I invite you to join me on Nov. 19 at the Bell County Expo Center in Belton as we kick off a year of celebration to honor the Diocese of Austin's 75th anniversary. The day will begin at 8:30 a.m. with Mass. The bilingual Mass will be followed by a program featuring Father Dave Pivonka, TOR, president of Franciscan University in Steubenville, Ohio, and the Dave Moore Band. There will be Eucharistic Adoration, live praise and worship music and much more. Several parishes will provide kolaches and egg rolls, and there will be breakfast tacos. Please visit austindiocese75.org/rsvp or call (512) 949-2557 to let us know you are coming. We look forward to seeing you there!

GOSPEL REFLECTION

Facing her 50th birthday and recently diagnosed with Type-2 Diabetes, Rebecca was at a crossroads. Realizing that she had neglected her health and fitness over the years and allowed herself to gain significant weight, she felt poorly about who she had become. While it was easier to give in to temptation and the gratification received from food, her family needed her, and she desired a long life. She had an image of the person she could become. She wanted to be more trim, focused, disciplined, and healthy. She liked what she saw in her mind and set out on a journey to create it. With great effort, she succeeded and accomplished her goals. When we have a goal ahead of us, we are more apt to do whatever is necessary to get it. Is heaven a goal you want to achieve? Our popular images and metaphors to describe heaven can leave some people wondering if this is something they want for all eternity. Living like an angel, wearing white robes, meeting St. Peter, and reconnecting with loved ones are all welcome notions to some extent. But do they really inspire and captivate us enough to want to dramatically change how we live our lives? Heaven's reality is more profound than any human image or idea can fathom. Even though we believe in a bodily resurrection, heaven is more about attaining union with God. To achieve heaven is to attain eternal happiness and fulfill all desire. How do we awaken within us an ardent and passionate desire for heaven? St. Isaac of Ninevah counsels, "Enter eagerly into the treasure house that lies within you, and so you will see the treasure house of heaven, for the two are one and the same, and there is but one single entry into them both. The ladder that leads to the kingdom is hidden with you, and is found in your own soul. Dive into yourself and in your soul you will discover the rungs by which to ascend." Our souls are made to be eternal. Once we discover our true selves and are captivated by the wonder of who we really are, we will unleash our unwavering desire for a lasting union with our Creator. Heaven is about who we are. "For seeing you, our God, as you are, we shall be like you for all the ages." ©LPi

¿Has pensado alguna vez sobre cómo será cielo? ¿cómo será todo allá? Te has imaginado el reencuentro con tus seres queridos. ¡Qué gran felicidad! Todo será mejor que esto, de acuerdo a la promesa de Jesús. Tenemos reservada una morada en la vida eterna. La lectura del libro de los Macabeos nos da ejemplo de la forma de pensar de los siete hermanos. Es de admirarse su valentía y esperanza en la vida eterna. Estaban convencidos que la muerte física los prepararía para la resurrección. "El segundo hermano, estando para morir, dijo: ¡No eres más que un criminal! Nos quitas la vida presente, pero el Rey del Universo nos resucitará a una vida eterna" (2 Macabeos 7,9). Vivir con desapego de las cosas del mundo es un verdadero arte, y aún más tenerlas y saberlas compartir, sabiendo que nada nos llevaremos al morir es una verdadera gracia. ¿Conoces a alguien que viva así? Son esas personas que tienen muchos posesiones y dinero y pareciera que no les importara, son desprendidos y bondadosos. "Jesús le da un giro a esta perspectiva y afirma que nuestra peregrinación va de muerte a la vida: la vida plena, nosotros estamos de camino, en peregrinación hacia la vida plena, y esa vida plena es la que ilumina nuestro camino" (Papa Francisco). Jesús, en la última frase del Evangelio lo afirma así: "Él no es un Dios de muertos, sino de vivos, y todos viven por él" (Lucas 20,38). Ojalá que entendamos este mensaje de la vida eterna.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIPThe God of the Living

“Sic transit gloria mundi,” is what they used to say at papal coronations. “So passes earthly glory.” Everything is fleeting. Nothing is here to stay. But in reality, some things are forever. Our actions on earth do have the potential to reverberate in eternity. Everyday Stewardship is a lifestyle that embraces what will last. It is being aware of how our choices and our actions can be received by God, and through His grace, amplified to showcase His glory. Your great-grandparents were married for 60 years. Maybe they shared the greatest love anyone in your family has ever seen, and maybe they raised up a whole family of kids. But they’ve been gone for a generation now, and no one living remembers the softness in their eyes when they looked at each other. And to read today’s Gospel, you might even get the impression that their marriage was nothing more than an earthly whim. Gone. Fleeting. Temporal. This week’s readings invite us to contemplate the question: what exactly is immortal? What lasts beyond our earthly sojourn? The seven brothers and their mothers whose martyrdom is told this weekend in Maccabees didn’t die for the letter of the law, they died for the One who gave the law. In the same way, a marriage contract does not extend into eternity, but the fruits of a sacrificial love will live forever. Good works, devotion, gratitude, selflessness, graciousness, accountability — these are all of God. He is not God of the dead; He is God of the living — and these are the things that last an eternity.

LA CORRESPONSABILIDAD DIARIAEl Dios de los vivos

“Sic transit gloria mundi”, es lo que solían decir en los encuentros papales. Coronaciones. “Así pasa la gloria terrenal”. Todo es fugaz. Nada está aquí para quedarse. Pero en realidad, algunas cosas son para siempre. Nuestras acciones en la tierra tienen el potencial de repercutir en eternidad. La mayordomía diaria es un estilo de vida que abarca lo que perdurará. Es ser consciente de cómo nuestras elecciones y nuestras acciones pueden ser recibidas por Dios y, a través de su gracia, amplificadas para mostrar su gloria. Tus bisabuelos estuvieron casados durante 60 años. Tal vez compartieron el amor más grande que nadie en su familia haya visto jamás, y tal vez criaron a toda una familia de niños. Pero ya hace una generación que se fueron, y nadie con vida recuerda la suavidad en sus ojos cuando se miraban. Y al leer el Evangelio de hoy, incluso podrías tener la impresión de que su matrimonio no fue más que un capricho terrenal. Desaparecido. Fugaz. Temporal. Las lecturas de esta semana nos invitan a contemplar la pregunta: ¿qué es exactamente inmortal? ¿Qué dura más allá de nuestra estancia terrenal? Los siete hermanos y sus madres cuyo martirio se narra este fin de semana en Macabeos no murieron por la letra de la ley, murieron por Aquel que dio la ley. De la misma manera, un contrato de matrimonio no extenderse hasta la eternidad, pero los frutos de un amor sacrificial vivirán para siempre. Buenas obras, devoción, gratitud, desinterés, Misericordia, responsabilidad: todo esto es de Dios. Él no es Dios de los muertos; Él es Dios de los vivos, y estas son las cosas que duran una eternidad.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Saint Martin of Tours | November 11

Saint Martin of Tours was born a pagan in what is now Hungary around 316, but he was raised in Italy where his father, a tribune, was posted. At 15 he was compelled to serve in the Roman military, though he was already a catechumen. There is a popular legend that while on campaign the saint cut his cloak in half to share with a cold beggar. That night he dreamed of Jesus and his cloak was restored. He was baptized at 18. Only two years after his baptism, he was released from the military, he had refused his battle pay and to fight saying he was a soldier for Christ. He is the first recognized conscientious objector. After his release from the military, he became a disciple of Hilary of Poitiers. He worked diligently against the Arian heresy, which denies the divinity of Jesus Christ, and established a community of hermits near Poitiers in 361, the first French monastery. In 371 he reluctantly became bishop of Tour. Nearby, he founded a second monastery, Marmoutier, because he preferred the life of a monk he retreated often. In 384 there was a popular heresy infecting the Church in Spain, led by the bishop Priscillian and his followers. The emperor Magnus Maximus became involved, ordering the execution of the heretics. Saint Martin opposed the executions and protested the emperor's involvement in Church matters. Unfortunately, the Priscillians were executed anyway. Saint Martin died in Candes-Saint-Martin, Gaul in 397. He is notably one of the first saints who was not martyred. He is the patron saint of France.
