Gospel Meditation

26th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Luke 16:19-31

If you saw someone dead come to life tomorrow, what would you change about your life? Would you say "nothing"? That's what Jesus seems to hope. After all, we already know what to do. In this Sunday's Gospel, a rich man and a poor man pass away, the former to damnation and the latter to peaceful rest alongside the Jewish patriarchs. The rich man asks if the poor man can appear to his brothers and advise them to live a more virtuous life. The parable offers a strong rebuke: "They have Moses and the prophets. Let them listen to them." In other words, they should already know what to do.

We, too, know what to do. More than Moses, Jesus Christ himself has spoken, and continues to speak through his Church. The rich man did not heed the wise words, despite knowing them. If we are convicted against certain Christian teachings in our heart, how much good will miraculous "proofs" do? We know more than the law and the prophets - we know the prophetic law of love proclaimed by Jesus Christ. Are we living like we believe it?

Where in our lives are we like the rich man? Do we know how to treat the poor but still we ignore them in our excess? Do we know the third commandment, but the Sunday liturgy feels "optional" when other weekend commitments arise? Have we heard Christ's teachings on sexuality, but consider them out of reach for us? We have received a great many truths as Christian people. We are blessed by God with the sacraments and the abundance of His graces. We have what we need - in Him - to begin to live a virtuous life now.

26º Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Lc 16, 19-31

¿A quién servimos; a Dios o al Dinero? Se preguntaba al escuchar el Evangelio de la semana pasada. Ahora vienen los ejemplos en las lecturas de la liturgia de hoy, más claras y concretas para un compromiso al cambio de vida. La lectura del profeta Amós dice lo siguiente al pueblo de Israel: "Tendidos en sus camas de marfil o arrellanados sobre sus sofás, comen corderitos del rebaño." (Amós 6:4). Una buena respuesta viene de la 1o Carta de Timoteo: "Pero tú, hombre de Dios, huye de todo eso... vive con fe y amor, constancia y bondad." (1de Timoteo 6:11). ¿Qué se puede aprender de estas lecturas? Son tan claras como el agua que bebemos. La riqueza no es mala; lo malo es no compartirla con los necesitados. Y no se trata solo de dinero, sino del tiempo de calidad, sonrisas, abrazos y decir un te quiero te necesito a la esposa y a los hijos y viceversa la esposa a su esposo.

El Evangelio, con la parábola del rico y Lázaro, cae con toda la sabiduría y compasión de Dios hacia Lázaro; pobre humanamente hablando, pero rico al poseer a Dios en su vida. Frecuentemente, la persona se ciega a las necesidades de otros, a los que sufren dolor físico o espiritual. La Santa Madre Teresa de Calcuta decía sobre el sufrimiento lo siguiente: "Nuestros sufrimientos son caricias bondadosas de Dios, llamándonos para que nos volvamos a Él, y para hacernos reconocer que no somos nosotros los que controlamos nuestras vidas, sino que es Dios quien tiene el control, y podemos confiar plenamente en Él."

Revelation: The Kingdom Yet to Come is an 11-part study that explains how the kingdom established by Christ in his Church is intimately connected with the kingdom of heaven. Here you will discover what the mysterious figures and images of the book of Revelation mean. You will see how this last book of the Bible is more than an apocalyptic vision of the "end times." It is a revelation of God as our Divine Bridegroom and the Church as his spotless Bride, forever united in a heavenly, holy, and mystical marriage that we enter into every time we celebrate the Mass. This 11-week series begins 6:30pm, Wednesday, Oct. 9, in the Donahue Center Cafeteria. Call Deacon Vince for more information, 512-576-4788.

Public Square Rosary Rally: Join parishioners Saturday, Oct. 12, to celebrate the 102nd anniversary of Our Lady's sixth and final apparition to three children in Fatima, Portugal, which occurred October 13, 1917, when 70,000 people saw the sun dance through the sky. We begin with 12:05pm Mass at the Cathedral, then gather out in front to walk together to the sidewalk in front of the State Capitol building. We will pray for the salvation of souls, reparation for sin, peace in the world, and for an end to abortion. All are welcome to participate!

For our children's safety! The Donahue playscape is not available on Sundays due to safety and liability concerns. We welcome ideas and suggestions of how to keep our community and especially our children safe.

Por la seguridad de nuestros niños! a partir del 15 de septiembre, el área de juego de Donahue ya no estará disponible los domingos debido a problemas de seguridad y responsabilidad.

Everyday Stewardship

Called to Compassion

What does a homeless person need? That may seem like an odd question since being homeless would indicate they certainly need a home. Beyond that though, what does a homeless person need? Most would guess the person needs food, money, clothing, medical care, and toiletries. Many parishes put together drives for those items. Is that all the person needs? It is easy to get caught up in all the things that easily come to mind so that we miss a key thing needed by someone homeless as well as all human beings: to be seen.

How many of us pass by homeless people and pretend they are not even there. We don't have money in our pocket, we don't have food to give, and we don't have material items that they need, so we offer them nothing. We don't even offer ourselves.

Welcoming someone with a kind word is free. Amazingly, we act like it costs us more than anything else. It is easier to hand someone $5 than it is to engage in a 15-second exchange of words. We talk about being generous, but we need to remember that sometimes the greatest gift we have to give is simply ourselves. The Jesus in me meets the Jesus in you. One day, you or I may find ourselves in a tough spot, and we will be looking for compassion. Let's hope that all those who profess to know Jesus don't simply pass on by pretending not to see us. -Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

La Corresponsabilidad Diaria

Llamado a la Compasión

¿Qué es lo que necesita una persona sin hogar? Eso puede parecer una pregunta extraña ya que estar sin hogar indicaría que ciertamente necesitan un hogar. Más allá de eso, sin embargo, ¿qué es lo que necesita una persona sin hogar? La mayoría adivinaría que la persona necesita alimento, dinero, ropa, atención médica y artículos de higiene personal. Muchas parroquias hacen colectas para recaudar esos artículos. ¿Eso es todo lo que la persona necesita? Es fácil quedar atrapado en todas las cosas que vienen fácilmente a la mente para que perdamos una cosa clave que necesitan las personas sin hogar y todos los seres humanos: ser vistos.

¿Cuántos de nosotros pasamos por personas sin hogar y pretendemos que ni siquiera están allí? No tenemos dinero en nuestro bolsillo, no tenemos alimentos para dar y no tenemos artículos materiales que necesiten, por lo que no les ofrecemos nada. Ni siquiera nos ofrecemos a nosotros mismos.

Dar la bienvenida a alguien con una palabra amable es gratis. Sorprendentemente, actuamos como si nos costara más que cualquier otra cosa. Es más fácil entregarle a alguien $5 que involucrarse en un intercambio de palabras de 15 segundos. Hablamos de ser generosos, pero debemos recordar que a veces el mejor regalo que tenemos para dar es simplemente nosotros mismos. El Jesús en mí se encuentra con el Jesús en ti. Un día, tu o yo podemos encontrarnos en una situación difícil, y estaremos buscando compasión. Esperemos que todos aquellos que profesan conocer a Jesús no pasen de largo pretendiendo no vernos. -Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

Cedarbrake on the road to St. Albert the Great:

An Evening with Taizé Prayer will be held at Cedarbrake Catholic Retreat Center, Saturday, Oct. 19, 5:00pm. Begins with liturgy followed by dinner; after dinner the Taizé Prayer Service will begin. This form of prayer originated in Taizé, France and is marked by candlelight, silence and music. Cost of the evening is $25 per person.

Live the Liturgy

People often think that if they witness something miraculous, it would bring them to a greater faith and motivate them for greater involvement. Such is not necessarily true, as coming to a real and authentic faith still requires that we struggle with ourselves a bit and change our approach to living. Authentic faith is acquired when we see wisdom and life in the words of the prophets and in the teachings of Jesus Christ. All of these point us to a God who has a particular set of priorities for how life is meant to be lived. We have to avoid the trap of complacency that is rooted in preserving our own self-interests and living lives that pursue "righteousness, devotion, faith, love, patience, and gentleness." (1 Tm 6: 11) Complacency keeps us stuck in the status quo and prevents us from working toward respect for life, equality, and justice, and from advocating on behalf of the needs of the poor, the homeless, and the alien. Are you complacent? ©LPi

Vivir la Liturgia

Las personas, a menudo, piensan que si son testigos de algún milagro les traerá una mayor fe y los motivará para una mayor participación. Esto no es necesariamente cierto, ya que llegar a una fe real y auténtica aún requiere que luchemos un poco con nosotros mismos y cambiemos nuestro enfoque en la vida. La fe auténtica se adquiere cuando vemos sabiduría y vida en las palabras de los profetas y en las enseñanzas de Jesucristo. Todo esto nos apunta a un Dios que tiene un conjunto particular de prioridades sobre cómo se debe vivir la vida. Tenemos que evitar la trampa de la complacencia que está arraigada en preservar nuestros propios intereses personales y mejor vivir vidas que persiguen "rectitud, piedad, fe, amor, paciencia y mansedumbre". (1 Tm 6: 11) La complacencia nos mantiene atrapados en el status quo y nos impide trabajar por el respeto por la vida, la igualdad y la justicia, y por abogar en favor de las necesidades de los pobres, las personas sin hogar y los extranjeros. ¿Eres complaciente? ©LPi

World Day of Migrants and Refugees: Earlier this year, Pope Francis declared that the Church would celebrate World Day of Migrant and Refugees on the last Sunday of September (today, Sept. 29). The Church has been celebrating this day since 1914. It's an occasion to express concern for vulnerable people on the move, to pray they overcome challenges, and to increase awareness about the opportunities that migration offers. For 2019, Pope Francis has chosen the theme "It is not just about migrants." This is a time for us to inspect our blind-spots and make sure no one remains excluded from society, whether a longtime resident or someone newly-arrived.

Respect Life

"In a striking way, we see today a heightening of the tension between our nation's founding principles and political reality. We see this in diminishing respect for the inalienable right to life and in the elimination of legal protections for those who are most vulnerable. There can be no genuine justice in our society until the truths on which our nation was founded are more perfectly realized in our culture and law."

Prayer for Vocations God our Father, we thank you for calling men and women to serve in your Son's kingdom as priests, deacons, and consecrated persons. Send your Holy Spirit to help others to respond generously and courageously to your call. May our community of faith support vocations of sacrificial love in our youth and young adults. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.
