UPDATE ON FOOD CABINETS PROJECT

We are so grateful for the generosity shown by countless parishioners who have kept the Parish Center's food donation bin stocked in recent months!

The majority of those items have gone into the blue food cabinets you might have seen around town—not just the one in front of St. Catherine's church, but also many others around Ithaca and Tompkins County. In particular, cabinets in Varna, Lansing, Etna, Freeville, and Enfield have been stocked with the hundreds and hundreds of pounds of items you've donated!

As winter continues, we have a few important reminders:

Please do not donate any expired food. Even if it's one day past the date! There are locations around town that will accept recently expired food, but expired food goes against Mutual Aid policies. Please understand that leaving bags of expired items poses unnecessary hardship on the volunteers who have to dispose of it.

Please, no metal or glass cans during wintertime. Most of the food cabinets are not temperature-controlled and we cannot accept metal/glass containers until next spring. There are, however, many similar options; for example, you could donate tuna fish pouches, microwavable soups, or Chef Boyardee meals that come in plastic tubs rather than metal cans.

You can donate non-food items, too! We welcome items such as diapers, personal care/hygiene items, small clothing items like socks/hats/gloves, and much more.

Interested in donating toward these efforts? If you are interested in making a financial contribution to these volunteer efforts, please contact Chris Pollock at chrispollock@gmail.com. And learn more about Mutual Aid of Tompkins County at mutualaidtompkins.com/food-sharing.

MUSIC, READINGS, AND PRAYERS FOR THE SOLEMNITY OF MARY, JANUARY 1

Our cantor is Mary Martin.

Processional Hymn: Sing of Mary (Breaking Bread #695)

First Reading: Nm 6:22-27

The Lord said to Moses: "Speak to Aaron and his sons and tell them: This is how you shall bless the Israelites. Say to them:

The Lord bless you and keep you!

The Lord let his face shine upon you, and be gracious to you!

The Lord look upon you kindly and give you peace!

So shall they invoke my name upon the Israelites, and I will bless them."

Lector: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Second Reading: Gal 4:4-7

Brothers and sisters: When the fullness of time had come, God sent his Son, born of a woman, born under the law, to ransom those under the law, so that we might receive adoption as sons. As proof that you are sons, God sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, crying out, "Abba, Father!" So you are no longer a slave but a son, and if a son then also an heir, through God.

Lector: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia – Jubilation Mass

Gospel Dialogue

Priest: The Lord be with you.

People: And with your spirit.

Priest: A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke.

People: Glory to you, O Lord.

Gospel: Lk 2:16-21

The shepherds went in haste to Bethlehem and found Mary and Joseph, and the infant lying in the manger. When they saw this, they made known the message that had been told them about this child. All who heard it were amazed by what had been told them by the shepherds. And Mary kept all these things, reflecting on them in her heart. Then the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen, just as it had been told to them. When eight days were completed for his circumcision, he was named Jesus, the name given him by the angel before he was conceived in the womb.

Priest: The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to You, Lord Jesus Christ.

Profession of Faith (Apostles' Creed)

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

Prayers of the Faithful

People's Response: Lord, hear our prayer.

Offertory Hymn: Lo, How a Rose E'er Blooming
(Breaking Bread #78)

Text: 76 76 6 76; based on Isaiah 11:1; Trad. German carol, 15th cent; tr. by Theodore Baker, 1851-1934, alt. Music: Alte Catholische Geistliche Kirchengesänge, Cologne, 1599. All rights reserved. Used with permission of OneLicense #A-728114.

Invitation to Prayer

Priest: Pray, brethren ... acceptable to God, the almighty Father.

People: May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands for the praise and glory of his name, for our good and the good of all his holy Church.

Preface Dialogue

Priest: The Lord be with you.

People: And with your spirit.

Priest: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them up to the Lord.

Priest: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

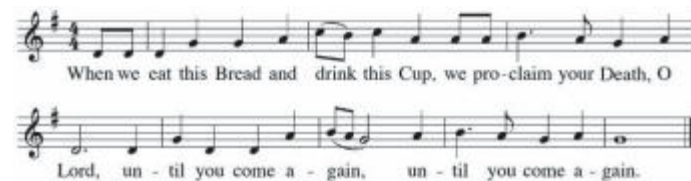

People: It is right and just.

Great Amen – Jubilation Mass

The Lord's Prayer

People: Our Father, Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name; Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

Priest: ... and the coming of our Savior, Jesus Christ.

People: For the kingdom, the power and the glory are yours now and for ever.

Sign of Peace

Priest: The peace of the Lord be with you always.

People: And with your spirit.

Invitation to Communion

Priest: Behold the Lamb of God, behold him who takes away the sins of the world. Blessed are those called to the supper of the Lamb.

People: Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.

Prayer of Spiritual Communion

In union, O Lord, with your faithful people at every altar of your Church, where the Holy Eucharist is now being celebrated, I desire to offer to you praise and thanksgiving. I remember your death, Lord Christ; I proclaim your resurrection; I await your coming in glory. Since I cannot physically receive you today in the Sacrament of your Body and Blood, I join myself spiritually to You and your Church.

First Reading: Is 60:1-6

Rise up in splendor, Jerusalem! Your light has come, the glory of the Lord shines upon you. See, darkness covers the earth, and thick clouds cover the peoples; but upon you the Lord shines, and over you appears his glory. Nations shall walk by your light, and kings by your shining radiance. Raise your eyes and look about; they all gather and come to you: your sons come from afar, and your daughters in the arms of their nurses. Then you shall be radiant at what you see, your heart shall throb and overflow, for the riches of the sea shall be emptied out before you, the wealth

Second Reading: Eph 3:2-3a, 5-6

Brothers and sisters: You have heard of the stewardship of God's grace that was given to me for your benefit, namely, that the mystery was made known to me by revelation. It was not made known to people in other generations as it has now been revealed to his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit: that the Gentiles are coheirs, members of the same body, and copartners in the promise in Christ Jesus through the Gospel.

Gospel Dialogue

Priest: The Lord be with you.

People: And with your spirit.

Priest: A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew.

People: Glory to you, O Lord.

Gospel: Mt 2:1-12

When Jesus was born in Bethlehem in Judea, in the days of King Herod, behold, magi from the east arrived in Jerusalem, saying, "Where is the newborn King of the Jews? We saw his star at its rising and have come to do him homage." When King Herod heard this, he was greatly troubled, and all Jerusalem with him. Assembling all the chief priests and the scribes of the people, he inquired of them where the Christ was to be born. They said to him, "In Bethlehem of Judea, for thus it has been written through the prophet: And you, Bethlehem, land of Judah, are by no means least among the rulers of Judah; since from you shall come a ruler, who is to shepherd my people Israel." Then Herod called the magi secretly and ascertained from them the time of the star's appearance. He sent them to Bethlehem and said, "Go and search diligently for the child. When you have found him, bring me word, that I too may go and do him homage." After their audience with the king they set out. And behold, the star that they had seen at its rising preceded them, until it came and stopped over the place where the child was. They were overjoyed at seeing the star, and on entering the house they saw the child with Mary his mother. They prostrated themselves and did him homage. Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. And having been warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they departed for their country by another way.
