HERE I AM, LORD; I COME TO DO YOUR WILL

Full House

We had a great Christmas season here at Hotel St. Mary. For a couple of weeks we were up to three seminarians and three priests. Two college age men (Adam and Brian) and one in Theology (Corey). Adam is a junior and Brian a senior who plans to move onto major seminary (Theology) in the in the fall. Corey will be finishing his second year of theology and God willing a year from this may will be ordained a deacon and then a priest the year after. It was great to have their energy and faith around. Please note the appearance of the snowman (snowbishop?) on the roof of the garage as evidence. J

Thank you for your loving welcome and patience with all of the guests here at the Rectory. I think I can speak for them, that they have felt well received, included, and have had a positive experience of the parish. Two of them were here over the summer and they felt good enough about everything to come back. I am not surprised. You are good people.

As of last Sunday, two seminarians have moved on and one remains. Adam will be heading back to the University of St. Thomas, St. John Vianney Seminary in St. Paul, MN at the end of January. He is joyful and has a ton of energy. (I remember those days.)

Pray for them all as they continue their studies and discern God's will for their lives.

Fr. Bill Lugger is recuperating. Fr. David and I are happy for his presence. Fr. Bill is a great house guest and it is nice to have him around the place. Please keep him in your prayers as he slowly gets better. Who knows, if things work out right, we may make this a permanent arrangement. I could handle having a senior priest on campus, and I know that you are good at welcoming and loving the stranger. We will see.

Mindy Pung

You may have heard her name in the Prayers of the Faithful. Mindy is my sister in law, married to my oldest brother Dan. They live in Phoenix, AZ. Mindy has had a number of health issues over the years. The latest involved an extended stay in the hospital starting in September dealing with a number of infections which culminated in her catching Covid at her rehab center. Two weeks later on Saturday, January 9, she died. We had the funeral on Thursday. She was 52. Please remember Mindy, my brother Dan, Mindy's parents (Mitch and Joyce), and her brother Mark in your prayers.

I am doing fine. Grief does its own thing and I will continue to embrace it as often as it shows itself.

You are in my prayers.

Fr. Karl Pung

Hymns and Scripture: Here I am Lord

This week we return to our series on hymns and scripture. Sometimes this is a broad reference and other times it's a direct quote from our scripture readings. Sacred music is planned with this in mind. This week-end we celebrate the Second Sunday in Ordinary Time. We would likely choose to use the hymn: Here I Am, Lord. This hymn is a reference to our responsorial psalm, Psalm 40: "Here am I, Lord, I come to do your will." Do we always hear the Lord calling and are we ready to do what he asks? Help us, Lord, to hear your call and go wherever you lead us.
