(3) Ministry Awareness – Tom Fackender

Tom discussed the completion of The Ministry Interest Survey, which was promoted in a variety of ways prior to and during February 22-23. It was closed on March 5. Nearly all of the 126 completed surveys were collected online. The Parish Involvement Community conducted an initial review of survey results at its March 18 meeting.

Pastoral Associate, Joe Santos communicate with both survey participants and ministry leaders. An email message was sent on March 20 to all parishioners who completed the survey thanking them for their participation and informing them to expect contact from each specific ministries they expressed interest in. On March 27 each ministry leader with a list of parishioners who expressed interest in joining their ministry. Ministry leaders were asked to contact those parishioners in a timely manner. A “Best Practices” guide providing tips to ministry leaders on contacting and engaging those who express interest was distributed at the Ministry Leader Retreat.

The Parish Involvement Community sub-committee will meet to further analyze the “Talents” section of the Ministry Survey to develop a strategy for providing the gathered information to ministry leaders.
