Advent Confessions

Thursday, December 18th, 7:00 to 8:00 pm

Prepare your heart for the birth of Jesus. A number of visiting priests will be present to hear confessions. If you go often or have been away for a while, "Don't be afraid to go to the Sacrament of Confession, where you will meet Jesus who forgives you... In Confession, Jesus welcomes us with all our sinfulness, to give us a new heart, capable of loving as he loves." (Pope Francis).

"Confession is the soul's bath. Even a clean soul needs to wash itself from the dust of the world." (St. Padre Pio)

Celebrating St. Nicholas Day with Kindergarten

Our Kindergarten students recently continued a beloved MMR tradition through their annual St. Nicholas Day service project. Wearing bishop hats like St. Nicholas, our students “played Santa” as they filled Christmas stockings with hundreds of snacks, self-care items, and handmade cards for troops serving overseas.

We were grateful to welcome Blue Star Mothers, military wives, and members of the Army National Guard, who visited the school to assist our students in spreading Christmas cheer across the globe. Thank you, also, to our Project Peace Club, which sponsored a patriotic dress-down day to help cover shipping costs!

This service project is always a joyful way to share the true spirit of the season with those who serve so far from home.

MMR Students at LC Robotics Showcase

MMR students excelled at Lansdale Catholic’s 2025 Robotics Showcase. Congratulations to “The Lego Legends” on their first-place project of an ancient civilization excavation site!

Great job to all of our students who participated with creativity and teamwork. You make us #MMR Proud!

CRS Spotlight

When U.S. aid priorities shifted, 170 schools in Haiti were at risk of losing books and supplies. Your generosity changed that. Today, classrooms are filled with the tools kids need to learn and dream big. Your gift has the power to transform lives around the world. Please consider giving now to help change someone's life by visiting www.crs.org.

Thank you for your support!

Tips for Supporting Someone Grieving During the Holidays

- Be supportive of the way the person chooses to handle the holidays. Some may wish to follow traditions; others may choose to avoid customs of the past and do something new. It's okay to do things differently.
- Invite the person to join you or your family during the holidays. You might invite them to join you for a religious service or at a holiday meal where they are a guest.
- Donate a gift or money in memory of the person's loved one. Remind the person that his or her loved one is not forgotten.
- Never tell someone that he or she should be "over it." Instead, give the person hope that, eventually, he or she will enjoy the holidays again.
- Be willing to listen. Active listening from friends and family is an important step to helping some cope with grief and heal.
- Remind the person that you are thinking of him or her and the loved one who died. Cards, phone calls and visits are great ways to stay in touch.
- Follow up after the holidays to check in. Given the activity of the season, some people may make it through the holidays without any issues but they might find the post-holiday period to be more difficult. So checking in after the holidays to see how he or she may be doing is helpful.

Loving and compassionate Lord Jesus, You brought strength and healing to the afflicted. Through Your healing touch and words, You restored sight to the blind, hearing to the deaf, strength to weakened limbs, and wholeness to those afflicted with disease. Look mercifully upon those named here in their time of need. Grant them the patience they need to carry their cross. If it be Your holy will, grant them Your healing.
