From the Pastor

As we begin this new season, our readings remind us of a significant outcome of our Christian faith: we are called to be witnesses. John's Gospel presents the Baptist differently from the other Gospel accounts: the prophet does not dress in an austere manner or challenge people with a rhetoric of fire and doom. Instead, the Baptist is portrayed as a witness, one of many throughout John's Gospel, to testify to the person of Jesus. The Baptist identifies Jesus as superior to him: "A man is coming after me who ranks ahead of me because he existed before me." The Baptist testifies to Jesus' baptism and the Spirit descending upon Jesus and concludes by saying: "I have seen and testified that he is the Son of God."

The prophet Isaiah testifies to another figure, the servant, whose task is to lead the Israelites back to God. He reminds them that they are to be witnesses to all the nations of the world: "I will make you a light to the nations / that my salvation may reach to the ends of the earth." This servant foreshadows Jesus' mission of witnessing to all people God's plan of salvation.

In greeting his community in Corinth, Paul identifies himself as an Apostle, sent to testify to the message of Jesus Christ throughout the world. Paul reminds the Corinthians that they are "called to be holy" and that their lives are transformed by the person and message of Jesus Christ.

We also are called to be holy and, through our Baptism, our lives are to witness to the person of Jesus Christ.

Church News

Church Floor Project

The replacement of our Church floor begins this Monday. As part of the project, we will also be installing new kneelers and seat cushions. We will NOT be closing the Church during the construction. The Saturday vigil Mass and Sunday Masses will continue to be held in the Church, utilizing one side of the Church pews and the choir loft. For weekday Masses, the 8:00 a.m. and 12:00 noon Masses will be celebrated Monday through Saturday in the Chapel of the old Convent building on N. Fulton Ave. and Orchard St. The entire project will take approximately four weeks so we appreciate your patience.
