From the Pastor

In the first reading, God speaks to his prophet Isaiah (“You are my servant”), but then God identifies the servant as Israel, who is to be a light to the nations. Scripture often contains multiple meanings; the servant is both Isaiah and Israel. The prophet represents the nation. Similarly, Christian tradition understands Jesus to be God’s servant, “through whom I show my glory,” while it also understands Jesus as representative of all Israel (and all humanity). Through Jesus, descendant of the survivors of Israel, God brings his salvation to the ends of the earth.

John the Baptist bears witness to these two dimensions of God’s salvation. The Baptizer declares that he came to make Jesus known to Israel, but he also recognizes that Jesus is the final Passover Lamb who will take away the sin of the world.

In 1 Corinthians, Paul identifies as coauthor his “brother” (his fellow Christian) Sosthenes. A man is named Sosthenes only one other time in Scripture, and he is ruler of a synagogue in Corinth. He was seized and beaten by Jews who were angered by Paul’s preaching in the synagogue and who tried to convince the Romans to arrest Paul. While most Christians in Corinth were Gentile, revealing the spread of the Gospel to the nations, Paul (a Jew) writes alongside a fellow Jew and synagogue leader, witnessing to God’s regathering of his people Israel.

In Psalm 40, King David provides the proper response to God’s saving actions toward his people Israel and the nations. It is not sacrifices or pious offerings that are desired but ears and hearts open to obey God’s will. “Behold,” says David, “I come”. Or as Isaac Watts declared in his hymn “When I Survey the Wondrous Cross,” “Love so amazing, so divine, demands my soul, my life, my all.”

Parishioner Registration

Any new or unregistered parishioners are asked to register as soon as possible. You can register by completing the registration form found in the vestibule of the Church, by visiting our website at stspeterpaulandstursula.org, or in person at the Rectory. Registering helps us to communicate with our parishioners about the many items of importance which arise throughout the year.

Church News

New Parishioner Welcome

Our Parish is hosting a New Parishioner Get Together as a way to get to know everyone who has joined our Parish in the last three years. With the social distancing and gathering restrictions of the past, it has been difficult to get to know our parishioners. But now is a good time for us to get together as a Parish family. What a great opportunity for all of us to relax and share some fellowship with one another as members of Sts. Peter & Paul and St. Ursula Parish.

All of our new Parishioners and families are invited to join us at our Pizza Party Get Together on Thursday, January 26th at 7:00 pm in the Gym. Even if you can come for only a short period of time, drop down and have a slice of pizza with us. Since we will need to know how much food to order, please indicate your attendance by completing the Sign-Up sheet located on the table in the vestibule of the Church. You can also RSVP by calling the Rectory office at 914-668-9815 or visiting our website.

Oil Tank Replacement Fund

After years of service, our underground oil tank, which provides oil to both our school and church boilers, has a leak. As required by environmental regulations we have taken that oil tank out of service. Temporary oil tanks have been installed and are being used to heat our facilities until a permanent oil tank is installed. As you can imagine, this is a tremendous expense for our Parish. If you can help us financially in any way, it would be greatly appreciated.

Mass Intentions

Our 2023 Mass Book for announced Masses is open and Masses are available. The offering is $15. To obtain an announced Mass, please call the Rectory with your request or mail your requested Mass intentions to the Rectory. You may also email your request to rectory@stspeterpaulandstursula.org.
