ST. CATHERINE OF SIENA'S MATCH INITIATIVE UPDATE!

Twelve generous St. Catherine benefactors have pledged $5,000 each to match the increased offertory giving of other parishioners for the fiscal year (July 1, 2026-June 30,2027). At the end of each quarter (the first quarter will end on September 30th), parish offertory collections will be compared with those from the corresponding quarter of the base fiscal year. Every dollar of increased offertory giving will be matched dollar-for-dollar by our benefactors. Believing in the work of our staff and volunteers, we humbly ask you to continue to invest in St. Catherine's ministry. Your offertory generosity is essential. Supporting the work of our parish is giving to Jesus Himself for the church is His body.

MIGRANT DINNER THANK-YOU!

With a very grateful heart, we extend a thank you to all those who supported the Migrant Dinner financially, those who came to serve the workers, those who transported items and food to the location and everyone who translated for us. We again had a very successful Dinner and the workers were extremely grateful. The total cost was $1,321.05 and we raised more than enough to pay for the evening. Thank you again.

SEE. LOVE. VOTE.

Thank you to all who participated in writing postcards requesting Catholic voters in Michigan to vote. St. Catherine's Parish is being recognized as an active faith community in Network's Advocacy for Catholic Social Justice. Further information and membership forms about this Catholic lobbying organization can be found in Network Connection Quarterly See. Love. Vote. found in the bulletin racks at the church entrances.

AN IMPORTANT FACT FROM YOUR TREASURY DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE

The total yearly operating expenses for St. Catherine's Parish are approximately $546,980. To keep our Parish healthy and thriving, we ask you to continue to donate in the offertory baskets or via EFT. With your gifts, we will maintain a place to worship, pray, and gather with others.

ITEMS LEFT FROM DISH-TO-PASS

There are 20+ items left from our recent dish-to-pass for Father Dan's Jubilee celebration or from the Martha's Ministry meals that have been brought in for Father Dan. There are containers, pots, serving utensils, dishes, etc. This weekend, they will be in the atrium for pick up. If this weekend doesn't work for you, please stop by the office during office hours this next week. Thanks!

MAGNIFICA HUMANITAS (MAGNIFICENT HUMANITY) REFLECTION GROUP

Join Finger Lakes Catholic Creation Care Coalition (FLCCCC) for a study of Pope Leo's encyclical Magnifica Humanitas (Magnificent Humanity). This will be a 4-week journey where we will learn and engage with the text and our lived experience. Discussion questions will be provided ahead of time so that you will have time to pray and reflect on that week's readings. The program will be led by Dr. Nancy Rourke, Assistant Professor of Catholic Ethics at St. John Fisher University. We will be meeting on Thursdays starting October 29th through November 19th.

We are considering the interest in either doing this in person or virtually. We also want your input as to what time of day works best. Please RSVP by October 26th via email fingerlakescccc@gmail.com or scan the QR code.

INTERESTED IN BECOMING AN ALTAR SERVER?

We're looking for adults and young people who are interested in becoming altar servers. Father David will soon train altar servers at Masses. Please contact him at fr.david.cataline@dor.org if you are interested, or fill out a card at one of the doors and put it in the basket at church.

PROMISE TO PROTECT PLEDGE TO HEAL

The Hope, Healing and Solidarity coalition, https://hopehealingandsolidarity.org/, with promotional collaboration from the Syracuse Diocese, is pleased to welcome Bishop Mark O'Connell, chair-elect of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops' Committee on Protection of Children and Young People (CPCYP) and Bishop of Albany NY, for a public presentation on the recent work of the CPCYP, on October 15, 2026, from 7 to 8:30PM at the Spiritual Renewal Center, (1342 Lancaster Ave, Syracuse, NY 13210.) The presentation will be followed by a question/answer period and discussion. There will be a brief reception afterwards, with light refreshments. Bishop John Bonnici, Bishop of Rochester and a member of the CPCYP, plans to attend, along with key staff from the Rochester Diocese.

At their June 2026 meeting, the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB), voted to approve the first substantive revisions to the Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People (the "Dallas Charter") since 2018.

"I look forward to a meaningful discussion to educate attendees and provide an update about the recent work of the Committee on Protection of Children and Young People (CPCYP,)" stated Bishop O'Connell.

"Why is this important?" asks Mike Koplinka-Loehr, survivor and co-facilitator of The Hope, Healing and Solidarity coalition, https://hopehealingandsolidarity.org/. "This presentation and discussion provides a rare opportunity for upstate NY residents to hear first-hand about the work of the Committee on Protection of Children and Young People."

While advance registration is not required to attend the presentation, it is recommended to plan for space requirements. Visit events at: https://www.spiritualrenewalcenter.com/.

DO YOU HEAR GOD'S VOICE CALLING YOU TO BE A DEACON?

Have you ever, at any time in your life, had a passing thought of serving God in a more formal way in the Church? Did you ever serve others in the secular world through military, public, human, or community service and feel a deeper calling? These, along with many other signs in the path of life, may be God nudging you toward a committed role in serving the Church.

If you are a man between 25 and 55, it may be that God is calling you progressively towards Holy Orders as a permanent Deacon in the coming years. If you have ever had even the slightest inkling or simply wish to hear more about a pathway for discerning God's call, please join a number of deacons for a light supper on October 8th at 6 p.m. in the Knights of Columbus Hall at 47 Market St. in downtown Auburn. If you are married, please bring your spouse, as they are critical to discernment. If you are a wife and think your husband may have a calling, invite him out to dinner and surprise him with the setting.

The dinner is free and you will hear testimony from a few deacons on how they came to hear and follow God's call. They will also talk about the path of service, prayer and study leading to the sacrament of Holy Orders as a Deacon. While registration is not required, it would be quite helpful in planning for the food. To register yourself and your spouse for the dinner, or if you have any questions, please call or text Dcn. John Tomandl 315-729-4668 or Dcn. Dennis Donahue 315-406-1538. We hope to see you there!

Please come if you can, or contact Lisa in the Parish Office at 607-257-2493 if you would like to be involved.

Showing at Regal Cinemas this week.

ADORE HIM is a new docudrama from the executive producer of the record-breaking and Gabriel Award-winning Jesus Thirsts: The Miracle of the Eucharist (Fathom Entertainment/2024) that aims to inspire deeper devotion to Jesus through Eucharistic adoration. While JESUS THIRSTS presented an overarching focus on the Mass, the sequel ADORE HIM aims to teach and inspire Catholics and seekers about the power of Eucharistic Adoration.

ADORE HIM invites you to enter the very presence of God. Through cinematic reenactments that span salvation history and intimate modern-day interviews from around the world, this film explores the transforming power of meeting the Creator of the Universe face to face. From encountering the Ark of the Covenant as it traveled across the wilderness to bumping into Jesus as he taught in the marketplace, this story builds to a culmination in the Eucharist, and today millions are finding out how much God truly loves them as they adore Him in the Blessed Sacrament. He is here. Will you come?

READINGS AND PRAYERS FOR THE TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

Processional: Come, Now is the Time to Worship, Breaking Bread #570

Greeting

Priest: In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

People: Amen.

Priest: The Lord be with you.

People: And with your spirit.

Penitential Act

Glory to God Belmont Mass, Breaking Bread #828

Liturgy of the Word

First Reading: Isaiah 5:1-7

Let me now sing of my friend,
my friend's song concerning his vineyard.
My friend had a vineyard
on a fertile hillside;
he spaded it, cleared it of stones,
and planted the choicest vines;
within it he built a watchtower,
and hewed out a wine press.
Then he looked for the crop of grapes,
but what it yielded was wild grapes.

Now, inhabitants of Jerusalem and people of Judah,
judge between me and my vineyard:
What more was there to do for my vineyard
that I had not done?
Why, when I looked for the crop of grapes,
did it bring forth wild grapes?
Now, I will let you know what I mean to do with my vineyard:
take away its hedge, give it to grazing,
break through its wall, let it be trampled!
Yes, I will make it a ruin:
it shall not be pruned or hoed,
but overgrown with thorns and briers;
I will command the clouds
not to send rain upon it.
The vineyard of the LORD of hosts is the house of Israel,
and the people of Judah are his cherished plant;
he looked for judgment, but see, bloodshed!
for justice, but hark, the outcry!

Lector: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 80:9, 12, 13-14, 15-16, 19-20

The vineyard of the Lord is the house of Israel.

Second Reading: Philippians 4:6-9

Brothers and sisters:
Have no anxiety at all, but in everything,
by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving,
make your requests known to God.
Then the peace of God that surpasses all understanding will guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus.

Finally, brothers and sisters,
whatever is true, whatever is honorable,
whatever is just, whatever is pure,
whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious,
if there is any excellence
and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.
Keep on doing what you have learned and received and heard and seen in me.
Then the God of peace will be with you.

Lector: The Word of the Lord.
People: Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia - Mass of Remembrance

Deacon/Priest: The Lord be with you.
People: And with your spirit.
Deacon/Priest: A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew.
People: Glory to you, O Lord.

Gospel: Matthew 21:33-43

Jesus said to the chief priests and the elders of the people:
"Hear another parable.
There was a landowner who planted a vineyard, put a hedge around it, dug a wine press in it, and built a tower.
Then he leased it to tenants and went on a journey.
When vintage time drew near,
he sent his servants to the tenants to obtain his produce.
But the tenants seized the servants and one they beat,
another they killed, and a third they stoned.
Again he sent other servants, more numerous than the first ones,
but they treated them in the same way.
Finally, he sent his son to them, thinking,
'They will respect my son.'
But when the tenants saw the son, they said to one another,
'This is the heir.
Come, let us kill him and acquire his inheritance.'
They seized him, threw him out of the vineyard, and killed him.
What will the owner of the vineyard do to those tenants when he comes?"
They answered him,
"He will put those wretched men to a wretched death and lease his vineyard to other tenants who will give him the produce at the proper times."
Jesus said to them, "Did you never read in the Scriptures:
The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone;
by the Lord has this been done,
and it is wonderful in our eyes?
Therefore, I say to you,
the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a people that will produce its fruit."

Deacon/Priest: The Gospel of the Lord.

The Lord's Prayer

People: Our Father, Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name; Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

Priest: Deliver us, Lord, we pray, from every evil, graciously grant peace in our days, that, by the help of your mercy, we may be always free from sin and safe from all distress, as we await the blessed hope and the coming of our Savior, Jesus Christ.

People: For the kingdom, the power and the glory are yours now and for ever.

Sign of Peace

Priest: Lord Jesus Christ, who said to your Apostles, peace I leave you, my peace I give you, look not on our sins, but on the faith of your Church, and graciously grant her peace and unity in accordance with your will. Who live and reign for ever and ever.

People: Amen.
Priest: Let us offer each other the sign of peace.
