GOSPEL MEDITATION

26th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Mk 9:38-43, 45, 47-48

What are the little ones? They are the poor, the marginalized, the women and men at the well, the Zacchaeus' looking for Jesus from a tree, those mired in sin, the blind who want to see, and the lame who want to walk. They are the lepers and the different ones who have been told that they are unclean, and the ones who suffer from abuse and grave injustices and oppression. They are children who want nothing more than to be loved and enjoy celebrating their innocence. These are all the little ones and they are all vulnerable. Life already brings them burdens, we don't need to add to them.

St. Oscar Romero said, "When the church hears the cry of the oppressed, it cannot but denounce the social structures that give rise to and perpetuate the misery from which the cry arises." Why are so many people still so gravely hurting? We have the resources and the means to make things better. We choose not to. There are still those things called greed, pride, lust, apathy, jealousy, gluttony, and anger that prevent us from seeing each other and people to be loved and not objects to be used. Is this how God intended things to be?

God loves what is good and upright. It doesn't matter who did it or where it came from. In God's eyes, the end result is always faith, hope, and love. Those will always unite a person with God. We fill our lives with many things that are not good either for ourselves or for others. All of us have to work to discover what it is, exactly, that leads to the world's brokenness. There are people, systems, and ideologies in place that foster oppression and injustice rather than equity and fairness. Sadly, our complacency can be the greatest evil. Turning a blind eye, ignoring the truth, and believing that we are helpless to fix so great a problem, does little to move us closer to the kingdom of God. As members of the Body of Christ, we cannot condone anything that keeps people in misery.

As it is said, charity begins at home. Perhaps a good place to start is with our own households and making sure their foundations are properly laid.

26° Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Hoy encontramos en la Liturgia detalles específicos de la paciencia y pedagogía de Dios con su pueblo. La realidad que pasaba el pueblo en la vida del desierto, es algo muy parecido a la existencia humana de la sociedad de hoy. ¿Quién profetiza? ¿Quién tiene la autoridad para hablar del Señor? ¿Celo apostólico, o envidia! Josué pide a Moisés que Eldad y Medad no fueran catequistas, o evangelizadores por decirlo así. Pero el Espíritu de Dios estaba en ellos --- como lo está ahora en todo bautizado. La respuesta de Moisés fue la siguiente: "Ojalá que todo el pueblo de Yavé fuera profeta, que Yavé les diera a todos su espíritu" (Números 11:29).

En una de sus tantas catequesis, el Papa Francisco lo explica así: "De buena fe, con celo, se quisiera proteger la autenticidad de una cierta experiencia, tutelando al fundador o al líder de falsos imitadores. Pero al mismo tiempo está como el temor de la competencia, que alguno pueda robar nuevos seguidores, y entonces no se logra apreciar el bien que los otros hacen; no va bien porque no es de los nuestros, se dice (9/30/2018). Por el otro lado, la respuesta de Jesús a Juan es similar a la de Josué y del Papa: "No se lo prohíban, ya que nadie puede hacer un milagro en mi nombre y luego hablar mal de mí. El que no está contra nosotros está con nosotros" (Marcos 9:39-40). Actuar, hacer todo en nombre de Jesús, implica solo una cosa: fidelidad a su mensaje de amor, paz y justicia. Todo lo que se ha hecho, en este tiempo de pandemia, por amor a los demás es ser generosos al estilo de Jesús.

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA), is the process of welcoming adults into the Catholic faith. It takes place gradually within the community of the faithful, the Church. God's own people provide an example to help those seeking the sacraments. RCIA offers an opportunity for those seeking to become Catholic to gather in a small group and learn more about the faith. Almost every parish in the world has an RCIA process. At our parish, RCIA meets every Wednesday, 6:00-8:00pm, until June. Focusing on the tenets of Christianity, then on the teachings and experience of the Church, and with the support of their mentors in the faith, individuals prepare to celebrate the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist during the Easter season.

A separate age-appropriate program is available for children and youth. To find out more, call the parish office or sign up at: <https://smcaustin.flocknote.com/rcia>

All are welcome to join our Catechism class where we will go over the Catechism of the Council of Trent, Thomas Aquinas' Summa Theologica, and other great works of Catholic doctrine. This will be a setting to grow intellectually, cultivate the interior life and meet other Catholics striving for the Faith. Catechism class will be held here at our parish every Sunday 5:30-6:45pm in the library.

FAMILIES

Religious Education Classes started September 12th – You can still register and get information about our Program by calling the church office, 512-476-6182.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Red Mass is Sept. 30 at the Cathedral.

The 30th annual diocesan Red Mass will be celebrated Thursday, Sept. 30, at 6:00pm, hosted by our parish. Father Doug Jeffers, associate pastor of St. John Neumann Parish in Austin, will be the homilist. Red Mass is a Mass of the Holy Spirit celebrated annually at the opening of the judicial year. This 13th century European custom marked the opening of the parliament and received its name from the red color of the vestments worn by the celebrant and the scarlet robes worn by the Lord High Justices. Today, many cities around the U.S. hold the Red Mass annually in celebration of the legal profession.

FIRST FRIDAY, OCTOBER 1

- 6:30am Mass
- 8:30am-9:15am Confession
- 9:30am Mass (Traditional Latin)
- 10:30am-Noon Eucharistic Adoration
- 11:00am-12:00pm Confession

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Breaking the Stewardship Mold

Have you noticed how we always tend to pigeonhole one another — and ourselves? “I could never serve on the Parish Council. That’s for Rick and Ellen and that whole group of people who have done it for years.” “Greg takes care of faith formation in the parish — he always has. He doesn’t need my help.” “I can’t afford to give the big bucks like those families who sit up front can. My offering wouldn’t matter even if I did increase it.”

Thinking like this is a good indication that we aren’t in conversation with God about what His will is for our lives. If we have already decided what we are and are not meant to do, we aren’t likely to pray over it, to discern it.

We have to be open to the spirit of the Lord wherever it leads us, regardless of what we or others have come to expect from us. We human beings come to believe that we are such good judges of what others can offer — or what we ourselves can offer. But God has plans for us to which we aren’t privy. God calls everyone to serve Him in the way that pleases Him best, and only He can decide what that is. Everyday Stewardship demands a continual accounting of who we can be, what we can offer — even if it’s outside our comfort zone, even if it’s something that never occurred to us before.

There’s only one Person who can tell us what God wants from us. Do we even think to ask Him?

ORACIÓN POR LAS VOCACIONES

Dios, nuestro Padre, te damos gracias por llamar a hombres y mujeres para servir en el Reino del Hijo como sacerdotes, diáconos y personas consagradas. Envía tu Espíritu Santo para ayudar a otros a responder con generosidad y valentía a su llamada. Nuestra comunidad de fe puede apoyar las vocaciones de amor sacrificial en nuestros jóvenes y adultos. Por medio de nuestro Señor Jesucristo, que vive y reina contigo en la unidad del Espíritu Santo, un solo Dios, por los siglos de los siglos. Amén.

LA CORRESPONSABILIDAD DIARIA

Rompiendo el molde de la corresponsabilidad

¿Has notado como siempre tendemos a encasillarnos a nosotros mismos y a otros? "Nunca podría servir en el Consejo Parroquial. Eso es para Rick y Ellen y todo ese grupo de personas que lo han hecho durante años." "Greg se ocupa de formación de fe en la parroquia, siempre lo ha hecho. No necesita mi ayuda." "No puedo darme el lujo de dar tanto dinero como pueden hacerlo las familias que se sientan al frente. Mi oferta no importaría incluso si la aumentara."

Pensar así es una buena indicación de que no estamos conversando con Dios sobre cuál es Su voluntad para nuestras vidas. Si ya hemos decidido lo que debemos y lo que no debemos hacer, no es probable que oremos por ello, para discernirlo.

Tenemos que estar abiertos al Espíritu del Señor dondequiera que nos lleve, independientemente de lo que nosotros u otros hayamos llegado a esperar de nosotros. Los seres humanos llegamos a creer que somos buenos jueces de lo que otros pueden ofrecer, o de lo que nosotros mismos podemos ofrecer. Pero Dios tiene planes para nosotros de los que no estamos al tanto. Dios llama a todos a servirle de la manera que más le agrade, y solo Él puede decidir qué es eso. La corresponsabilidad diaria exige una contabilidad continua de quiénes podemos ser, qué podemos ofrecer, incluso si está fuera de nuestra zona de confort, incluso si es algo que nunca se nos había ocurrido.

Solo hay una Persona que puede decirnos lo que Dios quiere de nosotros. ¿Pensamos siquiera en preguntarle?
