Chalk for Epiphany House Blessing

Today blessed chalk will be available after Mass along with instructions for blessing your home. If you miss it and would like to pick up a blessing kit please contact Diana Grosh in the office at 850-893-1837

Did you know? Traditionally on the feast of Epiphany, Catholics all over the world bless their homes by writing the letters C, M, and B and the numbers of the year on either side — so this year it would look like “20+C+M+B+26.” The letters stand for the traditional names of the three Magi: Caspar, Melchior, and Balthasar. They also represent the Latin blessing “Christus mansionem benedicat,” which means “May Christ bless this house.”

On Tues, 1/6 our first restaurant for the new year is El Jalisco, 2915 Kerry Forest Parkway. See you there at 11:00 a.m.

All parishioners 55+ are welcome to attend! Questions? Call or text Pat at 850-459-1041 or hallp@comcast.net.

Magi, Three Kings, Three Wise Men...who were they?

Answer: We sing songs, give gifts, and move three mysterious men into our manger scenes. There's a rich heritage in the Catholic Church of celebrating the magi, but their origins are steeped in mystery. The original Greek calls these men magoi. The word is translated elsewhere in Scripture to mean "magician," but a similar word was used in ancient history to describe an entirely different set of people altogether. In what is now modern-day Iran, the ruling empire had a wealthy priestly caste known as the Magi. At the time of Christ, the Magi formed one of the ruling councils of the Parthian Empire. These priests interpreted dreams and read the stars to anticipate major events that could affect the fortunes of the empire.

We're not exactly sure where the magi of the Gospels traveled from. Matthew simply says "the east." History tells us that the ancient regions of Persia, Assyria, and Babylon all had a magi priesthood at the time of Christ. Whichever region they hailed from, they likely traveled over one thousand miles over the course of several months to arrive at the Holy Family. Unfortunately for the classic song, there is no concrete evidence these men were themselves kings, though they did bear gifts "from afar" at the prompting of their astronomical calculations.

Join us every Friday in room 312 after the 9 AM Mass. We will discuss Fr. Dustin Feddon's book, HALF WAY HOME. We shows us how to put Word into Action!

The Corporal Works of Mercy give us a model for how we are to treat others. The teachings of Jesus found in Matthew 25:34-46 show us how to put those teachings into action.

Feeding the hungry, giving drink to the thirsty, sheltering the homeless, visiting the sick, visiting prisoners, burying the dead, and giving alms to the poor.

WORD IN ACTION

Come as we learn ways to show mercy to our neighbors!

The Secular Franciscan Order meets every Third Saturday at Good Shepherd parish, 9:45 – 11:30 a.m. For our meetings on Jan 17, Feb 21, and Mar 21, we invite all to join us for a study of Dilexi te, the Apostolic Exhortation of Pope Leo XIV on the centrality of the poor in the Church. Learn about the SFO at <https://secularfranciscansusa.org> (U.S.) and <https://ffmr-ofs.org> (FL). For more info contact J. Frank Pate OFS at (850) 728-4426 or franksta70@comcast.net.

DINNER FOR OUR PRIESTS

To sign up to bring a meal, go to takethenameal.com and enter the recipient name FOLEY and the password 2971.

When a priest is not available to celebrate Mass on Sunday afternoons at a state prison, trained lay parishioners from Good Shepherd provide a Communion Service for inmates in the prison chapel.

To ensure the continuity of this ministry to our incarcerated brothers in Christ, we are seeking additional people who are willing to attend one or more of these Sunday services to observe, learn about the ministry, and prayerfully discern whether God may be calling them to serve in this way on a regular basis.

Any parishioner interested in learning more about our prison ministry and the requirements of the Florida Department of Corrections for chapel access is invited to contact David at dcoghagan120156@yahoo.com.
