EXPERIENCING THE PASCHAL TRIDUUM

This has been prepared as an overview of the principle celebrations that mark the public life of the church during Holy Week which begins next Sunday, March 29. Although the week begins with a commemoration of Jesus' triumphant entry into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, the focus of this week is the Paschal Triduum (meaning 3 days) – which begins at sunset on Holy Thursday, and includes Good Friday, the Easter Vigil on Holy Saturday and concludes on Easter at sunset. This time is the holiest period of the church's life, and we live the mystery of the death, burial and resurrection of the Lord by participating in one continuous 3-day liturgy.

These three days are different in format from the regular Sunday Masses we celebrate as a Catholic community. On Holy Thursday, we share in the Mass of the Lord's Supper, which includes a symbolic washing of feet in emulation of Jesus. We conclude on that evening with the transfer of the Eucharist to the chapel, where we take up the watch in the garden, waiting with the Lord prior to his arrest.

Returning on Good Friday, we enter the bare church in silence and recall the events of the Lord's Passion. We venerate the cross of His crucifixion as our means of salvation, and after a simple communion rite we are dismissed in silence to begin the Paschal Fast as we wait at the tomb. Our fasting continues during Holy Saturday, when no Mass is celebrated and we are to rest, to pray, and to keep watch for the day of resurrection.

Holy Saturday evening we gather for the Easter Vigil, also known as the Nightwatch of the Resurrection, which marks the high point of the Triduum. This liturgy has recently regained its traditional place as the most important ritual of the year and the principle celebration of Easter. Beginning with the lighting of the holy fire, the Paschal candle is blessed and Christ our Light enters the darkened church. During a wonderful and moving 2 hour celebration, we recall our salvation history beginning with Genesis, through Moses and the prophets of the Old Testament to Christ Himself. Rejoicing in His resurrection, we will welcome into the Good Shepherd community members of the RCIA class as we celebrate the Sacraments of Initiation – Baptism, Confirmation and Holy Eucharist. Our joy as a community is completed with the celebration of Masses on Easter Sunday when our liturgy and our hearts welcome the risen Lord. We extend the Easter experience over a 50 day period that will conclude with the feast of Pentecost.

As Holy Week begins, we invite you to participate in these celebrations that are focused not on what once happened to Jesus over 2,000 years ago but what is happening among us now as a people called to conversion, gathered in faith, and gifted with the Spirit of holiness.

Divine Mercy Schedule - teaching sessions, Novena, and Divine Mercy Sunday

The Church also offers a Plenary Indulgence and special graces on Divine Mercy Sunday for those who participate with proper disposition and fulfill the usual requirements.

Good Shepherd invites you to prepare your heart by joining us for the Divine Mercy Novena, beginning on Good Friday, along with optional teaching sessions to deepen your understanding of this powerful devotion.
