GOSPEL MEDITATION

Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Mt 10:37-42

When we were baptized, we were baptized into Christ's death. Take a moment to ponder these profound words. We were baptized into death. In every sense of the word, we are asked to die. This is not just about our final death but about daily deaths due to inconvenience, discomfort, pain, loss, or others' needs. This is an incredible epiphany given the way we very often approach our lives. We do everything to avoid death, let alone encounter it! Many avoid pain, discomfort, inconvenience, uneasiness, change, interference, and suffering of any kind. We put a lot of energy into finding the easiest and least inconvenient way through many things. Even holding the door open for a stranger or saying hello to someone in the store can be major undertakings.

We are called to die. One of the biggest wake-up calls we can have is realizing that life is not about us! There are millions of other people sharing life on this planet with whom I have a relationship. Does my life celebrate those relationships? The most distracting question we can ask is, "What do I want to do?" The more focused, faith-filled question is, "What do I need to do?" What I need to do may not be what I want to do. However, asking this question more frequently will teach us how to more purposefully and intentionally live so we can be a life giving vessel for others. When we learn to live more sacrificially, to put the needs of others before our own, and to not always seek our own self-interest, we become aware of what baptism into Christ's death is really all about. These are the roots of virtue and the seedbed for justice, tolerance, solidarity, love, and peace.

Learning how to accept all the "small deaths" and sacrifices life calls us to teaches us how to approach our final death. All deaths ask us to empty ourselves into something or someone else. Whether we empty ourselves into the heart and soul of another human being or empty ourselves into God at the moment of our final death, new life is always received and nurtured. A heart that exclusively seeks its own interest is a heart that is closed to love. A heart that pours itself out to others and is content with being emptied is a heart that has been touched by and open to mercy. It is a heart that overflows with joy. ©LPi

XIII Domingo Ordinario

Mt 10, 37-42

Por experiencia sabemos que dar un regalo siempre implica alguien que lo recibe. Dar y recibir está relacionado, están a la par, al dar se extienden los brazos y al recibir el regalo es lo mismo, implica una acción de movimiento. Cuando Jesús es el centro de nuestra vida, el dar y recibir no se queda ahí, tiene por compromiso principalmente la acción. Al recibir, por ejemplo, la gracia de Dios no es para uno mismo, hay que darla a los que nos rodean. En este Evangelio existe una regla a seguir para comprender el juego de palabras. Hay palabras claves en el mensaje para obtener la respuesta que nos ayude a perseverar en la vida cristiana. Amar, cargar, vivir, recibir, recompensa, dar, discípulo, agua fresca, por mencionar algunas.

Sin embargo, ¿Qué es lo que te pide Jesús que hagas? ¿Al cumplirlo cuál es la promesa de Jesús? Cargar con su cruz y seguirlo para ser dignos de él. Recibir a Jesús como centro de nuestra vida implica de inmediato recibir a los que nos rodean. Es decir, en otras palabras, conversión radical, dar agua de vida que lleve a vivir mejor. El Papa Francisco nos da una pauta para reflexionar mejor en las lecturas de este domingo. "Es tanto el amor de Dios, es tan feo el pecado, que Él nos salva así, con esta identidad en la Cruz. No se puede entender a Jesucristo Redentor sin la Cruz. ¡No se puede entender! Podemos llegar a pensar que es un gran profeta, hace cosas buenas, es un santo, pero el Cristo Redentor sin la cruz no se puede entender". (Radio Vaticano | Septiembre 26, 2014). ©LPi

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Saint Mary's bids farewell. Our Associate Pastor Fr. Everardo Cazares will begin his new assignment as Administrator at St. Mary, Immaculate Conception- Brenham, St. Ann-Somerville, and Blessed Virgin Mary Mission-Old Washington-on-the-Brazos, effective July 6. We thank him for his dedicated service to our parish and assure him of our prayers.

Santa Maria se despidе. Nuestro querido Pastor Asociado, el Padre Everardo Cazares comenzara su nueva asignación como administrador en St. Mary, Immaculate Conception-Brenham, St. Ann-Somerville la Santísima Virgen Maria Misión-Old Washington-on-the-Brazos, en vigencia a partir del 6 julio. Le agradecemos su dedicado servicio a nuestra parroquia y le aseguramos nuestras oraciones.

Message from our Rector:

I want to update you on the following priest assignments that our Bishop has made for the Cathedral:

Our new parochial vicar will be (currently Deacon) Will Rooney, who will be ordained a priest on June 27.

They will begin their new assignments on Monday, July 6.

Fr. Adrian Chishimba, who has been in residence here since November, went to visit his family in Zambia in February and has been unable to find a return flight due to the pandemic travel restrictions. He will hopefully be able to return soon, and he has been assigned as a parochial vicar at St. Vincent de Paul parish in NW Austin.

Fr. David Trahan, who served as a parochial vicar at the Cathedral in his first assignment as a priest in 2012, will be returning as a parochial vicar in a part-time capacity. He has had some health issues in the last few years that have limited his ministry so he will be exercising his ministry according to a prudent discernment of his capacity to do so. Fr. David will be starting here in mid-August.

Please pray for these priests as they prepare for their new assignments and pray for our community during this time of transition.

Fr. Daniel

CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Calling Priests Father

Q: Why do Catholics call priests Father?

A: One of the common objections evangelical Christians have to Catholics is our practice of calling priests by the title Father. They will often cite a passage in Matthew's Gospel in which Jesus tells his followers: "Call no one on earth your father; you have but one Father in heaven" (23:19). It seems pretty straightforward, but when we put this verse in context, we see that Jesus is speaking out against religious leaders who had forgotten what their proper role was and who were bad examples through their own hypocrisy and elitist attitudes.

In other Gospels, we find Jesus himself using the title father for different characters, such as in the Parable of Lazarus and the Rich Man (Luke 16:19-31) and the Parable of the Prodigal Son (Luke 15:11-32). If we put the verse from Matthew into the full scope of Jesus' teachings, he isn't saying that we can't use words like "father," "rabbi," or "master." Rather, he is telling us that we should be mindful of the full meaning of those titles and not to misuse them.

To call a priest "Father" is more than a sign of respect for the office of the priesthood. It goes all the way back to the way St. Paul understood his own work as a missionary and evangelizer. Paul wrote, "I am writing you in this way not to shame you but to admonish you as my beloved children ... It was I who begot you in Christ Jesus through my preaching of the Gospel. I beg you, then, be imitators of me. This is why I have sent you Timothy, my beloved and faithful son in the Lord" (1 Corinthians 4:14-17) we have God alone as our heavenly Father, but there are also those here with us who nurture and nourish our faith through their teaching and care. This is why the title of Father has been applied to the church's pastors in different ways since the earliest days of the Church, including monks and nuns using the title "abbot" and "abbess" (from abba) for their spiritual leaders and Christians around the world recognizing the "Holy Father" or "pope" (from papa) as the head of the family that is the Church. The title Father is a reminder that priests have a special responsibility to care for, protect, feed, listen to, and nourish those who have been entrusted to them, all after the example of our Father in heaven who never ceases to give us what we truly need. ©LPi

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

God Is Love

I was recently at a Catholic conference and had a conversation with someone living in the thick of Hollywood culture. He was Catholic and spoke of how hard it was to live out his faith amid tremendous temptation and negativity toward religion. He spoke about how going to daily Mass helped to keep him centered and stay strong in his faith. He was a great witness to living out one's faith in the face of disbelief.

One thing that he told me stood out above all the rest. He spoke of his engagement to his fiancé and how important it was to him that God was a major part of their relationship and their lives as individuals as well. He told me he said something to her like, "If you don't love Jesus more than you love me, this is never going to work." What an amazing and truly moving witness!

Songs and books are written about the intense longing one human being can have for another. We can describe another as meaning everything to us. We speak of wanting to offer our complete selves to our beloved. However, true love is about more than wanting to be with that person. It is about wanting that person to know a love even greater than theirs: the love of God. No love can last without God. My Hollywood friend knew this to be the case. He showed his true love for his wife-to-be by sharing more than himself — he shared the very One who created love. - Tracy Earl Welliver ©LPi

LA CORRESPONSABILIDAD DIARIA

Dios es Amor

Hace poco estuve en una conferencia católica y tuve una conversación con alguien que vivía en la cultura de Hollywood. Él era católico y habló de lo difícil que era vivir su fe en medio de una tremenda tentación y negatividad hacia la religión. Habló sobre cómo ir a la misa diaria le ayudaba a mantenerse centrado y mantenerse fuerte en su fe. Era un gran ejemplo de como vivir la fe de uno frente a la incredulidad.

Una cosa que él me dijo se destacó por encima del resto. Habló de su compromiso con su prometida y de lo importante que era para él que Dios fuera una parte primordial de su relación y sus vidas como individuos también. Me comentó que le dijo algo como: "Si no amas a Jesús más de lo que me amas a mí, esto nunca va a funcionar." ¡Qué testimonio tan asombroso y verdaderamente conmovedor!

Se escriben canciones y libros sobre el intenso anhelo que un ser humano puede tener por otro. Podemos describir al otro como que significa todo para nosotros. Hablamos de querer ofrecer nuestro ser completo a nuestro ser amado. Sin embargo, el verdadero amor es más que querer estar con esa persona. Se trata de querer que esa persona conozca un amor aún mayor que el de ellos: el amor de Dios. Ningún amor puede durar sin Dios. Mi amigo de Hollywood sabía que este era el caso. Mostró su verdadero amor por su futura esposa al compartir más que a sí mismo: compartió al que creó el amor. - Tracy Earl Welliver ©LPi

INDEPENDENCE DAY PRAYER

"We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness."

Let us pray...

O God, you willed that the Jewish people be free from slavery by their Egyptian captors.
You will that all people should be free to worship you without fear and to celebrate their religious beliefs freely, even if they have not yet found you.
Grant that those of us who live in this great nation will thank you daily for our freedom, and work for the freedom of others around the world that do not yet have the freedom to practice their faith openly and proudly.
We seek your wisdom where hatred abounds, and ask for humility to offer our good works to others who live in fear and bondage.
We ask all this through Christ our Lord, who frees us from sin and death through the wood of the cross.

Amen.

Save the date: 12th annual Men's Mass
Bishop Joe Vásquez will celebrate the 12th annual Men's Mass July 18 at 9:30 a.m. at St. Albert the Great Parish in Austin. Join us via live stream or in person. The Mass is hosted by the Central Texas Fellowship of Catholic Men. For more information, visit www.centexcatholic.com.

RESPECT LIFE

“We often assume parenthood happens easily after ‘I do,’ but for many married couples, it does not. For some, the joy of conception never happens. Others suffer repeated miscarriages. Still others experience secondary infertility: after giving birth to one or more children, they are unable to have another... If you experience difficulty bringing a child into your family, know that you are not alone. God is with you, and his Church desires to walk with you.”

USCCB Secretariat of Pro-Life Activities “Seven Considerations While Navigating Infertility”

“A menudo asumimos que la paternidad o la maternidad suceden fácilmente, pero para muchas parejas casadas no es así. En algunas, la alegría de la concepción nunca llega. Otras sufren repetidos abortos espontáneos. Otras más sobrellevan la infertilidad secundaria: tras dar a luz a uno o más hijos, no pueden tener otro... Si ustedes atraviesan dificultades para traer un hijo a su familia, sepan que no están solos. Dios está con ustedes, y su Iglesia desea caminar con ustedes.”

“The Story of the Angry Young Man and the Buddha”

It is said that one day the Buddha was walking through a village. A very angry and rude young man came up and began insulting him, saying all kind of rude words and abusive words.

The Buddha was not upset by these insults. Instead, he asked the young man, “Tell me, if you buy a gift for someone, and that person does not take it, to whom does the gift belong?”

The young man was surprised to be asked such a strange question and answered, “It would belong to me, because I bought the gift.”

The Buddha smiled and said, “That is correct. And it is exactly the same with your anger. If you become angry with me and I do not get insulted, then the anger falls back on you. You are then the only one who becomes unhappy, not me. All you have done is hurt yourself.”
