MOVIE NIGHT JUNE 26

Join us for dinner and a viewing of the movie Fatima this Monday, June 26, from 6-8:30 p.m. Toward the end of the First World War, three Portuguese children report seeing apparitions of the Blessed Virgin Mary. This leads to belief by some and anger from others, ultimately leading thousands to undertake religious pilgrimages to the site of the apparition. Learn about the children, their story, and how it changed the lives of many others. Bring your own drinks and a few dollars to contribute to pizza, and bring whatever other movie snacks you would like. Dinner is served at 6 p.m. and the movie will begin at 6:15 p.m. We will end the evening with a short discussion of the movie. The movie is rated PG-13.

SUNDAY OFFICE HOURS

Our Sunday office hours will end for the summer after this Sunday, June 25, when the office will be open from 10 a.m.-1 p.m. Sunday office hours will resume in the fall. Thank you for your consideration.

SOCIAL HOURS JULY 1/2

We will have social hours after each Mass during the weekend of July 1 and 2 to meet and welcome Fr. John Orange Omboga as he celebrates his first weekend Masses here. All are welcome!

FROM THE BOOK OF JOE

Dear Parish Family,

Since the announcement of my reassignment, so many people have come up to me and told me that I have had an impact on their lives, which is a wonderful and kind thing to know. What those dear souls do not know is the impact they and this whole community have had on me, in my ongoing formation as a priest and a human being. This is a great gift. The gift that you have given to me will have an effect on the two new parishes I will be serving: the Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary in Brockport and St. Elizabeth Ann Seton in Hamlin. Not to mention the wonderful migrant community and the students at SUNY Brockport and – oh yeah – all the service members in the National Guard.

The other thing that everybody has been asking me is, how am I doing? Honestly, I have been so busy with moving and army and finalizing weddings and baptisms, and so on, I have not had time to reflect on my own feelings. Of course, I am deeply saddened even though I know this is part of the vocation that I have agreed to. Nonetheless, I am sad. I was talking to Mickey Herzog, who herself is grieving, and I told her it was like uprooting a plant that has long established roots. It's hard. Although I will not physically be with you, no one can remove you from my heart. I feel like I'm going to become one of those "I'll see you at funerals and weddings" relatives, but even if that's the only time we get to see each other, know that you are always in heart, in my prayer.

I want to thank – well, everyone, but in particular, those young people I have journeyed with for these last thirteen years. I baptized many of you. I was there when you experienced God's mercy and forgiveness on the day of your first reconciliation (may it not be your last). I was humbled when you came to join the rest of the community around the table of the Lord when you celebrated your First Communion. I was so proud of you when you were confirmed in the Holy Spirit. And several of you have invited me to officiate at your weddings. You have no idea how much joy you bring to my heart!

For those of you whom I served during the most painful times, when you were sick or your beloved died, thank you for inviting me into the most sacred moments of your lives. I am humbled and honored to serve you.

As for the future, it belongs to you – the great people of the community of St. Catherine of Siena. The success or failure of this community is entirely in your hands. You have been through many transitions, and each new leader adds their own experience of the Resurrected Christ to yours. I have seen the kingdom of God blossom in Ithaca through your hands. I have no fear that you will not continue the good work that God has begun in you.

May God bless you and keep you, may God's face shine upon you, may God be gracious to you, may God turn toward you and give you peace. Fr. John is unbelievably blessed to be coming to you.

Prayers and blessings,

P.S. Keep in touch! My new address is:

Liturgy of the Word

First Reading: Jer 20:10-13

Jeremiah said: "I hear the whisperings of many: 'Terror on every side! Denounce! let us denounce him!' All those who were my friends are on the watch for any misstep of mine. 'Perhaps he will be trapped; then we can prevail, and take our vengeance on him.' But the LORD is with me, like a mighty champion: my persecutors will stumble, they will not triumph. In their failure they will be put to utter shame, to lasting, unforgettable confusion. O LORD of hosts, you who test the just, who probe mind and heart, let me witness the vengeance you take on them, for to you I have entrusted my cause. Sing to the LORD, praise the LORD, for he has rescued the life of the poor from the power of the wicked!"

Lector: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Second Reading: Rom 5:12-15

Brothers and sisters: Through one man sin entered the world, and through sin, death, and thus death came to all men, inasmuch as all sinned — for up to the time of the law, sin was in the world, though sin is not accounted when there is no law. But death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over those who did not sin after the pattern of the trespass of Adam, who is the type of the one who was to come. But the gift is not like the transgression. For if by the transgression of the one the many died, how much more did the grace of God and the gracious gift of the one man Jesus Christ overflow for the many.

Lector: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Gospel Dialogue

Priest: The Lord be with you.

People: And with your spirit.

Priest: A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew.

People: Glory to you, O Lord.

Gospel: Mt 10:26-33

Jesus said to the Twelve: "Fear no one. Nothing is concealed that will not be revealed, nor secret that will not be known. What I say to you in the darkness, speak in the light; what you hear whispered, proclaim on the housetops. And do not be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul; rather, be afraid of the one who can destroy both soul and body in Gehenna. Are not two sparrows sold for a small coin? Yet not one of them falls to the ground without your Father's knowledge. Even all the hairs of your head are counted. So do not be afraid; you are worth more than many sparrows. Everyone who acknowledges me before others I will acknowledge before my heavenly Father. But whoever denies me before others, I will deny before my heavenly Father."

Priest: The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
