Corpus Christi Procession and Novena

June 9, 2022 by Bishop Joe S. Vásquez

On June 18, I invite the faithful of the Diocese of Austin to join me for a Eucharistic Procession in honor of the Feast of Corpus Christi. The day will begin with Mass at 8:30 a.m. at San Jose Parish—Austin followed by a 1.5-mile procession with the Eucharist to St. Edward's University. There, overlooking the city of Austin, we will spend time in adoration of the Blessed Sacrament followed by Benediction, which will impart a blessing on those present, the city of Austin, and the entire diocese. On this day as we take our Eucharistic Lord into the community to make known his real presence, we demonstrate our personal devotion and our oneness as the Mystical Body of Christ.

This day also marks the beginning of a three-year period of Eucharistic Revival for the U.S. Catholic Church and the Diocese of Austin. It is a time to reflect on the gift of Christ's love – the gift of himself, who is present at every celebration of the Mass. Further, It is a time to recommit ourselves to the Catholic faith as we take his body into our own, becoming living tabernacles in the community....

Corpus Christi Novena

Together we begin a Novena starting Friday, June 10 before the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity and going through Saturday, June 18 before the Solemnity of Corpus Christi. For more information on the Eucharistic Revival and the Novena (<https://www.eucharisticrevival.org>)

Procesión y Novena del Corpus Christi

June 9, 2022 by Obispo Joe S. Vásquez

El 18 de junio, invito a los fieles de la Diócesis de Austin a que me acompañen en una Procesión Eucarística en honor de la Fiesta del Corpus Christi. El Día comenzara con una Misa a las 8:30 a.m. en la Parroquia de San Jose-Austin, seguida de una procesión de 1.5 millas con la Eucaristía hasta la Universidad de St. Edward's. Allí, con la ciudad de Austin en la vista, pasaremos un tiempo en adoración del Santísimo Sacramento seguido por la Bendición, que impartirá una bendición a los presentes, a la ciudad de Austin y a toda la diócesis. En este día, al llevar a nuestro Señor Eucarístico dentro de la comunidad para dar a conocer su presencia real, demostramos nuestra devoción personal y nuestra unidad como Cuerpo Místico de Cristo.

Este día también marca el comienzo de un periodo de tres años de Avivamiento Eucarístico para la Iglesia Católica de Estados Unidos y la Diócesis de Austin. Es un momento para reflexionar sobre el don del amor de Cristo, el don de si mismo, que esta presente en cada celebración de la Misa. Además, es un momento para Volver a comprometernos con la fe católica al tomar su cuerpo en el nuestro, convirtiéndonos en tabernáculos vivientes in la comunidad....

Novena del Corpus Christi

Iniciamos juntos una Novena que comienza el viernes 10 de junio antes de la Solemnidad de la Santísima Trinidad y se extiende hasta el sábado 18 de junio antes de la Solemnidad del Corpus Christi. Para mas información sobre el Avivamiento Eucarístico y la Novena haga (<https://www.eucharisticrevival.org>)

ADULTS

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA), is the process of welcoming adults into the Catholic faith. It takes place gradually within the community of the faithful, the Church. God's own people provide an example to help those seeking the sacraments. RCIA offers an opportunity for those seeking to become Catholic to gather in a small group and learn more about the faith. Almost every parish in the world has an RCIA process. At our parish, RCIA meets every Wednesday, 6:00-8:00pm, until June. To find out more, call the parish office or signup at: <https://smcaustin.flocknote.com/rcia>

Catholic Scripture Study: Thursdays, 7:00-9:00pm, we are meeting in person in the Library. Our focus is the Gospel of Mark. Participants can still join via Zoom. Email LJSmith78704@yahoo.com.

Cathedral Book Study: Four Witnesses-The Early Church in Her Own Words by Rod Bennett. We meet Mondays, 6:30-8:00pm, via free zoom teleconferencing. For more information contact L.J. Smith at LJSmith78704@yahoo.com

OUR COMMUNITY

Our parish bids farewell to Fr. Will Rooney, who begins his new assignment at St. Joseph's Parish, Bryan, effective July 5. This will be his last weekend here, and he will be on hand in Bishops Hall after all Masses. All are invited to come say your goodbyes and thank him for his generous and dedicated service to our community.

Nuestra parroquia se despidе del P. Will Rooney, quien comienza su nueva asignación en la Parroquia de St. Joseph, Bryan, a partir del 5 de julio. Este será su último fin de semana aquí y estará disponible en Bishops Hall después de todas las Misas.

Volunteers needed to water garden flowers:

With the temperatures soaring, the SMC Garden Ministry needs your help keeping our newly planted flowers in the Courtyard alive and beautiful. No gardening experience is required, only a desire to honor Jesus and Mary in the simple work of tending the parish garden dedicated to them. Text or call Becky Robinson at 512-947-2822, for more information.

We are in need of a facilities service tech and hope to fill this position as soon as possible. A facilities tech would help maintain the Cathedral, as well as our campus. If you are interested (or know someone who is) and seek more information about the position, contact Louis Barron at lbarron@smcaustin.org or 512-476-6182 ext. 172.

Necesitamos un técnico de servicio de instalaciones y esperamos cubrir este puesto lo antes posible. Un técnico de instalaciones ayudaría a mantener la Catedral y nuestro campus. Si está interesado (o conoce a alguien que lo esté) y busca más información sobre el puesto, comuníquese con Louis Barron a lbarron@smcaustin.org o al 512-476-6182 extensión 172.

Legion of Mary: What does it do? It makes its members better Catholics, first of all, through a balanced program of prayer and service in union with the Holy Spirit as He operates through Mary, Mother of the Church. It gives Catholics an opportunity to do something positive for the Church while at the same time deepening their spiritual life and strengthening their Catholic Faith. You are invited to come and see, with no obligation, one of our weekly Saturday meetings from 10:00-11:30am in the Library, or call Milagros Cardenas at 510-734-8239.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Sir Thomas More was a humanist and statesman in Tudor England. He is still widely known today as the author of Utopia. More was a prolific writer and theologian. A true martyr of the Church, he was beatified by Pope Leo XIII in 1886, and canonized by Pope Pius XI on May 19, 1935.

More was born in London in 1478, the son of Sir John More, a lawyer and judge. He attended Oxford where he studied Latin and Greek, as well as formal logic. He left Oxford in 1494 to train as a lawyer in London. After attaining the Bar, he spent time discerning a call to the priesthood. Though attracted to the Franciscan order More remained a lay Christian, continuing to fast, pray, and wear a hair shirt. He was married twice, the loving father of three daughters, a step-daughter by his second marriage, and one son. More wrote many letters to his children when he was away on business and his daughters were known for their academic abilities, as they received the same education as his son, an anomaly at the time.

More rose to the Privy Council in 1514. He became the good friend and advisor to Henry VIII, and in 1521 he was knighted. In 1529 he was made Lord Chancellor of England. However, this appointment was the beginning of the end for the saint. He could not support the break with the Church in Rome when Henry failed to receive from the Pope the annulment of his first marriage to Katherine of Aragon to wed Anne Boleyn. More resigned as Lord Chancellor and continued to refuse to accept Henry as the head of the Church in England. Eventually he was imprisoned, tried, and sentenced to a traitor's death, to be hanged, drawn, and quartered. Henry commuted the sentence of his former friend to the more humane beheading. More was executed at Tower Hill, on July 6, 1535, before his death he famously proclaimed that he was "the king's good servant, but God's first." ©LPi

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Sacred Vessels

Have you ever paid attention to the purification of the sacred vessels after Holy Communion? If you haven't, I highly recommend doing so this Sunday. See the care with which the priest handles the chalice and the paten, pouring water into them to cleanse any loose particles of the Body and Blood of Christ. Observe the loving reverence he uses in wiping them dry with a special purificator. It's a ritual unto itself, and a powerful moment for reflection.

These vessels begin as earthly objects. They are made by human hands. There is nothing special about them — not until they go about the work for which they have been created. Until they contain the Body and Blood of Christ, they are only ordinary objects. But after they have carried within them the Eucharist, they are never the same. They will always be special and deserving of special care.

That's why partaking of the Eucharist is, for us, an evangelical undertaking. It is both a transformation and a declaration. When we accept this tremendous gift, we are proclaiming what we believe, and we are accepting the grace to follow through on that commitment.

When we are receiving the Eucharist, it is not possible for us to be passive. We become the vessel. We carry Christ into the world with us.

But do we act like it? Do we treat ourselves — our bodies, our souls — with the same respect as the priest cleansing the chalice? Do we treat one another with the reverence we would reserve for a sacred object? When we look at another person with anger or irritation or envy, do we acknowledge the change that we have willingly undergone by receiving Christ's Body and Blood into ourselves?

--Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS ©LPi

LA CORRESPONSABILIDAD DIARIA

Recipientes Sagrados

¿Alguna vez has prestado atención a la purificación de los recipientes sagrados después de la Sagrada Comunión? Si no lo has hecho, te recomiendo que lo hagas este domingo. Observa el cuidado con el que el sacerdote maneja el cáliz y la patena, vertiendo agua en ellos para limpiar cualquier partícula suelta del Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo. Observa la reverencia amorosa que usa para secarlos con un purificador especial. Es un ritual en sí mismo y un momento poderoso para reflexionar.

Estos recipientes comienzan como objetos terrestres. Están hechos por manos humanas. No tienen nada de especial, no hasta que realicen el trabajo para el cual fueron creados. Hasta que contengan el Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo, son solo objetos ordinarios. Pero después de haber llevado dentro de ellos la Eucaristía, nunca vuelven a ser los mismos. Siempre serán especiales y merecen un cuidado especial.

Por eso participar de la Eucaristía es, para nosotros, una proeza evangélica. Es tanto una transformación como una declaración. Cuando aceptamos este tremendo regalo, estamos proclamando lo que creemos y estamos aceptando la gracia para cumplir con ese compromiso.

Cuando recibimos la Eucaristía, no es posible que seamos pasivos. Nos convertimos en el recipiente. Llevamos a Cristo al mundo con nosotros.

¿Pero actuamos así? ¿Nos tratamos a nosotros mismos, a nuestros cuerpos, a nuestras almas, con el mismo respeto que el sacerdote que limpia el cáliz? ¿Nos tratamos unos a otros con la reverencia que reservaríamos para un objeto sagrado? Cuando miramos a otra persona con enojo, irritación o envidia, ¿reconocemos el cambio que hemos experimentado voluntariamente al recibir el Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo en nosotros mismos? — Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS ©LPi
