To whom is given the task of authentically interpreting the deposit of faith?

The task of giving an authentic interpretation of the deposit of faith has been entrusted to the living teaching office of the Church alone, that is, to the successor of Peter, the Bishop of Rome, and to the bishops in communion with him. To this Magisterium, which in the service of the Word of God enjoys the certain charism of truth, belongs also the task of defining dogmas which are formulations of the truths contained in divine Revelation. This authority of the Magisterium also extends to those truths necessarily connected with Revelation. CCC 85-90, 100

How to Properly Dispose of Blessed Palms

Palm branches can be burned or buried in order to properly dispose of them. One tradition is to bury the palms on the four corners of your property for protection against natural disasters and evil. These types of disposal honor their sacred purpose.

Explanation of the Celebration of Holy Week by Pope Benedict XVI

Holy Week is the annual commemoration of the Passion, Death, and Resurrection of Jesus Christ, the essential core of the Christian faith and the foundation of all the Church's liturgical life. It is the most intense and significant liturgical period of the year, a privileged time to draw closer to God through prayer, silence, and reflection.

As Pope Benedict XVI taught us, Holy Week is not only a memory of what happened, but a making-present of God's love, which is given for us. By contemplating the cross, we discover that God is not indifferent to human suffering, but rather takes it upon Himself and transforms it into life and hope.

In their Homilies the Fathers often referred to these days which, as St. Athanasius observed in one of his Easter Letters, bring "us to a new beginning, even the announcement of the blessed Passover, in which the Lord was sacrificed" (Letter 5, 1-2: PG 26, 1379).

On Palm Sunday, we celebrate the triumphant entry of Jesus into Jerusalem. We welcome Him with joy, carrying blessed palms and recognizing Him as our King.

Holy Thursday, The Holy Chrism Mass, a morning prelude to Holy Thursday, will see priests gathered with their own Bishop. During an important Eucharistic celebration which usually takes place in the diocesan cathedrals, the oil of the sick and of the catechumens and chrism will be blessed. In addition, the Bishop and Priests will renew the priestly promises that they spoke on the day of their Ordination.

In the afternoon we shall celebrate the institution of the Eucharist. Writing to the Corinthians, the Apostle Paul strengthened the early Christians in the truth of the Eucharistic Mystery, conveying to them what he himself had learned. "The Lord Jesus on the night when he was betrayed took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it, and said, "This is my Body which is for you. Do this in remembrance of me". In the same way also the cup, after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my Blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me" (1 Cor 11: 23-25).

These words clearly express Christ's intention: under the species of the bread and the wine, he makes himself really present with his Body given and his Blood poured out as a sacrifice of the New Covenant. At the same time, he constitutes the Apostles and their successors ministers of this Sacrament, which he entrusts to his Church as a supreme proof of his love.

We also commemorate with an evocative rite the gesture of Jesus who washes the Apostles' feet (Jn 13: 1-25). For the Evangelist this act comes to portray the whole of Jesus' life and reveals his love to the end, an infinite love that is capable of preparing man for communion with God and of setting him free. At the end of the Holy Thursday Liturgy the Church puts the Blessed Sacrament in a specially prepared place that represents Jesus' loneliness and mortal anguish in Gethsemane. Before the Eucharist, the faithful contemplate Jesus in the hour of his solitude and pray that all the loneliness in the world may cease. This liturgical itinerary is likewise an invitation to seek the intimate encounter with the Lord in prayer, to recognize Jesus among those who are lonely, to watch with him and to proclaim him with the light of one's own life.

On Good Friday we shall commemorate the Passion and death of the Lord. Jesus wanted to give his life as a sacrifice for the forgiveness of humanity's sins, choosing to this end the most brutal and humiliating death: crucifixion. There is an inseparable connection between the Last Supper and Jesus' death. At the Last Supper Jesus gives his Body and his Blood, that is, his earthly existence, himself, anticipating his death and transforming it into an act of love. Thus he makes death which by its nature is the end, the destruction of every relationship an act of the communication of himself, a means of salvation and of the proclamation of the victory of love. In this way, Jesus becomes the key to understanding the Last Supper, which is an anticipation of the transformation of violent death into a voluntary sacrifice; into an act of love that redeems and saves the world.

Holy Saturday is marked by a profound silence. The Churches are bare and no special Liturgies are planned. In this time of waiting and hope, believers are invited to prayer, reflection and conversion, also by means of the sacrament of Reconciliation, in order to take part, intimately renewed, in the celebration of Easter.

On the night of Holy Saturday, during the solemn Easter Vigil, "mother of all vigils", this silence will be broken by the singing of the Alleluia which announces Christ's Resurrection and proclaims the victory of light over darkness, of life over death. The Church will rejoice in the encounter with her Lord, entering Easter Day which the Lord will inaugurate by rising from the dead.

Dear brothers and sisters, let us prepare to live intensely this Sacred Triduum, now at hand, so as to be ever more deeply inserted into the Mystery of Christ, who died and rose for us. May the Most Holy Virgin accompany us on this spiritual journey. May she, who followed Jesus in his Passion and who stood beneath the Cross, lead us into the Paschal Mystery so that we may experience the joy and peace of the Risen One.

Eighth Grade Spotlight

Daphne

Daphne has attended St. Joseph Catholic School for 11 years, beginning in preschool. She has an older sister who also graduated from our school.

Daphne enjoys art, sculpting, playing games, and paleontology. Her favorite memory is her first day on our campus in preschool. She was uncertain about her new school, but soon “learned it was okay.” She’s still with many of those same students in eighth grade.

Her favorite saint is St. Gabriel, the Archangel.

GOAL

Today, as disciples of Jesus looking toward the future, we are called once again to come together in faith and unity. Our parish is currently facing several important needs:

$198,000

$137,651.41

Our Church building is in need of a new air conditioning system and new air handlers.

Our School Gymnasium requires both air conditioning and heating systems.

Our Parish Center Hallway also needs air conditioning installed.

These improvements are vital to ensuring a comfortable and welcoming environment for all who come to worship, learn, and serve within our parish. As your Parochial Administrator, I invite you to do two things: first, please pray for the success of these projects. Second, ask Jesus how He may be calling you to support this mission.

Help us reach our goal by April 2026

Pray for our Elect Catechumens

Lisa Calanquin - My husband Kevin and I have 3 daughters Aida, Maev and Evalynn and a baby on the way. We are originally from California and have a small farm in Bismarck. I am a stay at home mom. Kevin is Catholic and why I decided to inquire about Catholicism. What I like most, and why I chose to become Catholic is because of the historic roots and it being the original church.

Michael Cullipher - I am originally from Belleville, IL and currently reside in Bonne Terre with my wife Alicia. We've been married for 12 years. She was raised Catholic and went to Catholic schools and college. My step-son Leo has been on fire with his Catholic faith and that has motivated my wife and I to get back to church and has motivated me to inquire about becoming Catholic. I have thoroughly enjoyed the classes and look forward to continuing my journey in the faith.

Brandon Noblin - I was born and raised in St. Louis. I moved to Kansas City for college and started my teaching career. I've been teaching high school shop for 15 years, 10 of which have been with the Farmington school district. I also coach robotics and I'm involved in scouting. Having not grown up in a church, I've been wanting to make this step for more than 10 years. Last summer when I got engaged to my fiance' Emily, that was the last nudge I needed.

Candidates

Stella Hanks - I was born and raised Catholic in Louisiana. My family are all Catholic and are very supportive of my journey. My Catholic faith started as a child and continues to grow with me as an adult. My relationship with God grows daily in prayer and reflection. I enjoy reading about the Catholic faith and Jesus Christ. I work full time as a Financial Consultant and have 2 children. I joined the class to make my First Communion and Confirmation.

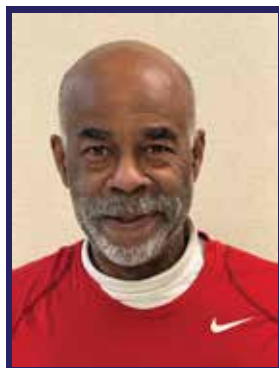

Candidates

Sydney Huskey - I am from Perryville and have lived in Farmington most of my life. My dad is Heath, mom, Tina and sisters Macey and Aubrey. I graduated from Farmington HS where I now teach Physical Science! I was baptized Lutheran but after my parents divorced my family stopped attending church and I grew up without a consistent faith life. When I started attending mass, I felt a strong sense of peace and a pull toward something deeper and true. I believe God is calling me to the fullness of faith in the Catholic church and I desire to continue growing in my relationship with Him within this community.

Jordan Santhuff - I grew up in Ellington, MO and was raised in the Baptist church. I moved to Farmington 5 years ago to work in IT for First State Community Bank. My wife Rebekah and I have a daughter, Scottie, 7 months. After attending mass with my wife for several years, I felt compelled to join the Catholic church. My mother-in-law, Laure, has really supported me in my journey.

Raymond Sims - I was raised in Murray, KY. I taught Health and Physical Ed. for 25 years at Murray State. I met a lady here in Farmington 4 years ago and moved here after I retired two years ago. I was raised in and baptized in the Baptist Church. I wanted to join to worship in the same faith as my partner, but also my former religion wasn't allowing me to get closer to God. My sister converted 10 years ago and I have seen a huge positive change in her life.

Shane Tucker - I was born and raised in Potosi. I now live in Potosi on my farm. I have a son Orrin, age 10. I work in security here in Farmington. I was baptized in The Church of Christ but felt there were a lot of inconsistencies in the church. I felt called to explore the Catholic faith.

Heavenly Father, we thank You for the gift of faith and for the Catholic Church. We pray for those You are calling to Yourself. May all in our community open their hearts to the fullness of Your love. Encourage others to seek a greater understanding of You through us. Allow our parish of St. Joseph to be a welcoming spiritual home and a light to all. O blessed apostle, St. Paul, greatest of all converts, who labored unceasingly for the conversion of other souls, inspire us with the ardor of your zeal that we may pray and work for the conversion of our brethren, redeemed in the blood of Christ but not as yet blessed with the full light of his truth. Eternal God, please send to us, according to your divine will, souls whom you have called, and pour out your Holy Spirit to work through us to set all our hearts afire for Your Kingdom. We ask this through Your Son Jesus, who is the Way, the Truth, and the Life for all. Amen.

OF THE NEW TESTAMENT

Watch Now! Only on formed™

The Last Days: The Passion and Death of Jesus the Christ w/Jonathan Roumie - This filmed presentation of the theatrical production movingly recreates the final moments of Jesus' earthly ministry as a teacher through His crucifixion and death. The play has been seen by thousands worldwide, not only as a live performance but also in live streams and televised broadcasts. We are excited to offer FORMED to our entire parish for free. To register for your free account and claim our gift to you: Visit signup.formed.org, enter our parish zip code or name. We pray that this gift will bless you!

GOSPEL

When a famous person comes to town, everyone comes out to greet him. In today's Gospel everyone came to sing praises to Jesus. They even threw their capes on the ground as a welcome carpet for him. However, the next day these same people hollered, "Crucify him." Jesus does not want you to be his friend one day and turn your back on him the next day. He wants you to be his friend forever.

PUZZLE

Help Jesus get to Jerusalem.

Lenten DIAPER Drive

Final Weekend to support the Respect Life Committee diaper drive. Right now, many families are struggling to make ends meet & keeping their children in diapers is a big expense.

Diapers can be dropped off in the Parish Center or in the Parish Office hallway. All diapers collected will be donated to assist families in our community through Monarch Family Resource Center. Diaper sizes most needed are sizes 3, 4, 5, & 6. We ask you to pray for the success of this project!

Healing Litany for Our Parish and School Community

For wounds caused by misunderstanding, division, or silence, Lord, heal us.

For hearts that carry pain from past experiences within our parish or school, Lord, heal us.

For those who feel forgotten, unheard, or disconnected, Lord, heal us.

For families who struggle, who grieve, or who carry hidden burdens, Lord, heal us.

For our children, that they may feel safe, loved, and rooted in faith, Lord, heal us.

For parents, that they may be strengthened in hope and trust, Lord, heal us.

For our teachers and staff, who serve with dedication even in times of difficulty, Lord, heal us.

For fatigue, discouragement, or heaviness of spirit among those who serve, Lord, heal us.

For words spoken that have wounded, and for silence that has hurt, Lord, heal us.

For forgiveness where it is needed, and humility to seek it, Lord, heal us.

For unity within our parish and school community, Lord, heal us.

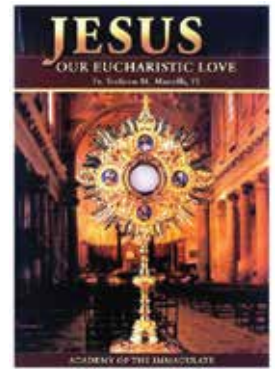

For renewed trust, restored relationships, and hearts open to reconciliation, Lord, heal us.

For the grace to move forward together in faith, patience, and love, Lord, heal us.

Let us pray: Lord Jesus, You are the Divine Healer. As members of St. Joseph Parish, we place before You every wound, every burden, and every longing for peace within our hearts and within our community. Heal what has been hurt, restore what has been broken, and unite us in Your love. Grant us patience, humility, and trust as we walk together in faith. May Your mercy renew us, and may Your peace dwell among us always. Amen.

Catholic Belief Spotlight

HOLY EUCHARIST Part 1: In his book, "JESUS Our Eucharistic Love" Fr. Stefano M. Manelli, asks the question: What is the Eucharist? He says that through the Eucharist, Jesus is present with us in the tabernacles of our churches with His Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity.

He also reminds us that, "the Eucharist we receive at Holy Communion is the Word of God, the Son of Mary who suffered on the Cross, who is truly present in the Eucharist, and who rules in Heaven."

The Eucharistic Jesus is here with us as a brother, as a friend, as spouse of our souls. He wishes to enter within us to be our food for eternal life, our love, our support. He wants to make us part of His mystical body in which He would redeem us and save us and then take us into the kingdom of Heaven to settle us in an everlasting bliss of love.

It should never be too much trouble for us to grow familiar with this unspeakable mystery. Meditation, study and reflection on the Eucharist should have an important place each day on our timetable. It will be the time of our day richest in blessings."

Eucharistic Adoration

Each hour you spend with Jesus will deepen his divine peace in your heart.

We are in need of 1 adorer for Thursday Adoration from 3:30-4:30. Please call the parish office to sign up.

Knights of Columbus Announcement

The Knights of Columbus would like to invite you to a fun time of social gathering, good food, and a benefit for St. Joseph school. Every second Sunday of the month between September and April, the Knights of Columbus prepare an "ALL YOU CAN EAT AND DRINK" breakfast. Cost for this fun time is only $8 person or $25 per family of 4 or more and all the proceeds are put into a St. Joe school fund. These proceeds have purchased in the past, whiteboards, desks, Chromebooks, bibles, buses for field trips, and other supplies for the children's education.

Whether it is a quick bite to go before heading to sports games, a long slow breakfast with friends, or you just want someone else to do the dishes please come support our kids, the school, and have some good food and great conversations. The remaining breakfast date for this year is April 12.
