Or by appointment

A Welcoming Community: You enter this Church ... not as stranger, but as a guest of God. He is your heavenly Father. Come, then, with joy in your heart and thanks on your lips into His presence, offering Him your love and service. Be grateful to the strong and loyal ones who, in the name of Jesus Christ, built this place of worship, and to all who have beautified it and hallowed it with their prayers and praise. Ask His blessing on those who love His house of faith as the inspiration of their labor, rejoicing in the power of the Holy Spirit, and may that blessing rest on you, both in your going out and your coming in.

Parish Registration: You must be a registered member of The Immaculate Heart of Mary Parish to receive Baptism, Confirmation, First Penance, First Holy Communion, Marriage and to receive sponsor letters from the pastor.

New Members: Please stop by or call the parish office and register. (If you are leaving the parish, please notify the office before you leave). Thank you.

Change of Address: Please notify the parish office as soon as possible if you have had a change of address.

Inactive Catholics: As a welcoming parish, we ask every parishioner to ask God to put in your heart people whose hearts we need to reach out and touch with God's love. "Before you talk to men about God, you talk to God about men." Please, call, write, leave in an envelope in the collection the name, address and phone number of the person. Father would be delighted to meet with them.

SACRAMENTAL LIFE

RCIA: The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is a process to bring non-Catholics into the faith. Anyone seeking information or interested in becoming a part of this community of faith can call the parish office.

Sacrament of Baptism: Baptisms are scheduled for the 1st and 3rd Sundays of the month following the 9:30 AM Mass. In order to understand and better appreciate this special sacrament, parents are required to attend the Pre-Baptismal Program, which is held on the last Saturday of each month at 7:00 PM in St. Basil's Rectory. Please contact the rectory to schedule your child's baptism.

Sacrament of Marriage: Couples contemplating marriage should notify the rectory at least six months prior to the date to allow necessary time for proper preparation.

Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick: Urgent calls will be attended to at any time of the day or night.

Visitation of the Sick: Please call the parish for visitation of the sick at home, in the hospital, or health care facility.

Parish Mission Statement: We, the Catholic faithful of The Immaculate Heart of Mary Parish, in union with our Holy Father, the Pope, and our Bishop, are called through Baptism to share in the ministry which Jesus Christ has entrusted to the One, Holy, Catholic, and Apostolic Church. As priest and lay faithful in a rural area, we utilize our energy to serve the spiritual needs of the Kingdom of God to promote a culture of life, justice, and peace to this generation and the generations that follow us.

Prayer to the Immaculate Heart of Mary

O Immaculate Heart of Mary, Heavenly beauty and splendor of the Father, you are the most valued Heavenly treasure.

New Eve, immaculate in soul, spirit and body, created of the godly seed by the Spirit of God, you are the spiritual Mother of mankind.

Pure Virgin, full of grace then and now, your whole being was raised Heavenly in full glory, to be elevated above all the hosts within the Kingdom of God.

O Heavenly Mother, Queen of Heaven and earth, I recognize the glory of your highest title, the Immaculate Heart of Mary!

Loving Mother, dispenser of endless blessings, you who continually intercede on our behalf, please present my need before your loving Son, Jesus.

(Mention your request)

O Immaculate Heart of Mary, I know that you are now presenting my need before Jesus, for you have never turned away those in dire need.

Mother dearest, I await your favorable answer, submitting myself to the Divine will of the Lord, for all glories are His for ever and ever. Amen.

Sunday Readings

First Reading: Acts 15:1-2, 22-29

Some men informed the Gentiles that because of the Old Laws they must be circumcised if they wished to be saved. The disciples then went forth to tell the Gentiles to honor only those rules which were strictly necessary, such as abstaining from eating meat sacrificed to idols and illicit sexual union.

Responsorial Psalm: 67

Second Reading: Revelation 21:10-14, 22-23

John depicts Jerusalem coming out of heaven, sparkling with the radiance of precious jewels. Angels were stationed at each of its twelve gates and each gate bore the name of one tribe of Israel. The city had no temple because God was its temple. The glory and light of God and the Lamb also replaced their need for the sun.

Gospel: John 14:23-29

Jesus tells his disciples, "Anyone who loves me will be true to my word." For those who do honor his word, both Jesus and God will love them and stay with them always. He also tells them that God will send the Holy Spirit in his place to give them the instructions they will need. Jesus then tells them that peace is his farewell gift to them.

First Holy Communion
Congratulations to the following students of our parish who received the sacrament of First
Eucharist on Sunday, April 17th.

Sixth Sunday of Easter

What will we do?

Your best friend is leaving town. There is no way to change things. It is certain. What will you do about your sorrow?

For instance: Jesus told Mary Magdalene he had to leave the world to go to the Father. He now had plunged into death and had made his way to shore, but he could not stay here.

We grieve with her. Yet in Sunday's liturgy he says, "If you loved me you would rejoice."

Sounds like what we experience at a funeral. We are glad that our beloved no longer has the pains and shortages of this life. But what about us? Our burden is not lifted, there is more added to it. What will fill the space where the loved one lived?

But then, surprise, Jesus told the disciples something quite puzzling. "Do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid. I am going away and I will come back to you."

Going away and coming back? What is he talking about? It is hard to express in words, but of course the present writer will rush in. It may seem abstract, but I'll give it a try, and please have patience.

Start with the pre-Jesus world. God the Father had been with the people for all ages. The First Testament tells about this, over and over. But no one, even Moses, was allowed to look directly at God.

To remedy this situation, God decided to show us everything about himself, in a way we could understand. He spoke about his very self, using a Word that left nothing unsaid. Humanity is the language he used, and Jesus was the Word spoken. Now God could be known because we could know Jesus.

Jesus dies, resurrects, and ascends to the Father, from whom he came. Are we abandoned? No. In the same way that the Father had done, Jesus now spoke about his own self in another Word that left nothing of himself unsaid.

That Word is the Holy Spirit. This Spirit is the full reality of the divine/human being called Jesus, and is thus the very interior Spirit of God. We are to be closer to Jesus and to the Father than the apostles were! (see Romans 8:11)

If you and I say yes to this Spirit, we will know Jesus just as sheep know the voice of their shepherd. And, knowing Jesus, we will know the Father.

We will find Jesus in the Mass, in the Great Eucharistic Sacrament, in prayer, in the people around us, in those we help. We will be side by side with each other, in the closest possible presence of the God of love.

-John Foley, SJ

From a treatise On the Prescription of Heretics by Tertullian, priest

The preaching of the apostles

Our Lord Jesus Christ himself declared what he was, what he had been, how he was carrying out his Father's will, what obligations he demanded of men. This he did during his earthly life, either publicly to the crowds or privately to his disciples. Twelve of these he picked out to be his special companions, appointed to teach the nations.

One of them fell from his place. The remaining eleven were commanded by Christ, as he was leaving the earth to return to the Father after his resurrection, to go and teach the nations and to baptize them into the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

The apostles cast lots and added Matthias to their number, in place of Judas, as the twelfth apostle. The authority for this action is to be found in a prophetic psalm of David. After receiving the power of the Holy Spirit which had been promised to them, so that they could work miracles and proclaim the truth, they first bore witness to their faith in Jesus Christ and established churches throughout Judea. They then went out into the whole world and proclaimed to the nations the same doctrinal faith.

They set up churches in every city. Other churches received from them a living transplant of faith and the seed of doctrine, and through this daily process of transplanting they became churches. They therefore qualify as apostolic churches by being the offspring of churches that are apostolic.

Every family has to be traced back to its origins. That is why we can say that all these great churches constitute that one original Church of the apostles; for it is from them that they all come. They are all primitive, all apostolic, because they are all one. They bear witness to this unity by the peace in which they all live, the brotherhood which is their name, the fellowship to which they are pledged. The principle on which these associations are based is common tradition by which they share the same sacramental bond.

The only way in which we can prove what the apostles taught – that is to say, what Christ revealed to them – is through those same churches. They were founded by the apostles themselves, who first preached to them by what is called the living voice and later by means of letters.

The Lord had said clearly in former times: I have many more things to tell you, but you cannot endure them now. But he went on to say: When the Spirit of truth comes, he will lead you into the whole truth. Thus Christ shows us that the apostles had full knowledge of the truth, for he had promised that they would receive the whole truth through the Spirit of truth. His promise was certainly fulfilled, since the Acts of the Apostles prove that the Holy Spirit came down on them.

Notice Regarding Reporting Sexual Abuse of a Minor

It is the policy of the Diocese of Scranton to report any allegation of sexual abuse of a minor to law enforcement. If you are a victim of sexual abuse committed by a priest, deacon, religious or lay employee or volunteer of the Diocese of Scranton, you are encouraged to immediately report the matter to law enforcement. If any priest, deacon, religious, lay employee or volunteer of the Diocese of Scranton has cause or reason to suspect that a minor has been subjected to any form of abuse, including child sexual abuse, the matter will be reported to law enforcement. In accordance with the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania's Child Protective Services Laws, reports of suspected child abuse should also be made immediately by phone to the 24-Hour Child Abuse hotline (ChildLine) at 1-800-932-0313 or electronically at www.compass.state.pa.us/cwis

It is also the policy of the Diocese to adhere to all civil and state regulations. To this end, the Diocese is equally committed to adhering to the norms of the Code of Canon Law and to upholding the tenets of the USCCB Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People, which includes supporting victims of sexual abuse in their pursuit of emotional and spiritual well-being. As such, information regarding an allegation of sexual abuse of a minor should also be reported to the Victim Assistance Coordinator, Joseph DeVizia at (570-862-7551) or to Diocesan officials, including the Vicar General, Monsignor Thomas M. Muldowney, V.G., at (570-207-2269).

Knights News

Altar & Rosary Society News

We are currently looking for a volunteer to vacuum the church at St. Francis in Mildred. It would be once a week in fall and winter and less often in spring and summer. Please call Anne Silla at 570-482-3535 if you can contribute your time.

Our next meeting is scheduled for Tuesday, May 10th at 6:30 PM in St. Francis of Assisi Rectory, Mildred.

The Immaculate Heart of Mary Parish Summer Festival ~ Sunday, July 3rd, 2016

Plans are underway for our Summer Festival, which will be held on Sunday, July 3rd from 12:00 noon to 5:00 PM in St. Basil's Hall, Dushore.

Please consider placing an ad in our Annual Festival Ad Book. We are looking for ads for businesses as well as patrons. If you have had a family celebration in the past year, send us a picture! We would love to include it. Personal milestones such as anniversaries, birthdays, and graduations are also welcome! Please call the Parish Office for more details on how you and your family can be a part of our Ad Book!

Attention St. Basil's Alumni

St. Basil's Alumni Society is reaching out to all who attended St. Basil's School until it closed in 1970. We are planning an Alumni Social around the annual picnic to be held on Sunday, July 3rd, 2016. Many years have passed since the last alumni reunion but the picnic has taken place for as long as anyone can remember. Many will not be able to attend the picnic for a variety of reasons, but we would like to offer you an opportunity to purchase a "corner" in the Picnic Ad Book to share your family/career story since your days at St. Basil's School years ago. If interested, please contact the Parish Office at P O Box 307, Dushore, PA 18614 or call 570-928-8865 for details and deadlines.

Congratulations!

We welcome to the Catholic Faith our RCIA Neophytes (newly planted). The RCIA process is challenging, transforming, and spiritually enhancing the life of our parish. We congratulate Lisa Major, Sean Murphy, Luke Manero, and Jaime Underkoffler
New life here in our midst!

THE SOLEMNITY OF THE ASCENSION OF THE LORD THURSDAY, MAY 5TH ~ HOLY DAY OF OBLIGATION

Thursday, May 5th, is the feast of the Ascension of the Lord. It is on this day that Jesus ascended to his Father amid cries of gladness, entering into the heavenly sanctuary. We are called to be his witnesses, mindful of the great hope to which we are called. This feast is a holy day of obligation. Masses will be as follows:

Wednesday, May 4th ~ Vigil

7:00 PM – St. Basil's, Dushore

Thursday, May 5th

9:00 AM – St. Francis of Assisi, Mildred

5:30 PM – St. Basil's, Dushore
