CALVARY CEMETERY COLUMBARIUM NEWS

In 2019 Calvary Cemetery (managed by the Immaculate Conception Parish) began a project to procure and install a 96-niche columbarium for the above-ground interment of cremains (cremated ashes). That structure was built by a firm in Vermont, using 100 percent local granite, and was finally delivered to Calvary Cemetery last week. Landscaping is underway to complete a cremation garden, anchored by the new columbarium.

The Vatican approved cremation in 1963 and issued guidelines in 2016 for the proper and respectful handling of cremated ashes. Cremation has fast become a preferred end-of-life choice for many families, especially in our local area. Cremation, with interment in a columbarium, can be a cost effective, and perhaps ecological, alternative to in-ground burial.

Prices for a niche that holds two urns of ashes range from $2,400 to $2,800 depending on the location of the niche in the columbarium. A $200 discount is offered for all niche purchases before September 30, 2023. A memorial name plaque is currently available for $400, and the burial fee (open and sealing the niche) is currently $200.

More information is available at the cemetery section of the Immaculate Conception website. Please pay a visit to Calvary Cemetery on Five Mile Drive to see the columbarium. Purchase arrangements, including selection of your preferred niche(s), can be made with Mike Moravec, the cemetery manager, at 607-272-5780.

Liturgy of the Word

First Reading: Acts 2:1-11

When the time for Pentecost was fulfilled, they were all in one place together. And suddenly there came from the sky a noise like a strong driving wind, and it filled the entire house in which they were. Then there appeared to them tongues as of fire, which parted and came to rest on each one of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in different tongues, as the Spirit enabled them to proclaim. Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven staying in Jerusalem. At this sound, they gathered in a large crowd, but they were confused because each one heard them speaking in his own language. They were astounded, and in amazement they asked, "Are not all these people who are speaking Galileans? Then how does each of us hear them in his native language? We are Parthians, Medes,

A vibrant Catholic Community where all are welcomed, challenged, and supported in their life's journey.

and Elamites, inhabitants of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the districts of Libya near Cyrene, as well as travelers from Rome, both Jews and converts to Judaism, Cretans and Arabs, yet we hear them speaking in our own tongues of the mighty acts of God."

Lector: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Send forth your Spir - it, O Lord, and re - new the face of the earth.

Text: Psalm 104:30, 1, 29-31, 34, 1-2, 5-6, 10, 12, 24. Text and music © 1984, 1985, Christopher Walker. Published by OCP Publications. All rights reserved. All rights reserved. Used with permission of OneLicense #A-728114.

Second Reading: 1 Cor 12:3b-7, 12-13

Brothers and sisters: No one can say, "Jesus is Lord," except by the Holy Spirit. There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord; there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone. To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit. As a body is one though it has many parts, and all the parts of the body, though many, are one body, so also Christ. For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, slaves or free persons, and we were all given to drink of one Spirit.

Lector: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Gospel Dialogue

Priest: The Lord be with you.

People: And with your spirit.

Priest: A reading from the holy Gospel according to John.

People: Glory to you, O Lord.

Gospel: Jn 20:19-23

On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you." When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained."

Priest: The Gospel of the Lord.

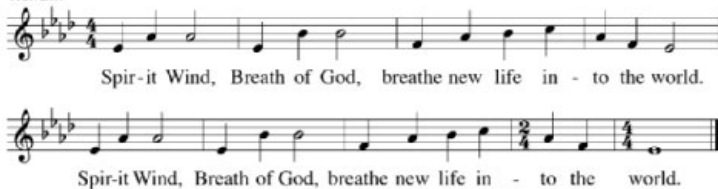

People: Praise to You, Lord Jesus Christ.
