NON-PERISHABLE FOOD

Matthew 25 Ministry is collecting non-perishable food items to help make up Christmas Baskets for the less fortunate. Baskets are at each entrance of the Church to hold your donations. Deadline is Friday, December 16. Contact the Parish Office for information. Adults are always needed to help fill and distribute baskets.

EUCHARISTIC MIRACLES DISPLAY

A selection of these banners are on display in our parish until Monday morning. The banners are the result of the work of Blessed Carlo Acutis, who had a strong devotion to the Holy Eucharist (the Most Blessed Sacrament), in which our Lord, Jesus Christ, is present: body, blood, soul and divinity. Before his death at the age of fifteen, due to leukemia, Carlo embarked on a mission to compile information on Eucharistic miracles that have occurred throughout the centuries. The fruits of his labor are now available to people throughout the world. The banners can also be seen on the Diocese of Victoria website.

"The Eucharist is my highway to Heaven."
Blessed Carlo Acutis

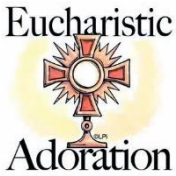
9:00 a.m. – 9:00 p.m.
Mondays:
December 12 & December 19:
9:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.



The specific way that Jesus asks you to love him in return is to spend one quiet hour with him in the Blessed Sacrament.

"Where your treasure is, there is your heart...."
"Could you not watch one hour with me?"
(Matthew 6:21; 26:40)

May every day be filled with God's uncountable blessings,
memorable moments, and happiness.
Wishing you a Blessed Thanksgiving.

READINGS for NOVEMBER 27
FIRST SUNDAY in ADVENT

1st Reading: Isaiah 2:1-5

This is what Isaiah, son of Amoz, saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem. In days to come, the mountain of the LORD's house shall be established as the highest mountain and raised above the hills. All nations shall stream toward it; many peoples shall come and say: "Come, let us climb the LORD's mountain, to the house of the God of Jacob, that he may instruct us in his ways, and we may walk in his paths." For from Zion shall go forth instruction, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem. He shall judge between the nations, and impose terms on many peoples. They shall beat their swords into plowshares and their spears into pruning hooks; one nation shall not raise the sword against another, nor shall they train for war again. O house of Jacob, come, let us walk in the light of the Lord!

2nd Reading: Romans 13:11-14

Brothers and sisters: You know the time; it is the hour now for you to awake from sleep. For our salvation is nearer now than when we first believed; the night is advanced, the day is at hand. Let us then throw off the works of darkness and put on the armor of light; let us conduct ourselves properly as in the day, not in orgies and drunkenness, not in promiscuity and lust, not in rivalry and jealousy. But put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the desires of the flesh.

Gospel: Matthew 24:37-44

Jesus said to his disciples: "As it was in the days of Noah, so it will be at the coming of the Son of Man. In those days before the flood, they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, up to the day that Noah entered the ark. They did not know until the flood came and carried them all away. So will it be also at the coming of the Son of Man. Two men will be out in the field; one will be taken, and one will be left. Two women will be grinding at the mill; one will be taken, and one will be left. Therefore, stay awake! For you do not know on which day your Lord will come. Be sure of this: if the master of the house had known the hour of night when the thief was coming, he would have stayed awake and not let his house be broken into. So too, you also must be prepared, for at an hour you do not expect, the Son of Man will come."
