Rector's Corner

The Light of the World

Twenty years ago, April of 1999, I was received into the Catholic Church at Saint John Vianney Catholic Church in Round Rock, TX. Within the next year the world of Catholic theology was opened up to me. I began to discover who I was as a lay person. Who are the laity? According to Lumen Gentium, the Dogmatic Constitution on the Church, the laity are "all the faithful except those in holy orders and those in the state of religious life specially approved by the Church." In other words, most of you! Through Holy Orders, I am no longer a member of the lay faithful, yet we are all one Body: "The laity are gathered together in the People of God and make up the Body of Christ under one head."

I began to realize that the lay vocation is truly among the noblest: "Whoever they are they are called upon, as living members, to expend all their energy for the growth of the Church and its continuous sanctification, since this very energy is a gift of the Creator and a blessing of the Redeemer. . . The lay apostolate . . . is a participation in the salvific mission of the Church itself. Through their baptism and confirmation all are commissioned to that apostolate by the Lord Himself. Moreover, by the sacraments, especially holy Eucharist, that charity toward God and man which is the soul of the apostolate is communicated and nourished."

Who has the most direct access to the mission field of evangelization in our society? You do, the laity!

"Now the laity are called in a special way to make the Church present and operative in those places and circumstances where only through them can it become the salt of the earth. Thus every layman, in virtue of the very gifts bestowed upon him, is at the same time a witness and a living instrument of the mission of the Church itself 'according to the measure of Christ's bestowal'. . . Upon all the laity, therefore, rests the noble duty of working to extend the divine plan of salvation to all men of each epoch and in every land."

The ministerial priesthood is at the service of the lay vocation. We Cathedral priests are at your service not only to facilitate your encounter with Christ in the sacraments, helping you get to heaven. We are also at your service also to help encourage, exhort and equip you to "expend all of your energy for the growth of the Church and its continuous sanctification" and to your very present daily mission, your apostolate to communicate the Gospel to our world.

(Excerpts from Lumen Gentium, Chapter IV.)

El Rincón del Rector

La luz del mundo

Hace veinte años, en abril del 1999, que fui recibido a la iglesia católica en la parroquia de Saint John Vianney en Round Rock, Texas. Dentro del próximo año se me abrió el mundo de la teología católica. Comencé a descubrir mi identidad de una persona laica. ¿Quiénes son los laicos? Según “Lumen Gentium”, que es la Constitución Dogmática Sobre la Iglesia, los laicos son “todos los fieles cristianos, a excepción de los miembros del orden sagrado y los del estado religioso aprobado por la Iglesia.” En otras palabras, ¡La mayoría de ustedes son los laicos! Debido a las órdenes sagradas, ya no soy miembro de los fieles laicos, sin embargo, todos somos un solo cuerpo: “Los laicos [están] congregados en el Pueblo de Dios e integrados en el único Cuerpo de Cristo bajo una sola Cabeza...”

Muy pronto me di cuenta de que la vocación laical está verdaderamente entre las más nobles: “[Los laicos,] cualesquiera que sean, están llamados, a fuer de miembros vivos, a contribuir con todas sus fuerzas, las recibidas por el beneficio del Creador y las otorgadas por la gracia del Redentor, al crecimiento de la Iglesia y a su continua santificación... El apostolado de los laicos es participación en la misma misión salvífica de la Iglesia, apostolado al que todos están destinados por el Señor mismo en virtud del bautismo y de la confirmación. Y los sacramentos, especialmente la sagrada Eucaristía, comunican y alimentan aquel amor hacia Dios y hacia los hombres que es el alma de todo apostolado.”

¿Quiénes son los que tienen el acceso más directo al campo misionero de la evangelización en nuestra sociedad? ¡Son ustedes, los laicos!

“Los laicos están especialmente llamados a hacer presente y operante a la Iglesia en aquellos lugares y circunstancias en que sólo puede llegar a ser sal de la tierra a través de ellos. Así, todo laico, en virtud de los dones que le han sido otorgados, se convierte en testigo y simultáneamente en vivo instrumento de la misión de la misma Iglesia en la medida del don de Cristo. Así, pues, incumbe a todos los laicos la preclara empresa de colaborar para que el divino designio de salvación alcance más y más a todos los hombres de todos los tiempos y en todas las partes de la tierra.”

El sacerdocio ministerial está al servicio de la vocación laical. Nosotros los sacerdotes de la catedral no solo estamos a su servicio para facilitar su encuentro con Cristo en los sacramentos, ayudándoles a llegar al cielo. También estamos a su servicio para alentarlos, exhortarlos, y equiparlos a “a contribuir con todas sus fuerzas al crecimiento de la Iglesia y a su continua santificación”, y para ayudarles en su presente misión diaria, el apostolado para comunicar el Evangelio a nuestro mundo.

Everyday Stewardship

Have you ever participated in various trust exercises, where you have to place your faith in others around you? Maybe it was falling backwards with your eyes closed while the person's voice speaking to you seemed to drift further away. Maybe it was jumping from a height into people's arms that didn't seem strong enough to catch you. These activities were supposed to show you the meaning of trust and help grow that trust in you for your comrades. Sometimes it worked. Other times, some prankster would actually let you fall, and then you learned to trust no one. So much for building up our ability to trust.

Trust is important, especially in our relationship with Jesus. He calls us all the time and asks for us to trust. However, because of doubt or a desire to follow our own will, we choose to disregard his request. After objecting to Jesus' request to lower his net into the water, Peter was humbled when he caught so much fish that the net began to tear. Peter was a fisherman by trade. Surely he knew what the catch was probably going to be that day. But Jesus asked him to follow his will. Peter wanted to follow his own. Peter realized that his trust from then on should be in the Lord. Do you sometimes think your generosity will bear little fruit? Do you wonder if your surrender to God in stewardship living really amounts to much at all? Trust in Jesus, the one who calls you to this life. His word is truth, and he would never let you fall.

-Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

La Corresponsabilidad Diaria

¿Alguna vez has participado en varios ejercicios de confianza en los que debes poner tu fe en los demás a tu alrededor? Tal vez estabas cayendo hacia atrás con los ojos cerrados mientras la voz de la persona que te hablaba parecía alejarse más. Tal vez fue saltar desde una altura a los brazos de gente que no parecía lo suficientemente fuerte como para atraparte. Estas actividades debían mostrarte el significado de la confianza y ayudar a crecer esa confianza en ti para tus compañeros. A veces funcionaba. Otras veces, algún bromista en realidad te dejaría caer, y luego aprendiste a confiar en nadie. Tanto para construir nuestra capacidad de confiar.

La confianza es importante, especialmente en nuestra relación con Jesús. El nos llama todo el tiempo y nos pide que confiemos. Sin embargo, debido a la duda o el deseo de seguir nuestra propia voluntad, optamos por ignorar su solicitud. Después de oponerse a la petición de Jesús de bajar su red al agua, Pedro se sintió humilde cuando atrapó tanto pescado que la red comenzó a rasgarse. Pedro era un pescador de oficio. Seguramente él sabía cuál sería la captura ese día. Pero Jesús le pidió que siguiera su voluntad. Pedro quería seguir la suya. Pedro se dio cuenta de que su confianza, a partir de entonces, debería estar en el Señor.

¿A veces crees que tu generosidad dará poco fruto? ¿Te preguntas si tu rendición a Dios en la vida de corresponsabilidad realmente vale algo? Confía en Jesús, el que te llama a esta vida. Su palabra es verdad, y Él nunca te dejaría caer.

-Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS
