MARIAN PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

O Virgin Mary, Mother of Jesus and Mother of the Church, to you we commend our young people, in particular those called to follow your Son as priests, brothers and sisters. You know, O Mary, the struggles, doubts, and obstacles they must face. Assist them to answer "Yes" to the divine call, as you did at the invitation of the angel. Draw them near to your heart so that they can understand the joy that awaits them when they answer you Son's call to be witnesses of His love in the world. Amen.

Prayer from Vianney Vocations

PARISH OFFICE CLOSED

Monday, July 4 to commemorate the signing of the Declaration of Independence, on July 4, 1776.
God Bless America!

PLEASE NOTE

Due to the holiday observed on Monday, July 4, there will be NO Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament the first Monday of the month.

PARISH RAFFLE TICKETS

Available today! There are 4 pages of tickets, worth $100, in each envelope. We ask that you sign your name and how many envelopes you take on a sheet next to the tickets.

After a few weekends, parishioners who do not pick up their tickets in Church will receive them in the mail. Please help us avoid this extra expense by taking envelopes to your family and neighbors. Just remember to sign their names too. Many thanks!

IN THANKSGIVING

Heavenly Father, we thank You for the rain showers that we experienced this past week. Thank You for hearing the cries of Your people and sending the rain to refresh and replenish the earth You created. We thank You for being the compassionate and merciful God who cares for Your people. Gracious Father, You said to be thankful for all things. We are grateful for the rain. Please continue to bless us with favorable weather and protection from storms. Amen.

THE PRO-LIFE CORNER

All have a right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. Any law that excludes the pre-born is an unjust law. Without life all other rights and issues cease to exist. Pray to end abortion and euthanasia.

Readings for JULY 10: FIFTEENTH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

1st Reading: Deuteronomy 30:10-14

Moses said to the people: "If only you would heed the voice of the LORD, your God, and keep his commandments and statutes that are written in this book of the law, when you return to the LORD, your God, with all your heart and all your soul. "For this command that I enjoin on you today is not too mysterious and remote for you. It is not up in the sky, that you should say, 'Who will go up in the sky to get it for us and tell us of it, that we may carry it out?' Nor is it across the sea, that you should say, 'Who will cross the sea to get it for us and tell us of it, that we may carry it out?' No, it is something very near to you, already in your mouths and in your hearts; you have only to carry it out."

2nd Reading: Colossians 1:15-20

Christ Jesus is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation. For in him were created all things in heaven and on earth, the visible and the invisible, whether thrones or dominions or principalities or powers; all things were created through him and for him. He is before all things, and in him all things hold together. He is the head of the body, the church. He is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, that in all things he himself might be preeminent. For in him all the fullness was pleased to dwell, and through him to reconcile all things for him, making peace by the blood of his cross through him, whether those on earth or those in heaven.

Gospel: Luke 10:25-37

There was a scholar of the law who stood up to test Jesus and said, "Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?" Jesus said to him, "What is written in the law? How do you read it?" He said in reply, "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your being, with all your strength, and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself." He replied to him, "You have answered correctly; do this and you will live." But because he wished to justify himself, he said to Jesus, "And who is my neighbor?" Jesus replied, "A man fell victim to robbers as he went down from Jerusalem to Jericho. They stripped and beat him and went off leaving him half-dead. A priest happened to be going down that road, but when he saw him, he passed by on the opposite side. Likewise a Levite came to the place, and when he saw him, he passed by on the opposite side. But a Samaritan traveler who came upon him was moved with compassion at the sight. He approached the victim, poured oil and wine over his wounds and bandaged them. Then he lifted him up on his own animal, took him to an inn, and cared for him. The next day he took out two silver coins and gave them to the innkeeper with the instruction, 'Take care of him. If you spend more than what I have given you, I shall repay you on my way back.' Which of these three, in your opinion, was neighbor to the robbers' victim?" He answered, "The one who treated him with mercy." Jesus said to him, "Go and do likewise."
