CATHOLIC SOCIAL TEACHING CORNER

SIXTH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME: LORD, PLEASE HELP US TO BE HUMBLE AND MEEK, PURE OF HEART AND MERCIFUL. MAY WE INITIATE PEACE AND HUNGER FOR RIGHTEOUSNESS.

"I GIVE YOU A NEW COMMANDMENT: LOVE ONE ANOTHER. AS I HAVE LOVED YOU, SO YOU ALSO SHOULD LOVE ONE ANOTHER. THIS IS HOW ALL WILL KNOW THAT YOU ARE MY DISCIPLES, IF YOU HAVE LOVE FOR ONE ANOTHER." - JOHN 13:34-35

CHRIST TEACHES US HOW TO EVANGELIZE, HOW TO INVITE PEOPLE INTO COMMUNION WITH HIM, AND HOW TO CREATE A CULTURE OF WITNESS: NAMELY, THROUGH LOVE. A CHRISTIAN LIFE LIVED WITH CHARITY AND FAITH IS THE MOST EFFECTIVE FORM OF EVANGELIZATION.

EVANGELIZATION TESTIFIES TO THE TRANSFORMATIVE POWER OF THE GOSPEL AND THE MISSION OF THE CHURCH TO SANCTIFY SOCIETY, HAND ON THE FAITH, STRENGTHEN THE FAITH OF CURRENT MEMBERS, AND RENEW THE FAITH OF THOSE FALLEN AWAY.

A REFLECTION FROM THE MISSIONS DIRECTOR

Trusting in God in Modern Times

Who do you trust in? God or man?

Nowadays, it's easy to feel overwhelmed by the "curses" of our time – the constant stream of negative news, international calamities, and other catastrophes that seem to scare and separate us. Hardly a day goes by without new information bombarding us. Yet, our readings today challenge us. They remind us to keep hope. And, it is now more than ever that we must turn to God and His Word to nourish and sustain us.

From personal challenges to global crises, now is perhaps one of the most difficult times in history to trust in God. Constant stimulation, Twitter updates (ok, X updates), and the 24/7 news cycle badger us with negativity on a daily, hourly, even minute-ly basis. This fear can creep into our hearts, making it difficult to maintain a sense of peace and hope. It's all too easy to become distracted and drift off course. Yet, hope remains.

And our hope doesn't mean we ignore the hardships, but instead it involves a change in our mindset: choosing to respond with love and trust in God—the path of blessing.

*Blessed is the one who trusts in the LORD,
whose hope is in the LORD.
He is like a tree planted beside the waters
that stretches out its roots to the stream:
it fears not the heat when it comes;
its leaves stay green;
in the year of drought it shows no distress,
but still bears fruit. - Book of Jeremiah*

In modernity, this hope can feel foreign. Yet, it is precisely in these moments that our faith is tested, grown, and deepened. Our hope is not a naive optimism that ignores the realities of our world, but instead it is a remedy. It is an anchor that holds us steady amidst the storms of life—a confident expectation rooted in God's promises.

So, how can we live out this message of hope in 2025? Well, in today's climate, it seems prudent to offer some practical tips:

- Practice Gratitude: I find that each day slows down when I acknowledge the blessings in my life, no matter how small.
- Extend Forgiveness: Holding onto resentment from the past only breeds more bitterness. We have enough of that on the news! Choose to forgive others (and yourself!) as Christ has forgiven us.
- Serve Others: In the heart of the city of Austin, we're in a prime spot to serve. Reach out to those in need, offering a helping hand, a listening ear, or even just a smile.
- Become Prayerful: Spend time in prayer, seeking God's wisdom and strength through the Scriptures.
- Be a Light: In a world filled with darkness, we are called to be a light! Let your words and actions be a source of hope and encouragement to others. We are not in competition, but must build each other up daily as different members of the body.

Here in Austin we find our selves in the midst of something special—the path of blessing. And we know that this path leads us to eternal life. By actively choosing trust and hope, we not only find peace in our own lives but also become instruments of God's love and healing in a world that desperately needs it.

Let us pray:

Lord, may we embrace our calling with courage and faith, trusting in You and knowing that You are with us always.

God's peace and hope to you today,

John Woldum

CATHEDRAL SCHOOL OF SAINT MARY

Dear Friends,

Do you recall your classroom Valentine's Day celebrations as a child? Maybe you decorated a shoebox or tissue box with bright red and pink tissue paper glueing on colored hearts, leaving a small opening where your classmates could drop in a note or a candy. And maybe you eagerly awaited a candy heart with the right message from the right person! Well, if you ever want to take a stroll down memory lane, plan a visit with us on Valentine's Day; we celebrate big! And rightly so, as we teach that the purpose of our lives is to love. More specifically, we teach that God made us to know Him, to love Him, and to serve Him in this world so that we can happy with Him in the next. And so we can say that we were created by Love, with love and for Love! May God bless you on this Valentine's Day with the sure knowledge of His great love for you, His precious child, whom He never ceases to love, to guide and to sustain. Thank you for all the love you give our school!

God bless,

Teresa Pione

Queridos amigos,

¿Recuerdas las celebraciones del Día de San Valentín en tu salón de clases cuando eras niño? Tal vez decoraste una caja de zapatos o una caja de pañuelos con papel de seda rojo y rosa brillante pegado a corazones de colores, dejando una pequeña abertura donde tus compañeros podrían dejar caer una nota o un caramelo. ¡Y tal vez esperabas ansiosamente un corazón de caramelo con el mensaje correcto de la persona adecuada! Bueno, si alguna vez quieres dar un paseo por el pasado, planifica una visita con nosotros el día de San Valentín; ¡Celebramos en grande! Y con razón, ya que enseñamos que el propósito de nuestra vida es amar. Más específicamente, enseñamos que Dios nos hizo para que lo conociéramos, lo amáramos y le sirviéramos en este mundo para que seamos felices con Él en el próximo. ¡Y así podemos decir que fuimos creados por Amor, con amor y para Amor! Que Dios te bendiga en este día de San Valentín con el conocimiento seguro de su gran amor por ti, su precioso hijo, a quien nunca deja de amar, guiar y sostener. ¡Gracias por todo el amor que le dan a nuestra escuela!

Bendiciones,
