a su hermano Juan, que estaban en la barca de Zebedeo, su padre, arreglando las redes; y Jesús los llamó. Inmediatamente, ellos dejaron la barca y a su padre, y lo siguieron.”

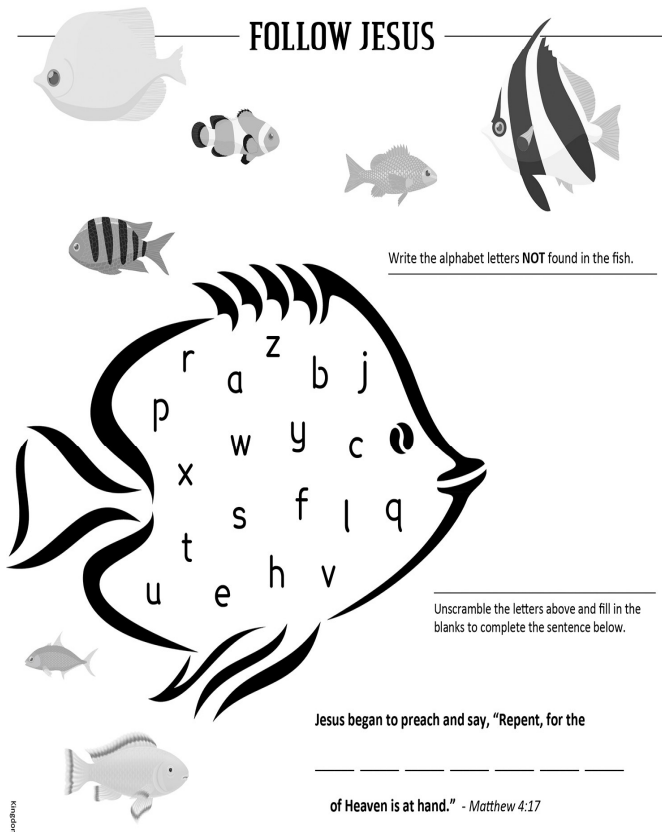

Hubo algo especial en el encuentro de las dos parejas de hermanos con Jesús. ¿Los conocía de antes? ¿Por qué llamó a estos cuatro y no a alguien más? ¿Comprendieron ellos a qué los estaba llamando, y lo que significaba ser ‘pescadores de hombres’? ¿Cómo pudieron abandonar a su padre y negocio?

Jesús continúa caminando con nosotros, no a la orilla del mar de Galilea, pero sin embargo lo hace. Nos llama a todos, sin excepción, a Su trabajo. Lo encontramos, no solo en una iglesia, sino en nuestro vecindario, en las tiendas, en reuniones de padres y maestros, en el campo de pelota, y en nuestra vida parroquial. ¿Lo reconoce? Nunca sabemos por qué, cómo ni cuándo, pero el mismo Jesús nos llama y la tarea es la misma que se le encomendó a esos hermanos. ¿Qué si hubieran rehusado? ¿En dónde estaríamos hoy? ¿Qué es lo que El pide de mí?

Brothers James and John left their father Zebedee, their boat and nets, and followed Jesus.

As fishers of men and women, they would now help
Jesus gather the people and preach the Good News.

Write the alphabet letters NOT found in the fish.

Unscramble the letters above and fill in the blanks to complete the sentence below.

Jesus began to preach and say, "Repent, for the of Heaven is at hand." - Matthew 4:17
