GOOD NEWS REFLECTION: HOW TO HANDLE CONFLICTS WITHOUT SINNING

The Gospel story this Sunday gives us a good example of how to handle conflicts without sinning. Mary sees a need and wants Jesus to do something about it. She knows full well that only a miraculous intervention will solve the problem. She wants the divine in him to respond to her request, but the human nature of Jesus responds first: He doesn't want to reveal his divinity with this kind of miracle. He's eager to heal souls, not empty wine jars. "Woman, how does your concern affect me?" he says. "My hour has not yet come." This is like saying, "I respect your request, holy Daughter of Eve, but think about how a miracle in this situation would affect the ministry I'm about to start! People will come to me for party favors and other earthly pleasures, but I want to give them eternal salvation." We Catholics like to use this scripture as faith-building evidence of the Blessed Mother's ability to help us. We see her in this story as a mother who can get for us whatever we want from Jesus, because she can make him change his mind. Jesus told her no, but the conflict was resolved her way. Mary won, Jesus lost. Isn't this how we view conflicts? It's not resolved until someone's a winner and someone else is a loser. Therefore, when we make requests of God and he doesn't give us what we want, we feel like we're the loser, so we pray harder, trying to make God become the loser. And when that doesn't work, we ask the Blessed Mother to side with us and influence her Son against his will. But God wants us to be the winner from the start! He always wants what's best for us. Mary knew this when she told the wine stewards, "Do whatever my Son tells you." Conflicts are not inherently bad. Conflicts become sacred opportunities for wonderful solutions when we entrust them to God. Mary trusted that Jesus cared about the people at the party. Jesus trusted that the Father cared about both the people and his ministry. It was a win-win situation. How do you feel when you lose an argument? How hard do you work at making the other person lose? Will you trust God to take good care of you -- even if you feel like a loser? Describe a conflict (a hypothetical one or a real one from your past or present) and suggest an ideal solution. Is anyone a loser in this scenario? If you were to truly trust God, what might he do to resolve the conflict so that everyone benefits? © 2019 Terry Modica, Catholic Digital Resources, www.catholicdr.com. Printed by permission. REFLEXIÓN DE LAS BUENAS NUEVAS: CÓMO MANEJAR CONFLICTOS SIN PECAR

La historia del Evangelio de este domingo nos da un buen ejemplo sobre cómo manejar conflictos sin pecar. María ve una necesidad y quiere que Jesús haga algo al respecto. Ella sabe muy bien que sólo una intervención milagrosa va a resolver el problema. Ella quiere que lo divino en él responda a su petición, pero la naturaleza humana de Jesús responde primero: él no quiere revelar su divinidad con este tipo de milagros. Está ansioso para sanar las almas, no las tinajas de vino vacías. Él dice: "Mujer, ¿cómo me afecta tu preocupación?" "Mi hora no ha llegado aún." Esto es como decir: "Yo respeto tu solicitud, Hija santa de Eva, pero piensa ¡cómo un milagro en esta situación afectaría el ministerio que estoy a punto de empezar! La gente vendrá a pedirme favores y otros placeres terrenales, pero yo quiero darles la salvación eterna." A nosotros los católicos nos gusta usar este pasaje bíblico como prueba de fe de la capacidad de la Santísima Madre para ayudarnos. La vemos en esta historia como una madre que puede conseguirnos lo que queremos de Jesús, porque puede hacerle cambiar de opinión. Jesús le dijo que no, pero el conflicto se resolvió a su manera. María ganó, Jesús perdió. ¿No es esta la forma en que vemos los conflictos? No está resuelto hasta que alguien gana y alguien pierde. Por lo tanto, cuando hacemos peticiones a Dios y él no nos da lo que queremos, nos sentimos como si fuéramos los perdedores, así que oramos con más intensidad, tratando de hacer que Dios sea el perdedor. Y cuando eso no funciona, le pedimos a la Santísima Madre que se ponga de nuestro lado e influya en su Hijo en contra de su voluntad. ¡Pero Dios quiere que seamos los ganadores desde el principio! Él siempre quiere lo mejor para nosotros. María sabía esto cuando les dijo a los servidores: "Hagan lo que mi Hijo les diga". Los conflictos no son intrínsecamente malos. Los conflictos se convierten en oportunidades sagradas para lograr soluciones maravillosas cuando los confiamos a Dios. María confiaba en que Jesús se preocupaba por las personas de la fiesta. Jesús confiaba en que el Padre se preocupaba por los dos, la gente y su ministerio. Era una situación ganadora-ganadora. ¿Cómo te sientes cuando pierdes una discusión? ¿Cuánto te esfuerzas para hacer que la otra persona pierda? ¿Confías en que Dios cuidará bien de ti - incluso si te sientes como un perdedor? Describe un conflicto (hipotético o real, de tu pasado o presente) y sugiere la solución ideal. ¿Hay algún perdedor en este escenario? Si de verdad confiaras en Dios, ¿qué haría él para resolver el conflicto de manera que todos se beneficiarán? © 2019 Terry Modica, Catholic Digital Resources, www.catholicdr.com.
