30TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus said to him in reply, "What do you want me to do for you?" The blind man replied to him, "Master, I want to see." Jesus told him, "Go your way; your faith has saved you." Immediately he received his sight and followed him on the way. - Mk 10:51-52

The Synod on Synodality is a two-year process of listening and dialogue that began with a solemn opening in Rome on October 9 and 10, 2021 with each individual diocese and church celebrating the following weeks of October. The synodal process will conclude in 2023.

Pope Francis invites the entire Church to reflect on a theme that is decisive for its life and mission: "It is precisely this path of synodality which God expects of the Church of the third millennium." This journey, which follows in the wake of the Church's "renewal" proposed by the Second Vatican Council, is both a gift and a task: by journeying together and reflecting together on the journey that has been made, the Church will be able to learn through Her experience which processes can help Her to live communion, to achieve participation, to open Herself to mission.

Learn more about the synodal process by visiting the Vatican Synod website (www.synod.va).

Bishop Joe Vásquez invites the faithful to launch the Synod:
Calling all the faithful to be, "companions and co-workers in the vineyard" as we journey together as one. "We join the Holy Father, Pope Francis, in launching the diocesan phase of the XVI Ordinary Synod of Bishops. The synod was approved by Pope Francis with a goal to more actively engage the whole Church through a process of "listening and discernment." The key concept of this "listening" or "synodal" process is found in the Greek origin of the word "synod", comprising "syn" (with or together with) and "odos" (path or way), meaning "journeying together along the same path."

The Mass to launch the diocesan phase—Synod of Bishops was celebrated Thursday, Oct. 21, 2021, at Saint Mary Cathedral.

Faith Formation

ADULTS

Do you have big questions about the intersection of faith and life? Interested in becoming Catholic, in learning more about the Catholic Faith? Have you wondered who Jesus is, or what Catholics believe? Perhaps God has been tugging on your heart? Do you want to receive the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist? Join us for Catholic 101 Sundays at 10:45 -11:45am, in the Library where we read God's Word and explore your questions. For more information, call the office or sign up at https://smcaustin.flocknote.com/information

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA), is the process of welcoming adults into the Catholic faith. It takes place gradually within the community of the faithful, the Church. God's own people provide an example to help those seeking the sacraments. RCIA offers an opportunity for those seeking to become Catholic to gather in a small group and learn more about the faith. Almost every parish in the world has an RCIA process. At our parish, RCIA meets every Wednesday, 6:00-8:00pm, until June. Focusing on the tenets of Christianity, then on the teachings and experience of the Church, and with the support of their mentors in the faith, individuals prepare to celebrate the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist during the Easter season. Aseparate age-appropriate program is available for children and youth. To find out more, call the parish office or signup at: https://smcaustin.flocknote.com/rcia

All are welcome to join our Catechism class where we will go over the Catechism of the Council of Trent, Thomas Aquinas' Summa Theologica, and other great works of Catholic doctrine. This will be a setting to grow intellectually, cultivate the interior life and meet other Catholics striving for the Faith. Catechism class will be held here at our parish every Sunday 5:30-6:45pm in the library.

Catholic Scripture Study: Thursdays, 7:00-9:00pm, in the Library. Our focus is Isaiah, chapters 40-56. Also available via Zoom teleconference. Email LJSmith78704@yahoo.com .

Cathedral Book Study: Four Witnesses-The Early Church in Her Own Words by Rod Bennett. We meet Mondays, 6:30 -8:00pm, via free zoom teleconferencing. For more information contact L.J. Smith at LJSmith78704@yahoo.com

Everyday Stewardship

Giving as God does
Ask yourself this question — what would you pray for if you really believed God could and would do anything for you? In my experience, we all have something. We all have that miracle we're afraid to request, afraid we will be disappointed.

Do we doubt God's readiness to give because we ourselves have such an imperfect understanding of charity and love? Maybe if we had better faith in God we would be more ready to give of ourselves — and maybe if we were more ready to give of ourselves, we would understand more clearly the ways of God.

Because we're not really afraid that God can't do something. We know He can do anything. What we're afraid of is that He will do what He always does: give us what we need, not what we want.

Have you ever had a friend in need and you just wanted to give them something — a meal, a phone call, a text? Not because you knew it would help, but simply because you wanted to reach out. And have they ever said to you: It wasn't so much what you gave, but the fact that you did. You gave them what they needed even if it wasn't what they specifically asked for.

When we give in this manner, we are giving as God does. Sometimes we are afraid to ask because we don't want to be disappointed. But remember, the blind man on the road got what he asked for, but he would have gotten what he needed even if his answer had been the opposite. God's generosity is always reckless, and it's always perfect.

Respetar la Vida

"Una reflexión especial quisiera tener para vosotras, mujeres que habéis recurrido al aborto. La Iglesia sabe cuántos condicionamientos pueden haber influido en vuestra decisión, y no duda de que en muchos casos se ha tratado de una decisión dolorosa e incluso dramática. Probablemente la herida aún no ha cicatrizado en vuestro interior.…Sin embargo, no os dejéis vencer por el desánimo y no abandonéis la esperanza.…[E]l Padre de toda misericordia os espera para ofreceros su perdón y su paz en el sacramento de la Reconciliación."

October—Respect Life Month

"I would now like to say a special word to women who have had an abortion. The Church is aware of the many factors which may have influenced your decision, and she does not doubt that in many cases it was a painful and even shattering decision. The wound in your heart may not yet have healed. … But do not give in to discouragement and do not lose hope. … The Father of mercies is ready to give you his forgiveness and his peace in the Sacrament of Reconciliation."
