St. Catherine of Siena Roman Catholic Church

September 4, 2016—23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

All Are Welcomed to Our Parish!

We are so pleased that you chose to celebrate with us this weekend. We warmly invite you to active participation in our liturgical celebration. Please feel free to approach one of our Ministers of Hospitality if you are in need of any assistance. No matter what your present status in the Catholic Church, your current family or marital situation, your past or present religious affiliation; no matter what your personal history, age, background, sexual orientation, gender, race, or color; no matter what your self-image or self-esteem: YOU are invited, welcomed, accepted, loved, and respected at St. Catherine of Siena Church in Ithaca, New York.

Mini Ministry Fair and Social

The lazy days of summer are coming to an end as September brings the hustle and bustle of a new academic year in Ithaca. Time to welcome newcomers to our community, welcome back friends who have been away for summer or longer, and open ourselves up to new opportunities for involvement. It's the perfect time to come together at our Mini Ministry Fair and Social!

The Mini Ministry Fair and Social will take place next weekend, September 10 and 11, after all the Masses in the tent on the labyrinth (next to the Parish Center). Come hear about upcoming events and programs and learn about the wide range of ministries available at St. Catherine's. How will you share your gifts of time and talent to help St. Catherine's fulfill its mission? What areas of ministry are offered that might meet your needs? There is something for everyone, of all ages!

While you're there:

- Be sure to pick up a New Parishioner Welcome Packet, a parish registration form, and/or a Time and Talent Survey.
- Sign up to volunteer at two wonderful upcoming events: the International Peace Festival (September 16–18) and the Feed My Starving Children Ithaca MobilePack (September 22–24). Both events need hundreds of volunteers to make them successful, and both are great opportunities for our parishioners to provide a few hours of service and truly make a difference.
- Learn about our Faith Formation programs for both youth and adults, as well as the R.C.I.A. process and our adult Confirmation program.
- See our list of upcoming events and opportunities in various areas of ministry.
- Meet or reconnect with one another, and enjoy delicious refreshments!

While we will go through a lot of change this year as we move into our new Parish Center, we know that ministry and volunteers will continue to be the backbone of our parish. We are fortunate to have such a vibrant community, eager to serve and grow in faith together. We look forward to seeing you next weekend!

Parish-Wide Opportunities

International Peace Festival

Have you signed up to volunteer at the Peace Festival? There are many options available: setup; children's games and activities; welcome and ticket booths; food booths (preparation and serving); beverage serving; parking; silent auction; and tear down. Our volunteers are the backbone of the festival and help make the festival run smoothly and guests feel welcome.

In the pews this weekend is a volunteer card that you can fill out to let us know what you can help with. If you have already signed up online, you don't need to fill out the card; but if you haven't signed up online and would like to volunteer in this way, we invite you to do so. You can give the cards to the hospitality ministers on your way out.

If you have any questions or need additional information, please contact Amanda Shaw at afs6@cornell.edu. Festival committee members will be available after the Masses this weekend to answer questions as well.

Mass Time for September 18

Just a reminder that we will have only one Mass on Sunday, September 18, because of the International Peace Festival. It will be held at 10 a.m. Please mark your calendars! Locally, there are Masses at 8:30 a.m. (Immaculate Conception and Holy Cross), 10:30 a.m. (All Saints, Immaculate Conception, and Cornell Catholic), 1 p.m. and 8 p.m. (Ithaca College), and 9:30 p.m. (Cornell Catholic).

Migrant Dinner

Each year St. Catherine's hosts a dinner for the migrant workers in our area. This year, the dinner is scheduled for Friday, September 9, beginning around 5 p.m. in King Ferry. You can help by making a donation to this dinner. It usually costs us about $1,000 to provide a nutritious meal for these hardworking men and women. Donation checks can be made out to St. Catherine's and put in the regular collection in an envelope marked "Migrant Dinner." It will be helpful to have all donations by September 4. If you would like to help to serve at the dinner, please contact Jonathan Lunine at jlunine@me.com.

Feed My Starving Children

The Ithaca MobilePack for Feed My Starving Children will be held Thursday–Saturday, September 22–24, at the First Congregational Church. Donations can be made through www.ithacamobilepack.org or can be made out to "Ithaca MobilePack" and dropped off at the Parish Office. There are still some packing opportunities available. Volunteers must be at least 5 years old, and there are jobs for people of all abilities. For more information, please contact Patricia Sipple at 257-2493 or psipple@dor.org.

Second Collection for Flooding Relief

St. Catherine's and the Diocese of Rochester would like to offer some ways that you can help victims of the devastating flooding in Louisiana:

1.) The Diocese of Rochester is asking all churches to hold a second collection on the weekend of September 10/11. All money from the collection will be sent to Catholic Charities USA to aid their work in the flooded areas. If you would like to donate to this collection, you can put cash or a check made out to St. Catherine's in the basket for the second collection next weekend.

2.) Our parishioner Deb Roe has sent us information from her friend Sr. Chris Pologa, CSJ, a member of the Sisters of St. Joseph of Carondelet who teaches at St. Joseph's Academy in Baton Rouge. According to Sr. Chris, nearly 50 percent of their students have been flooded out, have lost everything, and are in shelters. Sr. Chris has let us know of ways that we can help her students directly:

- Please pray for the families affected.
- Gift cards to the following are greatly appreciated: Lowe's, Home Depot, Target, Sam's Club, Walmart, Walgreen's, CVS, Rite Aid, JC Penney's, Family Dollar, Dollar General, and Bed, Bath and Beyond. You can bring gift cards to the Parish Office or put them in the collection basket at Mass in an envelope marked for Louisiana flood relief.
- You can donate money directly by making out a check to SJA Disaster Relief and bringing it to the Parish Office or putting it in the collection basket.
- You can also mail checks and gift cards directly to Sister Chris Pologa, CSJ, SJA Disaster Relief, 3134 Hundred Oaks Drive, Baton Rouge, LA 70808.
- You can also donate online at: http://bit.ly/2b1AeLd.

Many thanks for your prayers and generosity.

New Parishioner Welcome

If you are new to our parish in the last year or so, you are invited to a New Parishioner Welcome event on Sunday, September 25, from 1–2:30 p.m. Lunch will be served at 1, followed by a short presentation to help familiarize you with our parish staff and key leaders, as well as some of the programs and activities of the parish. Children are welcome and we can arrange for child care for the presentation portion of the gathering. Please let us know that you plan on coming by contacting June Haynor in the Parish Office at 257-2493 or istcathe@dor.org.

Thinking about Becoming Catholic?

The Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults (R.C.I.A.) is the process by which individuals who are thinking about joining the Catholic Church learn about the Catholic faith and discern where God is calling them. Our program is beginning on September 21. If you are interested in joining this process, please contact Ann Marie at 257-2493 or ameckert@dor.org to set up an appointment. R.C.I.A. can prepare you for Baptism, First Communion, and/or Confirmation.

There will be white collection boxes located at each entrance to the Church. Watch for updates with a list of specific food and personal care items desired.

From the Book of Pamela Meyerhofer

Pamela Meyerhofer is a St. Catherine's parishioner and a graduate student in the Department of Policy Analysis and Management at Cornell. She recently traveled to World Youth Day in Poland, and Fr. Joe asked her to share some of her experiences with the parish.

Dzień dobry. Proszę. Dziękuję. Good day. Please. Thank you. These are just a couple of the Polish phrases I learned to help me navigate my recent pilgrimage to World Youth Day 2016 in Krakow, Poland. For those unfamiliar with World Youth Day, it is an event held every two or three years since 1985 in different cities for the young people of the Catholic Church to gather and grow in faith. I had the opportunity to travel with several students from Cornell and Ithaca College to experience the young Church and the Year of Mercy in a whole new light.

In preparing for the trip, I attempted to learn a few basic phrases in Polish. I was thrilled when I was able to easily translate a sign reading Jesu ufam tobie to Jesus, I trust in You. I have often been advised to use that phrase in English as a way of entering into a meditative prayer space, but it had never "clicked" for me. However, those words being sung softly in Polish at St. Faustina's convent led me into a quiet moment with God to truly pray those words, Jesu ufam tobie. Even upon my return, I find that the mantra in Polish brings me peace.

At the prayer vigil, Pope Francis warned us of the temptation to retreat from the difficulties of the world into the comfort of our living rooms. Just as the disciples hiding in the upper room at Pentecost became paralyzed with confusion, fear, and uncertainty, we often retreat to "sofa happiness" when life becomes overwhelming. There, we can control what we see and hear. There, our own comfort and convenience are the top priorities. But the paralysis that exists there is one of the greatest dangers of our generation. Pope Francis told us that we "didn't come into this world to 'vegetate'… to make our lives a comfortable sofa to fall asleep on. No, we came … to leave a mark." He called us to action, saying that "the times we live in do not call for young 'couch potatoes' but for young people with shoes, or better, boots laced … it has no room for bench-warmers."

One of the speakers at the catechesis sessions also reminded us of our own call to go out in the world as instruments of Christ and His mercy. She proposed that the crucifix is not only an incredible sign of suffering and sacrifice, but also an invitation. We, as Catholics, wear crucifixes to remind us that Jesus took up a great burden to fulfill the will of the Father. While Jesus is portrayed on the front of the crucifix to remind us of his sacrifice, the back of every crucifix is empty. That is our invitation to follow His example and take up our crosses in pursuit of God's kingdom. Yet we are not alone in our struggle; Jesus is on the other side of every cross we bear. He has gone before us, borne the suffering first, and is there with us in every difficult moment.

The refrain of the theme song came from Matthew 5:3-10: Błogosławieni miłosierni, albowiem oni miłosierdzia dostąpią! Blest are the merciful, for it is mercy that shall be shown to those who show mercy.

One of the greatest witnesses of mercy I experienced during the trip was the story of a young woman from Syria who faces the terror of ISIS daily. When she leaves her home each day, she knows she may never see her family again because she or her family could be taken or killed, or her home destroyed. Despite all of this horror, when she prays the Divine Mercy Chaplet, she follows the example of Jesus on the cross in asking for mercy for her persecutors. She does not say, "have mercy on us and on the whole world." Instead, she prays "have mercy on ISIS and on the whole world." What an incredible example of living out the call to mercy in the world today!

As I return to my daily life in Ithaca, I strive to follow in the footsteps of the great saints like St. Faustina, Maximilian Kolbe, and John Paul II, who were instruments of God's mercy in Krakow and throughout the world. As tempting as it will be, I cannot retreat into "sofa happiness," but must strap on my boots and answer the invitation on the back of the crucifix.

Adult Faith Opportunities

Fall Scripture Study: Panorama of the Old Testament

The Old Testament includes history, stories, poems, prophetic writings, and collections of wisdom writings, written over a period of almost a thousand years. It is God's revelation of himself to the people of Israel and the story of how they came to trust in God in the midst of tough times and in spite of their own failings. Get an overview of the books of the Hebrew Scriptures in a six-session course this fall, including a bird's-eye view of the history of ancient Israel. We will meet Mondays from 7 to 8:30 p.m. in the Parish Center, beginning September 12.

Movie Night – Save the Date

Our next movie night will be on Monday, September 26, when we will watch the movie Of God and Men. We will begin with dinner at 6 p.m. (donation appreciated), and the movie will begin at 6:30 p.m., followed by a discussion. All are welcome!

A prayer for the new school year:

God of wisdom and might,
we praise you for the wonder of our being,
for mind, body, and spirit.
Be with our children as they begin

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.
