

St. Ann Catholic School Council

Roles & Purpose Overview

1. Nature of the Council

- The School Council is an advisory committee only.
- No voting occurs; members provide guidance and feedback to help the Principal and Pastor make informed decisions.
- The council's primary purpose is to advise on matters that support the mission and goals of St. Ann Catholic School.

2. Council Members (2025)

- President: Abby Alphs
- Secretary: Meg Adkins
- Members: Matt Dedriech, Amanda Franck, Mike Haverty, Chris Rosburg
- Staff Representative: Kelly Kredo
- Ex Officio Members: Fr. Mitchel Zimmerman, Kelli Minshall, Tori Brown
 - Ex Officio members serve because of their roles in the school or parish and provide ongoing insight and support.

3. What the Council Does

- Advises on:
 - Strategic planning to advance the school's mission and long-term vision
 - School standards and alignment with Catholic identity
 - Acting as a liaison between parents and administration to promote open, constructive communication

4. What the Council Does Not Do

- The council is not involved in:
 - Curriculum decisions
 - Personnel or staffing matters
 - Individual student concerns
 - Any confidential issues

5. Our Approach

- This council is a proactive, mission-driven space, focused on growth and discernment.
- Members share ideas and perspectives that help the school thrive.
- It is not a forum for complaints and grievances, but rather a place to work together in support of St. Ann's continued success.

Areas to focus on:

Facility

Academics

Spirituality/Community

Safety/Security