SEND-OFF CELEBRATIONS FOR FR. JOE

Our Pastoral Council is pleased to announce that plans are underway to celebrate Fr. Joe's three-year tenure of pastoral leadership and relationship development within our community. His final Mass with us will be held on Father's Day—Sunday, June 18. Mark your calendar for these two sparkling opportunities to celebrate Fr. Joe:

- Friday, June 16, from 6-9 p.m. in Mahler Hall: Friends, faith families, and parishioners from near and far are invited to a very casual send-off reception. The evening will include live music, roasts and toasts, laughs, love, and food.
- Sunday, June 18, from 10-11 a.m. in Mahler Hall: Our children's super send-off for Fr. Joe. Kiddos, cookies, cakes, and coffee between Masses. Bring your favorite Father's Day sweets to share!

More planning information is forthcoming. Are you available to volunteer time at these events? Do you have an idea to share? If yes, reach out to the Pastoral Council at pastoralstcath@gmail.com.

We are also organizing a memory book for Fr. Joe. If you would like to write a special message for him, note paper will be available in the office and in the atrium before and after Masses. Completed notes can be left in the office.

FOOD DONATIONS

Thank you for your continued donations of food to the bin in the atrium. Please check the expiration dates on the food you donate so we can be sure we are not giving expired food to the food pantry. Thank you!

COMMUNION MINISTRY TO THE ELDERLY, SICK, AND HOMEBOUND

What happens when you can't get to church for Mass? If you're a teenager, perhaps it might occasionally feel like a snow day at school. But someone who is sick or homebound is more apt to feel isolated and far from God and community. Fortunately, Saint Catherine's has a ministry to bring Communion—including a caring presence—to the sick and homebound. You can make a big difference in the life of an elderly or ailing person by visiting them, taking them Communion, and showing them that you care and that they are not forgotten.

Saint Catherine's also has a ministry to local residential homes for the elderly. Have you noticed Fr. Joe call up a minister to Brookdale or Longview after Communion on Saturday or Sunday? Nursing homes, assisted living facilities, and memory care facilities are all home to people who used to come to Mass at church but are no longer able to get there. Fr. Joe celebrates Mass one Tuesday a month at Kendal of Ithaca, Brookdale, and Longview, but every Sunday parishioners bring Christ to residents of these facilities. At Brookdale, residents attend Mass via livestream, and a parishioner attends with them and distributes Communion. At Longview, a parishioner leads a Communion service in the chapel, leading the residents in prayer (Confiteor, Gloria, creed, Our Father) and distributing Communion.

I've served in this ministry for twelve years, and I can assure you that it is very rewarding. It's an opportunity to meet some lovely and amazing people as well as to help people. The residents are also always so grateful to receive Communion. If you'd like to check this ministry out, contact Karen Webb at the Parish Office at 607-257-2493 or karen.webb@dor.org. You can also accompany someone in this ministry a few times to test the waters and see whether this ministry is for you.

CALLING ALL EUCHARISTIC MINISTERS— UPDATE ON MAY 13/14 AFTER ALL MASSES

Are you a Communion Minister at Mass? You already know that at Easter, we began re-offering the Cup at Masses. We have a quick update to Fr. Joe's training a few months ago, to make your ministry at Mass easier—just five minutes after each Mass next weekend. So whatever Mass you attend next weekend (May 13/14), please plan to stay about five minutes after Mass, in the west section of the church (closest to the Parish Center). We'll start promptly so you can get home quickly. Karen Webb, our pastoral care minister, will present the update from Fr. Joe and take any questions about the new Cup procedures. Thank you!

PASTORAL COUNCIL THANKS

The Pastoral Council would like to thank:

- Hospicare, Karen Webb, and others who arranged for and presented at the Bereavement Luncheon.
- Karen Webb and those who coordinated and set up the LGBTQ+ Listening Sessions.

BLOOD DRIVE—SAVE THE DATE

The Red Cross will be here in Mahler Hall for a community blood drive on Tuesday, June 6, from 1-6 p.m. There will be more information to come about this lifesaving event.

SOAP FOR HOPE

Soap for Hope, the Tompkins County-wide personal care products collection drive benefitting Catholic Charities and the Samaritan Center, has begun! The drive runs through June 11.

Please bring new personal care products to the bin in atrium of the Parish Center.

Items needed are bar and dish soap, laundry detergent, toilet paper, facial tissue, men's and women's deodorant, feminine hygiene products, shaving supplies, toothbrushes and toothpaste, moisturizing lotion, shampoo, diapers, hand sanitizer, and cleaning supplies.

As prices rise, these items are needed more than ever—especially since personal care products are not covered by SNAP benefits. Thank you for your generosity!

FROM THE BOOK OF JOE

Dear Parish Family,

I have been including an explanation of the different parts of the Mass in our bulletins since the beginning of Lent. In previous weeks we came to the eucharistic prayer. For an explanation of this part of the Mass, I am reprinting the last excerpt from the really informative article, "Eucharistic Prayer Is the Most Important and Least Understood Prayer in Mass," by Thomas Reese, SJ (ncronline.org/opinion/guest-voices/eucharistic-prayer-most-important-and-least-understood-prayer-mass).

The four Eucharistic Prayers for Uses in Masses for Various Needs also have an Epiclesis. My favorite is the third, which uses language from the Second Vatican Council to show how we want the Spirit to transform those who receive the Body of Christ:

"Grant that all the faithful of the Church, looking into the signs of the times by the light of faith, may constantly devote themselves to the service of the Gospel. Keep us attentive to the needs of all that, sharing in their grief and pain, their joy and hope, we may faithfully bring them the good news of salvation and go forward with them along the way of your kingdom."

The eucharistic prayers conclude by returning to praise the Father through Jesus Christ, his Son. "Through him, and with him, and in him, O God, almighty Father, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all glory and honor is yours, for ever and ever."

In short, in the eucharistic prayer, we give praise and thanks to God for his actions in the world, especially his sending of his Son. We unite ourselves with Christ's sacrifice in worshipping the Father. We ask for the Spirit to transform us into the body of Christ so that we can continue his mission in the world.

This is summed up by liturgical scholars using the Greek terminology of eucharistia (thanking), anaphora (offering) and epiclesis (calling down the Spirit).

The eucharistic prayer tells us what the Eucharist is all about. It is giving thanks and praise to God; it is being united with the sacrifice of Christ for our salvation; and it is being transformed by the power of the Spirit so that we can continue his work in the world. This makes Communion not an individual devotion but the community's worship of the Father and a transformative experience that turns individuals into what we eat, the body of Christ.

Peace,

MARTHA'S MINISTRY NEEDS YOU!

Martha's Ministry volunteers wish to help parishioners after births, during illnesses, during and after hospitalizations, and after the death of loved ones. Types of help they can provide include meals, light chores, errands (grocery shopping), and small things that make a big difference for someone needing extra support in a challenging time. All services provided by Martha's Ministry are free and confidential. If you would like to sign up to volunteer, or would like more information, please contact Paula Twomey at paulat@twcny.rr.com or call the Parish Office at 607-257-2493. Thank you!

HELP WOMEN ESCAPE TRAFFICKING

Catholic Charities has partnered with the SOAP Project (Save Our Adolescents from Prostitution), which was founded by a trafficking survivor. The SOAP Project distributes millions of bars of soap to hotels, wrapped with a red band printed with the National Human Trafficking Hotline number, 888-373-7888. We have purchased 5,000 bars of soap to label! Come label soap and learn what else you can do to stop human trafficking on Tuesday, May 9, at 7 p.m. at the Quaker Meeting House, 120 Third Street in Ithaca. The suggested donation is $10-$30 to defray cost of the materials.

Liturgy of the Word

First Reading: Acts 6:1-7

As the number of disciples continued to grow, the Hellenists complained against the Hebrews because their widows were being neglected in the daily distribution. So the Twelve called together the community of the disciples and said, "It is not right for us to neglect the word of God to serve at table. Brothers, select from among you seven reputable men, filled with the Spirit and wisdom, whom we shall appoint to this task, whereas we shall devote ourselves to prayer and to the ministry of the word." The proposal was acceptable to the whole community, so they chose Stephen, a man filled with faith and the Holy Spirit, also Philip, Prochorus, Nicanor, Timon, Parmenas, and Nicholas of Antioch, a convert to Judaism. They presented these men to the apostles who prayed and laid hands on them. The word of God continued to spread, and the number of the disciples in Jerusalem increased greatly; even a large group of priests were becoming obedient to the faith.

Lector: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Let your mer-cy be on us, O God,
as we place our trust in you.

Text: Psalm 33:1, 4-5, 12, 18-19, 20, 22; Marty Haugen; Spanish tr. by Ronald F. Krisman, © 1987, 2011, GIA Publications, Inc.; English refrain tr. © 1969, ICEL Music: Marty Haugen, © 1987, 1994, GIA Publications, Inc. All rights reserved. Used with permission of OneLicense #A-728114.

A vibrant Catholic Community where all are welcomed, challenged, and supported in their life's journey.

Second Reading: 1 Pt 2:4-9

Beloved: Come to him, a living stone, rejected by human beings but chosen and precious in the sight of God, and, like living stones, let yourselves be built into a spiritual house to be a holy priesthood to offer spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ. For it says in Scripture: Behold, I am laying a stone in Zion, a cornerstone, chosen and precious, and whoever believes in it shall not be put to shame. Therefore, its value is for you who have faith, but for those without faith: The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone, and A stone that will make people stumble, and a rock that will make them fall. They stumble by disobeying the word, as is their destiny. You are “a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people of his own, so that you may announce the praises” of him who called you out of darkness into his wonderful light.

Lector: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation – Joyful Alleluia

The musical score for the Joyful Alleluia is written in 6/8 time. It consists of five systems, each with a Cantor part and an Assembly part. The lyrics are: Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia!

Gospel Dialogue

Priest: The Lord be with you.

People: And with your spirit.

Priest: A reading from the holy Gospel according to John.

People: Glory to you, O Lord.

Gospel: Jn 14:1-12

Jesus said to his disciples: “Do not let your hearts be troubled. You have faith in God; have faith also in me. In my Father's house there are many dwelling places. If there were not, would I have told you that I am going to prepare a place for you? And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back again and take you to myself, so that where I am you also may be. Where I am going you know the way.” Thomas said to him, “Master, we do not know where you are going; how can we know the way?” Jesus said to him, I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. If you know me, then you will also know my Father. From now on you do know him and have seen him.” Philip said to him, “Master, show us the Father, and that will be enough for us.” Jesus said to him, “Have I been with you for so long a time and you still do not know me, Philip? Whoever has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say, ‘Show us the Father’? Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The words that I speak to you I do not speak on my own. The Father who dwells in me is doing his works. Believe me that I am in the Father and the Father is in me, or else, believe because of the works themselves. Amen, amen, I say to you, whoever believes in me will do the works that I do, and will do greater ones than these, because I am going to the Father.”

Priest: The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to You, Lord Jesus Christ.

Offertory Hymn—Lord of the Dance (Gather #796)

I danced in the morning when the world was begun,
 And I danced in the moon and the stars and the sun,
 And I came down from heaven and I danced on the earth.
 At Bethlehem I had my birth.
 Dance then wherever you may be;
 I am the Lord of the Dance, said he,
 And I'll lead you all, wherever you may be,
 And I'll lead you all in the Dance, said he.
 I danced for the scribe and the pharisee,
 But they would not dance, and they wouldn't follow me.
 I danced for the fishermen, for James and John;
 They came with me and the dance went on.
 Dance then wherever you may be...
 I danced on the Sabbath and I cured the lame:
 The holy people said it was a shame.
 They whipped and they stripped and they hung me high,
 And left me there on a Cross to die.
 Dance then wherever you may be...
 I danced on a Friday when the sky turned black;
 It's hard to dance with the devil on your back.
 They buried my body and they thought I'd gone;
 But I am the dance and I still go on.
 Dance then wherever you may be...
 They cut me down and I leapt up high;
 I am the life that'll never, never die;
 I'll live in you if you'll live in me:
 I am the Lord of the Dance, said he.
 Dance then wherever you may be...

Invitation to Communion

Priest: Behold the Lamb of God, behold him who takes away the sins of the world. Blessed are those who are called to the supper of the Lamb. People: Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.

Prayer of Spiritual Communion

In union, O Lord, with your faithful people at every altar of your Church, where the Holy Eucharist is now being celebrated, I desire to offer to you praise and thanksgiving. I remember your death, Lord Jesus; I proclaim your resurrection; I await your coming in glory. Since I cannot physically receive you today in the Sacrament of your Body and Blood, I join myself spiritually to You and your Church.

Communion Hymn – I Receive the Living God (Gather #916)
