GOSPEL MEDITATION

There is something about being first. Whether it be first in line, first to be picked for the team, or the first one to finish their work, great satisfaction is achieved. Our egos love being first. It somehow sets us apart from everyone else, gives us a sense of pride and positions us to feel better than others. When we are first, we can glory in our efforts, skills, and achievements. Isn't that what really matters? After all, we are taught from a very young age to be proficient, stay on top, be the best at what we do, and win the praise and esteem of others. This is the stuff that makes us successful and provides us with a comfortable, satisfying life.

Jesus wants none of it. All of the details we anguish over mean little to the kingdom of God. You want to be first? Then, be a servant and welcome a child. All of this is the opposite of our often vehement pursuits. If we are serious about following Jesus and living the Gospel, then we must put the needs of others before our own. If we continue to listen only to the noise of the world, we are going to continue to believe the illusions we inherit. Those illusions come in many forms, but all have things in common: me before you, being on top and not the bottom, us versus them, personal security over universal harmony and peace. When are we going to learn that always striving to be the best and first is an empty pursuit in our struggle for happiness? While satisfying our ego with this momentary boost of esteem may feel good for a moment, is it what we really desire?

If we can break from the world's noise and create a space of sacred silence in our lives, we can begin to listen and see that we are being called in another direction. What we really desire is not the bolstering of our egos but the innocence we lost somewhere along the way. When we can be playful, joyful, and even somewhat carefree, life is good. We want our relationships to work, a place to call home, and to live peaceful lives with our sisters and brothers. Only a servant can do this. The servant's prayer seeks to detach from self-concern in order to be used by God. Rather than worrying about being first and coming out on top, we can be inspired, guided, empowered, and led to do good works. Stop worrying about being first and put greater energy into feeling joy. ©LPi

Vivimos en una sociedad llena de celos, envidia, rivalidades y un ego de superioridad y control sobre los demás. Con poquito poder que se le otorgue a la persona, le basta para mandar y ejercer poder sobre el otro, y lo triste es que muchas veces lo vemos como algo habitual y normal. Hoy, la Palabra de Dios nos habla de lo contrario. Las lecturas nos hablan de la sabiduría de Dios y de cómo aplicarla aquí en la tierra. Por sus frutos los conocerán, es decir por hacer el bien, por ser comprensivos, amantes de la paz, dóciles, sinceros y llenos de misericordia. Pero, ¿existe la misericordia?

El Evangelio nos narra, que Jesús instruía a sus discípulos de cómo iba ser su pasión, y ellos no entendían sus palabras. Ellos, en cambio, estaban enfrascados en una conversación contraria a los deseos de Jesús: ¿Quién de ellos era el más importante? La raíz del problema está en el corazón humano, pensamos y actuamos al contrario de lo que Dios nos pide. Casi siempre se impone la voluntad sobre los demás y esto puede ser sutilmente o de forma agresiva. Jesús tiene la respuesta correcta a toda inquietud mundana. Basta con escuchar su Palabra: "Si alguno quiere ser el primero, que se haga el último y el servidor de todos" (Marcos 9:35). Y agrega algo más para que quede claro: "El que recibe a un niño como este en mi nombre, me recibe a mí; y el que me recibe, no me recibe a mí, sino al que me ha enviado" (Marcos 9:37). Ojalá, que la participación en la Eucaristía, ya sea personalmente o por medio del internet, tenga como fin una sola cosa: la conversión del corazón. ©LPi

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA), is the process of welcoming adults into the Catholic faith. It takes place gradually within the community of the faithful, the Church. God's own people provide an example to help those seeking the sacraments. RCIA offers an opportunity for those seeking to become Catholic to gather in a small group and learn more about the faith. Almost every parish in the world has an RCIA process. At Saint Mary Cathedral, RCIA meets every Wednesday, 6:00-8:00pm, until June. Focusing on the tenets of Christianity, then on the teachings and experience of the Church, and with the support of their mentors in the faith, individuals prepare to celebrate the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist during the Easter season. A separate age-appropriate program is available for children and youth. To find out more, call the parish office or sign up at: <https://smcaustin.flocknote.com/rcia>

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

The View from the Back of the Line

Have you known that person? The one who leaves every person they encounter feeling a little more blessed for having met them? They’re the friend you can count on when nothing is going well. They’re the one who’s always “doing” for others. They’re never gossiping or sniping or complaining.

We wonder how they do it, how they have it in them. We’re a little envious, even if we don’t let ourselves acknowledge it.

That, folks, is what the view is like from the front of the line, gazing at those suckers in the way back and wondering why they’re smiling so much.

We’ve all been at the front of a line and felt no shame about it. We show up early, we put in the time and the legwork, and we “earn” whatever it is we came for — sports tickets, the latest Apple product, whatever. That’s how it works here on Earth, where the fastest win the race, the fittest survive and the first shall be first, always.

It’s exactly why stewardship is such a tall order. Stewardship calls us to play by the rules of another kingdom — one where the richest have the least amount in their bank accounts and the happiest don’t seem to have anything to show for it, at least materially.

If you have a person in your life who always seems happy “doing” for others, it’s because by a boatload of God’s grace, they play by the rules of the other place.

Watch and take notes — and don’t be afraid to join them at the back of the line.

LA CORRESPONSABILIDAD DIARIA

La vista desde el final de la fila.

¿Conoces a esa persona? ¿El que deja a cada persona que encuentra sintiéndose un poco más bendecida por haberla conocido? Son el amigo con el que puedes contar cuando nada va bien. Ellos son los que siempre están "haciendo" por los demás. Nunca están chismorreando, criticando o quejándose.

Nos preguntamos cómo lo hacen, cómo lo llevan en ellos. Sentimos un poco de envidia, incluso si no nos permitimos reconocerlo.

Así es, amigos, la vista desde el frente de la fila, mirando a esos tontos en el camino de regreso y preguntándose por qué están sonriendo tanto.

Todos hemos estado al frente de una fila y no sentimos vergüenza por ello. Llegamos temprano, dedicamos el tiempo y el esfuerzo, y "ganamos" lo que sea que buscamos: boletos deportivos, el último producto de Apple, lo que sea. Así es como funciona aquí en la Tierra, donde el más rápido gana la carrera, el más apto sobrevive y el primero siempre será el primero.

Es exactamente por eso que la corresponsabilidad es una tarea tan difícil. La corresponsabilidad nos llama a jugar según las reglas de otro reino, uno donde los más ricos tienen la menor cantidad en sus cuentas bancarias y los más felices no parecen tener nada que mostrar, al menos materialmente.

Si tienes una persona en tu vida que siempre parece feliz "haciendo" por los demás, es porque, gracias a la gracia de Dios, se rige por las reglas del otro lugar.

Mira y toma notas, y no tengas miedo de unirte a ellos al final de la fila.

God our Father, we thank you for calling men and women to serve in your Son's kingdom as priests, deacons, and consecrated persons. Send your Holy Spirit to help others to respond generously and courageously to your call. May our community of faith support vocations of sacrificial love in our youth and young adults. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.
