Gospel Meditation

25th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Luke 16:1-13

Compartmentalization or consistency? In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus tells a strange story of a sneaky, savvy steward that raises questions about our personal virtue. "How much do you owe? Here is your promissory note, write one for eighty." This parable isn't advice for money management. Historically, there were many positions that acted on behalf of their masters regarding money, like customs agents, household stewards, and tax collectors. Often these workers over-charged and skimmed off the top.

Usurious practices like this were not in line with the traditional Jewish understanding of money lending, which strictly forbade them from taking interest or making a profit off of their own people. As the steward reduced the debt, he was likely writing out the amount he originally intended to take for himself. Before the steward can be commended, he needs to right the wrong done.

"The person who is trustworthy in very small matters is also trustworthy in great ones; and the person who is dishonest in very small matters is also dishonest in great ones." This parable contains an important self-check. We have a great many things we're responsible for that seem to have nothing to do with the kingdom of God. How do we interact in those spaces? Are we trustworthy in our dealings at work and at home? Are we honest and faithful to our commitments to family and friends? Are we honest with our money and prudent with how we spend our time?

Jesus calls his disciples to consistency. How often do we expect that we can be one person one place, yet shrug off that persona in a new situation? "No servant can serve two masters." This week, take stock of your life. All of your life. Are you living the Gospel values wherever you go?

25° Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Lc 16, 1-13

La enseñanza de estas lecturas cae como anillo al dedo para el modo de vivir de la sociedad actual. La vida diaria es una lucha constante de tener bienes, lujos, y vivir cómodamente. El deseo de poseer muchas veces hace que el humano se ilusione pensando que se quedará aquí en el mundo para siempre. En contraste, los deseos de Jesús en su tiempo y en el nuestro nos ofrecen una riqueza admirable de cómo se sirve a Dios y no a los bienes y dinero. "Ningún siervo puede servir a dos patrones, porque necesariamente odiara a uno y amara al otro o bien será fiel a uno y despreciara al otro. Ustedes no pueden servir al mismo tiempo a Dios y al dinero." (Lucas 16:13).

¿A quién somos fieles? ¿Por qué Jesús les dijo esto a sus discípulos? No cabe la menor duda; solamente sirviendo a Dios podremos estar seguros para la vida eterna. Sin embargo, este tema puede traer grandes divisiones en la familia. Por ejemplo, el ahorro para el futuro de la educación de sus hijos es algo que se debe de prever. Entonces, ¿Hacia dónde dirigirse en esta circunstancia? Sencillamente se debe tener decisiones prudentes, y ahora es el momento, si aún no se ha hecho, de poner a Dios como centro de la vida de la familia. Jesús lo dice claro, no se pueden servir al mismo tiempo a Dios y al dinero. A través de las dificultades de la vida, la invitación es la misma. ¿A quién sirvo? ¿Quién me quita el tiempo y hace que me olvide de Dios? Recordemos que la fidelidad se adquiere al estar cerca de Dios.

Everyday Stewardship

What's Most Important?

I hold to the belief that you cannot have allegiances to both Duke and UNC, the Packers and the Bears, or the Yankees and the Red Sox. In Matthew 6:24, it says, "He will either hate one and love the other, or be devoted to one and despise the other." That verse isn't talking about sports! It's talking about God and money. Most of us love both of those and that can be a problem. If you were to love any of the sets of teams mentioned above, you have a huge problem as well.

Simply put, you can only have one thing that is the most important in your life. When I ask my children what is the most important thing in their lives, they know to respond, "God." But just because you know that is the right answer doesn't make it the truthful answer. Total allegiance to a sports team seems easier. You won't find a Packers fans secretly wearing a Bear's jersey. However, we can find Christians secretly hoarding their money or doing things based solely on the love of money.

Maybe the problem lies in the fact that, at times, we are merely lukewarm fans of Jesus and not disciples. If we truly have matured in our faith and strengthened our relationship with him, then real commitment comes easier. There will always be a temptation for money to take the place of Jesus, but the more committed we are, the harder it is to allow anything to come between us and our God. The question we all must continually ask ourselves is, "Is God truly the most important thing in my life?" -Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

La Corresponsabilidad Diaria

¿Qué es lo más Importante?

Sostengo la creencia de que no se puede tener lealtades tanto con Duke como con UNC, los Packers y los Bears, o los Yankees y los Red Sox. En Mateo 6:24, dice: "¿necesariamente odiará a uno y amará al otro, o bien cuidará al primero y despreciará al otro." ¡Ese versículo no habla de deportes! Está hablando de Dios y del dinero. La mayoría de nosotros amamos a ambos y eso puede ser un problema. Si amas alguno de los conjuntos de equipos mencionados anteriormente, también tienes un gran problema.

En pocas palabras, solo puedes tener una cosa que sea lo más importante en tu vida. Cuando le pregunto a mis hijos qué es lo más importante en sus vidas, saben que deben responder "Dios." Pero solo porque saben que esa es la respuesta correcta, no la hace la respuesta sincera. La lealtad total a un equipo deportivo parece más fácil. No encontrarás a los fanáticos de los Packers secretamente usando una camiseta de los Bears. Sin embargo, podemos encontrar cristianos acumulan secretamente su dinero o haciendo cosas basadas únicamente en el amor al dinero.

Tal vez el problema radica en el hecho de que, a veces, somos simplemente fanáticos tibios de Jesús y no discípulos. Si verdaderamente hemos madurado en nuestra fe y fortalecido nuestra relación con Él, entonces el compromiso verdadero se da más fácil. Siempre habrá una tentación por el dinero para tomar el lugar de Jesús, pero entre más comprometidos estamos, más difícil es permitir que algo se interponga entre nosotros y nuestro Dios. La pregunta que todos debemos preguntarnos continuamente es: "¿Es Dios verdaderamente lo más importante en mi vida?" -Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

Live the Liturgy

"No servant can serve two masters." We struggle with where we put and give our allegiance. Who has the ultimate authority and claim over us? While our minds want to answer "God," our lives often reveal other conflicting allegiances. Because we are made in the image of God, we are not given a ticket of entitlement or privilege. On the contrary, we are given a level playing field where we are one among many and called to live just and trustworthy lives. To serve God is to serve others and to see the primary purpose and focus of our lives as being good stewards. As God lifts up the poor, so too do we. As much as we want the world and God to serve our own self advancement, we have to resist this temptation at all costs. Injustice has no place in the kingdom of God. ©LPi

Vivir la Liturgia

"No hay criado que pueda servir a dos amos". Luchamos con dónde ponemos y damos nuestra lealtad. ¿Quién tiene la máxima autoridad y reclamo sobre nosotros? Mientras que nuestras mentes quieren responder "Dios", nuestras vidas, a menudo, revelan otras lealtades en conflicto. Debido a que estamos hechos a imagen de Dios, no se nos da un boleto de derecho o privilegio. Por el contrario, se nos da un campo de juego nivelado donde somos uno entre muchos y somos llamados a vivir vidas justas y confiables. Servir a Dios es servir a los demás; y ver el principal enfoque y propósito de nuestras vidas como el ser buenos corresponsables. Cuando Dios levanta a los pobres, nosotros también. Por mucho que queramos que el mundo y Dios sirvan a nuestro propio interés, debemos resistir esta tentación a toda costa. La injusticia no tiene lugar en el reino de Dios. ©LPi

BELIEVE THAT SUICIDE
IS THEIR ONLY WAY OUT.

“Suicidal individuals—with or without a terminal illness—typically do not want to die... The patient requesting assisted suicide is often asking, ‘Does anyone want me to be alive, or care enough to talk me out of this request and support me through this difficult time?’”

Send your Holy Spirit to help others to respond generously and courageously to your call. May our community of faith support vocations of sacrificial love in our youth and young adults.
