SOAP FOR HOPE

Soap for Hope, the Tompkins County-wide personal care products collection drive benefitting Catholic Charities and the Samaritan Center, continues! The drive runs through June 11. Please bring new personal care products to the bin in atrium of the Parish Center. Items needed are:

- Bar and dish soap
- Laundry detergent
- Toilet paper
- Facial tissue
- Men's and women's deodorant
- Feminine hygiene products
- Shaving supplies
- Toothbrushes and toothpaste
- Moisturizing lotion
- Shampoo
- Diapers

As prices rise, these items are needed more than ever—especially since personal care products are not covered by SNAP benefits.

Sincere thanks to all who have already donated! Please keep the items coming to help our neighbors in need.

WEDDING BANNS CORRECTION

In the wedding banns printed over the last three weeks, we misspelled the name of the groom. He is Lance Klepel, not Lance Kalpel. We sincerely apologize for the error and wish God's blessings upon your marriage!

THE PORTAL DE BELÉN

Every week in our prayers of intentions, we pray for the “sisters and the children of the Portal de Belén.” What is this all about and who are those people?

The Portal de Belén is an elementary school in the town of Monte Plata, Dominican Republic. The school was created by the Missionary Sisters of Jesus in the mid-1990s.

The sisters were originally part of a congregation based in Argentina, which sent them to this poor community in the DR. After working there for a few years, the superior called them back to Argentina, but they refused! They had plans to build their ministry and wanted to keep serving the community they had gotten to know. So, they created their own community and were eventually recognized by the Vatican. The group now has a grand total of four sisters:

Sr. Teresa (73), the “mother superior,” is originally from Spain. She trained as a teacher and helps to manage the school. All of the sisters work in diocesan ministries, and Teresa’s role is in adult faith formation. She runs workshops and retreats, and for years she has written monthly guides for prayer and reflection that are used by the whole archdiocese. As part of her work, she trains other lay missionaries to run their own local prayer and service groups.

Sister Nilda (≈80) is originally from Puerto Rico. She works with the lay missionaries, organizes the church choir, and plays the guitar at the masses.

As her “day job,” Nilda contributes to the diocesan health initiatives and runs the health clinic next door to the parish of St. Anthony. She schedules specialists to serve the very poor, charging them nominal fees, and her on-site pharmacy provides prescription and OTC medicines at very low cost. Her most recent challenge has been to find specialists who will volunteer their services once or twice a week. For example, right now she has a cardiologist and an oral surgeon, but the pediatrician retired and is no longer available.

Sr. Nilda and others are now in the final stages of negotiating a plan to have the government subsidize such clinics in the region to make all services free. The government will also make available the specialists that the rural clinics might need. Nilda says that she’ll have no problem meeting the government’s conditions, because she is transparent and provides high-quality service.

Sr. Iris (60), from Santo Domingo, is the principal of the elementary school. She does everything from curriculum planning to personnel management to accounting. Once a week she still goes to Santo Domingo to run errands and buy food to serve the kids at lunchtime. We’ll describe the school and her work in a future issue.

Sr. Ysabel (≈50) is from Bayaguana, a town in the province of Monte Plata. She finished a degree in management about five years ago and helps Iris with the school. Ysabel’s specialty is youth ministry, so she runs the youth groups and retreats and helps the diocese with its programs for middle and high schoolers.

Parallel to all of this, the sisters are working on vocational outreach, in order to grow the community.

Stay tuned for an opportunity to meet them via a Zoom call later this semester.

Liturgy of the Word

First Reading: Acts 8:5-8, 14-17

Philip went down to the city of Samaria and proclaimed the Christ to them. With one accord, the crowds paid attention to what was said by Philip when they heard it and saw the signs he was doing. For unclean spirits, crying out in a loud voice, came out of many possessed people, and many paralyzed or crippled people were cured. There was great joy in that city. Now when the apostles in Jerusalem heard that Samaria had accepted the word of God, they sent them Peter and John, who went down and prayed for them, that they might receive the Holy Spirit, for it had not yet fallen upon any of them; they had only been baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. Then they laid hands on them and they received the Holy Spirit.

Lector: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Let all the earth cry out in joy to the Lord;

Let all the earth cry out in joy to the Lord! Lord! to the Lord!

Verses

1. Cry out in joy to the Lord, all peoples on earth, sing to the praise of God's name, proclaiming for ever, "tremendous your deeds for us."
2. Leading your people safe through fire and water, bringing their souls to life, we sing of your glory, your love is eternal.
3. Harken to me as I sing my love of the Lord, who answers the prayer of my heart. God leads me in safety, from death unto life.

Text: Psalm 66:1-3, 12, 16; Marty Haugen. Music: Marty Haugen. © 1982, GIA Publications, Inc. All rights reserved. Used with permission of OneLicense #A-728114.

Second Reading: 1 Pt 3:15-18

Beloved: Sanctify Christ as Lord in your hearts. Always be ready to give an explanation to anyone who asks you for a reason for your hope, but do it with gentleness and reverence, keeping your conscience clear, so that, when you are maligned, those who defame your good conduct in Christ may themselves be put to shame. For it is better to suffer for doing good, if that be the will of God, than for doing evil. For Christ also suffered for sins once, the righteous for the sake of the unrighteous, that he might lead you to God. Put to death in the flesh, he was brought to life in the Spirit.

Lector: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Gospel Dialogue

Priest: The Lord be with you.

People: And with your spirit.

Priest: A reading from the holy Gospel according to John.

People: Glory to you, O Lord.

Gospel: Jn 14:15-21

Jesus said to his disciples: "If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate to be with you always, the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot accept, because it neither sees nor knows him. But you know him, because he remains with you, and will be in you. I will not leave you orphans; I will come to you. In a little while the world will no longer see me, but you will see me, because I live and you will live. On that day you will realize that I am in my Father and you are in me and I in you. Whoever has my commandments and observes them is the one who loves me. And whoever loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and reveal myself to him."

Priest: The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to You, Lord Jesus Christ.

Priest: Behold the Lamb of God, behold him who takes away the sins of the world. Blessed are those who are called to the supper of the Lamb.

People: Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.

Prayer of Spiritual Communion

In union, O Lord, with your faithful people at every altar of your Church, where the Holy Eucharist is now being celebrated, I desire to offer to you praise and thanksgiving. I remember your death, Lord Jesus; I proclaim your resurrection; I await your coming in glory. Since I cannot physically receive you today in the Sacrament of your Body and Blood, I join myself spiritually to You and your Church.
