Gospel Meditation

The Presentation of the Lord

Lk 2:22-40

“Now, Master, you may let your servant go in peace, according to your word, for my eyes have seen your salvation, which you prepared in the sight of all the peoples: a light for revelation to the Gentiles, and glory for your people Israel.” Very often, having more light is not something we desire as it forces us to confront something we really do not want to see. There can be comfort found in darkness. It has an eerie sense of security to it. We do not have to challenge ourselves or be challenged and can simply exist in some fabricated state of self-fabricated blissfulness. Jesus came to bring light, and it is a light that is resisted by many and hated by some. It is a light that causes us to see things as they really are and not as we would want or need them to be.

It is no wonder then that Simeon boldly and honestly proclaims to Mary, “Behold, this child is destined for the fall and rise of many in Israel, and to be a sign that will be contradicted and you yourself a sword will pierce so that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed.” We have to take the Gospel message as it is and not just use those parts that are useful to us or more palatable. Taking Jesus at face value can and will lead to turmoil and dissention. Hearts will be pierced. Whether we like it, Jesus’ proclamation of what the world God created really ought to look like has real and absolute social implications.

It has a lot to say about how we treat our brothers and sisters: spiritually, personally, economically, and globally. It has everything to do with the poor, the immigrant, the scared, the unborn, the vulnerable, the sick, and the broken. The light opens us to a challenging, table-turning experience that may not be something we want to see but shows us where we need to be.

La Presentación de Jesús en el Templo

Lk 2, 22-40

Cuarenta días después de la Navidad celebramos la Fiesta de la Presentación del Señor que narra la siguiente descripción según el Evangelio de San Lucas: “Asimismo, cuando llegó el día en que, de acuerdo a la Ley de Moisés, debían cumplir el rito de la purificación, llevaron al niño a Jerusalén para presentarlo al Señor, tal como está escrito en la Ley del Señor: Todo varón primogénito será consagrado al Señor.

También ofrecieron el sacrificio que ordena la Ley del Señor: una pareja de tórtolas o dos pichones.” (Lucas 2:22-24). Presentarse al templo para cumplir con la ley era un requisito muy importante para la familia de Nazaret. Allí, ellos encontraron al anciano Simeón, un hombre justo y temeroso de Dios, y Ana, sabia profetisa. Ambos reconocieron en Jesús la esperanza y la luz para el pueblo de Israel.

En este día se bendicen las velas que significan que Jesús es la luz del mundo. “La liturgia de hoy nos muestra a Jesús que va al encuentro de su pueblo. Es la fiesta del encuentro: la novedad del Niño se encuentra con la tradición del templo; la promesa halla su cumplimiento; María y José, jóvenes, encuentran a Simeón y Ana, ancianos. Todo se encuentra, en definitiva, cuando llega Jesús. ¿Qué nos enseña esto? En primer lugar, que también nosotros estamos llamados a recibir a Jesús que viene a nuestro encuentro. Encontrarlo: al Dios de la vida hay que encontrarlo cada día de nuestra existencia; no de vez en cuando, sino todos los días. Seguir a Jesús no es una decisión que se toma de una vez por todas, es una elección cotidiana.” (Papa Francisco) ¿Dónde se encuentra Jesús ahora?

Fittingly, Austin Baroque Orchestra is bringing this beautiful and rare music to our Cathedral, which housed a convent in the early 20th century. KMFA announcer Sara Schneider will also read excerpts of the sisters' letters and journals, and the orchestra will perform on instruments of the period. Jeffrey says, "It has been a dream of mine for over 20 years to perform this beautiful music with world class musicians-- a 'bucket list' item I'm at last realizing with the Artisan String Quartet and pianist Martha Ahern. I hope to see many of my Cathedral family there to hear this beautiful music, by one of our favorite composers of sacred music." Both performances are taking place at 7:30pm, at First Presbyterian Church (8001 Mesa Dr.), and there's lots of free parking, too! Information and tickets are available at www.AustinChamberEnsemble.org

Everyday Stewardship

Healing Our Blindness

The value of stewardship living is difficult to see unless we are experiencing that way of life for ourselves. You can read 100 Everyday Stewardship reflections and go to church every Sunday, but unless you are actively growing in faith and trying to live a life of generous stewardship, you cannot see the power of such a lifestyle. Like most things, we need direct, purposeful experiences to really understand.

I worked in a stewardship parish for over 20 years, but it was only after I started treating all I have as God's, and began to actively offer all I am to Him for His glory, that I really got the message. That doesn't mean I am a perfect steward. Far from it! However, the stress and anxiety that comes with life has greatly diminished because all is in God's hands. I choose to act more generously than before, which provides me with a sense of fulfillment and joy. How I act towards my family, friends, and even people I meet daily has changed. Now I am more mindful of their presence, and I seek to give them a part of me that just might change their day and bring them a little closer to Christ. I am transforming into a disciple who seeks to use all I have been given to transform all that is around me.

It would be a shame to be blind to the important things for an entire life. Today, consider taking a path of life-changing stewardship. Give it all to God. In the midst of all you have been given, you just might find God in a profound way. You may even find the real person God created you to be.

Meet the Musicians

Marcia Kaylakie—Soprano

Music has always been a very special form of worship for me. This is my 15th years as a Schola member. I have been singing in church choirs since I was 8 years old! When I sing, I can lift my soul to God in the Trinity. Asking about a favorite piece of music is like asking me which child is my favorite, but I love medieval music in a special way. Somehow it speaks to me. When we as a Schola are singing with one voice, it is a transcendent moment. Being part of the worship at the Cathedral is such a joyous thing!

La Corresponsabilidad Diaria

Sanando Nuestra Ceguera

El valor de la vida de corresponsabilidad es difícil de ver, a menos que estemos experimentando esa forma de vida por nosotros mismos. Puedes leer 100 reflexiones de corresponsabilidad diaria e ir a la iglesia todos los domingos, pero a menos que estés creciendo activamente en la fe y tratando de vivir una vida de corresponsabilidad generosa, no puedes ver el poder de ese estilo de vida. Como la mayoría de las cosas, necesitamos experiencias directas y con propósito para comprender realmente.

Yo trabajé en una parroquia de corresponsabilidad durante más de 20 años, pero fue solo después de que comencé a tratar todo lo que tengo como perteneciente a Dios, y comencé a ofrecerle activamente todo lo que soy a Él para Su gloria, que realmente recibí el mensaje. Eso no significa que soy un corresponsable perfecto. ¡Lejos de eso! Sin embargo, el estrés y la ansiedad que viene con la vida ha disminuido enormemente porque todo está en las manos de Dios. Elijo actuar más generosamente que antes, lo que me proporciona una sensación de satisfacción y alegría. La forma en que actúo con mi familia, amigos e incluso con las personas que conozco a diario ha cambiado. Ahora soy más consciente de su presencia y busco darles una parte de mí que podría cambiar su día y acercarlos un poco más a Cristo. Me estoy transformando en un discípulo que busca usar todo lo que se me ha dado para transformar todo lo que me rodea.

Sería una pena estar ciego a las cosas importantes por toda una vida. Hoy, considera tomar un camino de corresponsabilidad que cambie tu vida. Dáselo todo a Dios. En medio de todo lo que se te ha dado, puedes encontrar a Dios de una manera profunda. Incluso, puedes encontrar la verdadera persona que Dios te creó para ser.

World Day for Consecrated Life is celebrated in the Church today, Feb. 2. Please pray for all those who have made commitments in the consecrated life, and be sure to thank them on their special day. May they continue to be inspired by Jesus Christ and respond generously to God's gift of their vocation.

Prayer for Consecrated Persons.

God our Father, we thank you for calling men and women to serve in your Son's Kingdom as sisters, brothers, religious priests, consecrated virgins, and hermits, as well as members of Secular Institutes. Renew their knowledge and love of you, and send your Holy Spirit to help them respond generously and courageously to your will. We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.
