POPE FRANCIS: THE WORK OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

The world needs men and women who are not closed in on themselves, but filled with the Holy Spirit. Closing oneself off from the Holy Spirit means not only a lack of freedom; it is a sin. There are many ways one can close oneself off to the Holy Spirit: by selfishness for one's own gain; by rigid legalism – seen in the attitude of the doctors of the law to whom Jesus referred as "hypocrites"; by neglect of what Jesus taught; by living the Christian life not as service to others but in the pursuit of personal interests; and in so many other ways. However, the world needs the courage, hope, faith and perseverance of Christ's followers. The world needs the fruits, the gifts of the Holy Spirit, as Saint Paul lists them: "love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control" (Gal 5:22). The gift of the Holy Spirit has been bestowed upon the Church and upon each one of us, so that we may live lives of genuine faith and active charity, that we may sow the seeds of reconciliation and peace. Strengthened by the Spirit – who guides, who guides us into the truth, who renews us and the whole earth, and who gives us his fruits – strengthened in the Spirit and by these many gifts, may we be able to battle uncompromisingly against sin, to battle uncompromisingly against corruption, which continues to spread in the world day after day, by devoting ourselves with patient perseverance to the works of justice and peace.

PAPA FRANCISCO: EL LABOR DEL ESPIRITU SANTO

El mundo tiene necesidad de hombres y mujeres no cerrados, sino llenos de Espíritu Santo. El estar cerrados al Espíritu Santo no es solamente falta de libertad, sino también pecado. Existen muchos modos de cerrarse al Espíritu Santo: en el egoísmo del propio interés, en el legalismo rígido – como la actitud de los doctores de la ley que Jesús llama hipócritas -, en la falta de memoria de todo aquello que Jesús ha enseñado, en el vivir la vida cristiana no como servicio sino como interés personal, entre otras cosas. En cambio, el mundo tiene necesidad del valor, de la esperanza, de la fe y de la perseverancia de los discípulos de Cristo. El mundo necesita los frutos, los dones del Espíritu Santo, como enumera san Pablo: «amor, alegría, paz, paciencia, afabilidad, bondad, lealtad, modestia, dominio de sí» (Ga 5, 22). El don del Espíritu Santo ha sido dado en abundancia a la Iglesia y a cada uno de nosotros, para que podamos vivir con fe genuina y caridad operante, para que podamos difundir la semilla de la reconciliación y de la paz. Reforzados por el Espíritu Santo –que guía, nos guía a la verdad, que nos renueva a nosotros y a toda la tierra, y que nos da los frutos– reforzados en el espíritu y por estos múltiples dones, llegamos a ser capaces de luchar, sin concesión alguna, contra el pecado, de luchar, sin concesión alguna, contra la corrupción que, día tras día, se extiende cada vez más en el mundo, y de dedicarnos con paciente perseverancia a las obras de la justicia y de la paz.
