EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

So often in life, people are concerned about the minimum requirements. What is the minimum I must do to get a certain grade? What is the minimum I need to do to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation? What exactly do I have to do to make my boss happy? This concern does not stop with everyday life but continues into our relationship with God. What exactly is required of me for salvation? How much time, talent, and treasure are enough? Jesus does not call us to this way of life, but instead to a life of unbounding generosity and surrender. Jesus said, "If anyone forces you to go one mile, go with him two miles." The minimum requirement is one mile; however, we are not to be disciples of minimum requirements and checking off boxes. We are to go the extra mile because that is how we bear witness to the transforming power of Jesus Christ. That is how we change lives and share the grace and love we have received in abundance. Nothing ever changes by doing the minimum. There is no real glory given to God by responding to His call with the minimum. Imagine a world where all of us good stewards give without ceasing and go far beyond the minimum requirements. Our world would be a very different place. So, what is stopping us?

LA CORRESPONSABILIDAD DIARIA

Muy a menudo en la vida, la gente se preocupa por el mínimo requisitos ¿Qué es lo mínimo que debo hacer para obtener una determinada calificación? ¿Qué es lo mínimo que debo hacer para recibir el Sacramento de la Confirmación? ¿Qué tengo que hacer exactamente para hacer feliz a mi jefe? Esta preocupación no se detiene en la vida cotidiana, sino que continúa en nuestra relación con Dios. ¿Qué se requiere exactamente de mí para la salvación? ¿Cuánto tiempo, talento y tesoro son suficientes? Jesús no nos llama a este estilo de vida, sino a una vida de generosidad y entrega sin límites. Jesús dijo: "Si alguien te obliga a caminar una milla, ve con él dos millas". El requisito mínimo es una milla; sin embargo, no debemos ser discípulos de requisitos mínimos y marcar casillas. Debemos hacer un esfuerzo adicional porque así es como damos testimonio del poder transformador de Jesucristo. Así cambiamos vidas y compartimos la gracia y el amor que hemos recibido en abundancia. Nada cambia nunca por hacer lo mínimo. No se le da verdadera gloria a Dios respondiendo a Su llamado con el mínimo. Imagina un mundo donde todos seamos buenos y los delegados dan sin cesar y van mucho más allá de los requisitos mínimos. Nuestro mundo sería un lugar muy diferente. Entonces, ¿qué nos detiene?

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Short Bio: Venerable Félix Varela was a thought leader, professor, scholar, political leader, and cultural champion for immigrant families. Originally from Cuba, he served in Spain and in the United States as a pastoral luminary in every community he engaged.

Biography:

Venerable Félix Varela y Morales was born on November 20, 1788, in Havana, Cuba. After being orphaned at a young age, he moved to St. Augustine, Florida, to be raised by his grandparents. At the time, St. Augustine was under Spanish rule and his grandfather was the commander of the city's Spanish troops. Instead of following in his grandfather's footsteps and going to military school, however, he decided to pursue the priesthood. After attending the San Carlos Seminary in Havana, he was ordained in 1811 and began his ministry as a professor at the same school. During those days, San Carlos Seminary was open to lay students so, being a philosophy professor, Varela ended up teaching many of the men who would become the Cuban intellectuals of his time. Some even said of him, "it was he who first taught us to think." A champion of education, he wrote his textbooks in Spanish rather than Latin for them to be more accessible to the average scholar. He became quickly revered as a scholar and was eventually elected to represent Cuba in the Cortes Generales of Spain in Madrid in 1821. While part of the Cortes, Father Varela petitioned for the independence of Latin America. He also published an essay arguing for the abolition of slavery in Cuba. Not long after, though, the liberal government of Spain was overthrown by France, the Cortes dissolved, and he was sentenced to death for his positions. He escaped to New York where he went on to launch the first Spanish-language newspaper in the U.S., publish many articles on human rights and religious tolerance, and foster cooperation between English and Spanish speaking communities. While in New York, he founded and pastored a parish, The Church of the Immigrant, served as Vicar General of the Diocese of New York, and was a theological consultant to the Committee of American Bishops as they drew up the Baltimore Catechism. He learned Gaelic and was able to assist with the influx of Irish refugees coming to the USA as he played a significant role in shaping how the American Church welcomed them, championing their rights as immigrants and respecting those who weren't Catholic. Father Felix Varela died in 1853 in St. Augustine. His legacy as a thought leader, follower of Christ, and champion for the oppressed earned him many accolades after his death including having an award named after him by the Cuban government. Many streets and institutions also bear his name in Cuba and the United States. He was declared Venerable by the Vatican's Sacred Congregation for the Causes of Saints on Easter Sunday, April 8, 2012.

Prayer:

Holy and righteous God, you created us in your image.
Grant us grace to contend fearlessly against evil and make no peace with oppression.
Help us, like your servant Venerable Felix Varela, to work for justice among people and nations, to the glory of your name, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.
Amen.

RESEPECT LIFE

"We often assume parenthood happens easily after 'I do,' but for many married couples, it does not. For some, the joy of conception never happens. Others suffer repeated miscarriages. Still others experience secondary infertility... If you experience difficulty bringing a child into your family, know that you are not alone. God is with you, and his Church desires to walk with you... God has a beautiful plan for your life as a married couple."
