From the Pastor

The Church worships one God that believers encounter in three ways. God the Father is complete mystery, as this Sunday's responsorial psalm declares. Throughout the psalm, the prophet declares that God is greater than human artifacts, natural phenomena, or a cosmic power. God created these things and is praiseworthy and exalted above all of them.

In this Sunday's first reading, Moses encounters this enigmatic creator. The strange description highlights the mysterious nature of Israel's God. This enigmatic being is nevertheless profoundly merciful and careful to fulfill promises. God had promised Israel freedom and a home of their own, and God was now acting to make that happen.

The same merciful God appears in this Sunday's Gospel. God's presence comes into the world as Jesus Christ. In one important way Jesus is distinct from the God of Israel: the Son is really human. In other important ways the Son is identical to the God that Israel knows. He is similarly mysterious, confounding his opponents and sometimes perplexing even his disciples. Also like the God of Israel, Jesus is merciful and faithful, joining humanity to share the love God has for us.

Even after the Son's ascension, experiences of God's love and peace remained, as Paul reminds the Corinthians. This was the work of the Holy Spirit, who continued Christ's work of salvation. The Holy Spirit also resembled the Father's mysterious presence and everlasting fidelity.; As Paul's blessing indicates, wherever one person of the Trinity appears, all three are present.

Within the mysterious God of Israel lay the seeds to understand the incarnate Son. Those who encountered the Son found in his loving presence the clues that they needed to understand the Spirit. Those who live in the Spirit discover the infinite depths of the mysterious Father. At the heart of reality and of our faith is a community of love.

Discussion Group-Men & Women

Any man or woman interested in learning more about the Scriptures and applying the word of God to your daily life is invited to come on Saturday mornings at 10:30 to the Rectory. Those who are new to the group are asked to give their email address to Father John.

Father's Day Remembrance

Please place your Father's Day envelope in the regular collection. The envelopes placed on our altar will provide a special remembrance of all fathers during the Masses celebrated in June.

Church in Latin America

Next weekend we will take up the Collection for the Church in Latin America & Home Missions. For many in Latin America and the Caribbean, a rising secular culture, difficult rural terrain, and a shortage of ministers all present obstacles to practicing the faith. Your support for the collection provides lay leadership training, catechesis, priestly and religious formation, and other programs to share our Catholic faith with those who long to hear the Good News of Christ.

Picnic Raffle Tickets

The Picnic Committee is selling raffle tickets for our Big Money Raffle. The first prize is $1,000, the second prize is $750 and the third prize is $250. Each ticket is $25. You can purchase your raffle tickets after all the Masses or by calling the Rectory.

Parish Picnic

Everyone is invited to our annual Parish Picnic which will take place on Sunday, June 25th, under the tent in the parking lot. Please register for the picnic by returning the registration form found on the third page of today's bulletin and in the vestibule. You may also register on our website.
