Start Your Day With the Proper Focus

Many of our parishioners would like to attend weekday Mass before leaving for work, but must be on the road before our 7:30 am Mass ends. Others, who may or may not have such time constraints, are "early risers." Perhaps you would consider participating in the public recitation of Morning Prayer at 7:00 am (Monday through Friday) in our chapel --- whether you're able to stay for Mass or not.

St. Basil the Great gives an excellent explanation for Morning Prayer: "It is said in the morning in order that the first stirrings of our mind and will may be consecrated to God and that we may take nothing in hand until we have been gladdened by the thought of God…." Morning Prayer is part of "The Liturgy of the Hours," also known as the "Divine Office." It's the official daily prayer of the Church, marking the hours of each day and sanctifying the day with prayer. There are five Hours of the Divine Office: Morning Prayer, Daytime Prayer, Evening Prayer, Night Prayer, and Office of Readings. Each of the five canonical Hours includes selections from the Psalms, as well as other scriptural passages. Morning and Evening Prayer also include intercessions. The Divine Office expresses the symbolism of the time of day, the liturgical season, or the feast being celebrated.

Give it a try. There will be someone in the chapel eager to guide you through your initial participation in this beautiful and ancient tradition of the Church.

Prayer for All Saints Day

Dear God, thank you for the example of the Saints.
I desire to join in their company, worshiping you forever in Heaven.
Please help me follow their footsteps, and yours, Jesus Christ.
Please help me to conform myself to Your image, seeking Your will in all things, as the Saints did.
Please help me to devote myself, and all that I do, to Your glory, and to the service of my neighbors.
Amen.

Annual Mass of Remembrance

Thursday, November 2nd, 7:00 pm

During the month of November, the Church remembers in a special way her beloved deceased. On Thursday, November 2nd, the Feast of All Souls, the MMR community will celebrate a Mass of Remembrance at 7:00 pm. We will remember and pray for all deceased parishioners and their family and friends, but a particular acknowledgement will be made of those who have died during the past year. Each of these souls will be memorialized with a special candle that will burn near the altar during Mass. Family members will be invited to take their loved one's candle home at the conclusion. If you wish to participate in this commemoration, please contact Mary at 215-646-4192 by October 29th (tonight!) so that we can reserve a candle for your loved one.

Lost and Found

If you have lost a personal item while attending Mass at Mary, Mother of the Redeemer, please take the time to check out the lost and found in the Ministry room (outside of the Chapel). Several umbrellas, rosaries and children's items are in the blue bin for our lost and found. In addition, a couple of rings have been found on the property. Call the Parish Office and give us a description of your lost ring to see if it is yours. We would love to reunite you with your lost items… and your lost items are looking to be reunited with you!

Parish Staff Member Taking New Position

Gail Polselli (who came to us 15 months ago as "Gail Toto") is leaving her two part-time MMR positions as Director of Parish Services and Director of Youth Ministry to take a full-time position as teacher of Theology at Bishop McDevitt High School (one of our Archdiocesan high schools) located in Wyncote, PA. Gail believes that her calling and God-given talents are in ministry to the youth of the Church. Her husband Anthony also teaches in one of our Archdiocesan high schools. We wish Gail great success in her new ministry, and pray for her. Meanwhile, we have posted a full-time position of Director of Parish Services and a part-time position of Director of Youth Ministry for MMR Parish on the Archdiocese of Philadelphia website and our own parish website.

FORMED PICK OF THE WEEK

This epic film follows Karol Wojtyla's journey from his youth in Poland through his late days on the Chair of St. Peter. It explores his life behind the scenes: how he touched millions of people, changed the face of the Church and the world, and how he defended the dignity of mankind. Jon Voight's powerful, Emmy-nominated performance as John Paul II was widely praised, as was Cary Elwes as the young Karol. Shot on location in Rome and Poland in close connection with the Vatican, this is the definitive epic film on the life of Pope John Paul II. Stars Jon Voight, Cary Elwes, Ben Gazzara, James Cromwell, and Christopher Lee.

This movie is not rated, but was created with an adult audience in mind. It may contain violence indicative of the life and times of the saint or character portrayed. We would recommend Parental Guidance and that parents preview it before watching with children.
