We call upon each parishioner to share his or her talents in addressing the needs of our parish and society at large. We implore the Holy Spirit to consecrate each of us in this mission.

*A message from
Jessica Walters,
Director of Adult Faith Formation*

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

There are so many aspects of life that feel bitter-sweet. This is my last column here at MMR, and I am so sad to say goodbye. That's the bitter part. The sweet part is that I get to spend more time at home with our precious baby, which is such a beautiful thing.

I wish us all a sense of peace in this new year, and in this time of transition. In Psalm 29 we read that "the Lord will bless his people with peace." In Acts 10 we hear the proclamation of "peace through Jesus Christ, who is Lord of all." What does it mean to have peace through Jesus Christ? I'll share a reflection that resonated with me and helped me better understand:

"When it comes to true happiness in life, the gift of true interior peace is one of the clearest signs that we are on the right track and are making the right decisions. When we choose the will of God each and every day, those choices may be difficult and require much initial sacrifice.

True peace produces strength. It leads to interior integrity and wholeness. It produces clarity of thought and certitude in convictions. God's peace leads to more peace. It leads to choices based on well-thought-out actions of love. Peace leads us to the will of God, and the will of God leads to peace. The cyclical effect is exponential and is one of the clearest guides to happiness in life.

Reflect, today, upon whether you truly have peace in your heart. Do you recognize the still, strong and sustaining presence of God within your soul? Do your daily choices produce greater integrity of heart and clarity of mind? Do you find that you have joy and calm, even in the midst of life's greatest challenges? Seek out this peace, for if you do, you will be seeking out the good God Who produces this glorious gift within your heart."

Peace and blessings on your week!

Warm regards,

Jessica Walters

Updated Information REMOTE MLK DAY 2022

We have had to make adjustments to our MLK Day of Service event that was scheduled for Monday, January 17th. In the best interest of our youth, we are changing our MLK Service event to a remote event. Those who wish to participate in the event, are welcome to complete one, two, three or even four acts of service that we have prearranged.

1. Cradles to Crayons are looking for handmade cards for underprivileged children in the area "Welcoming the child back to the school year." This is such a big undertaking that they need to start this program now. MMR has committed to 1000 cards. Please consider making a few handmade cards for this event. In addition, we will be hosting a school supply drive. So please feel free to drop off donations of school supplies at the same time. School Supply Donations and cards can be dropped off at boxes in the Church Narthex and the School Lobby from January 15th - 23rd.
2. Least of Our Brothers is a Catholic organization that assists the homeless in Philadelphia. They especially assist many homeless veterans. They are looking for grab bags that they can distribute to those who come to their facility. Consider filling a one gallon ziploc bag with personal care items such as deodorant, toothpaste, toothbrush, socks, hand warmers, gloves, soap, etc. These items may be dropped off at the Parish Center Lobby on Monday, January 17th from 1:00 - 4:00 pm. Mrs. Bull will be present to receive these donations.
3. St John's Hospice is in need of casseroles. Please consider grabbing a casserole container from the cabinets above the freezers in the hallway of the Parish Center. Your completed casserole can be returned to the freezer in the hallway.
4. Aid for Friends delivers individual meals to those who are in need. If making a casserole is too much, continue grabbing individual containers and making a meal. These meals can be returned to the upright freezer in hallway of the Parish Center.

Martin Luther King Day of Service is an important event in the life of our parish. We hope to hold our in person event next year as this is a MMR tradition. Thank you for considering our "REMOTE" options this year.

For any questions, please contact Mrs. Bull at Lbull@mmredeemer.org
